CLATSKANIE—An adequate and appetizing luncheon costing only six and one-half cents per person was prepared recently by a group of Clatskanie homemakers. The meal consisted of rice casserole, a green salad, prune bread, pudding and bread and butter. These women are cooperators in the home economics extension service which is supervised by Mrs. Sarah V. Case, home demonstration agent in Columbia county. ENTERPRISE—How she introduced modern, energy saving ideas into her kitchen is reported by a homemaker of Enterprise, as follows: "My kitchen is not modern so it is hard for me to make changes. However, I moved my work table nearer to the stove and put a shell over it. Now I have within easy reach a pair of scissors which are new to my kitchen equipment, newspaper squares, cooking spoons, spice and a ruler."
