GRANTS PASS—A traveling cannery to aid in conserving surplus foodstuffs of the county is an original idea being promoted jointly by the Josephine county extension service and the granges. Boiler, pressure cooker, tin cans, sealer and other needed equipment are being assembled on a fair wheel trailer which will shortly establish a schedule for visits to various communities.

It is expected that a majority of the 445 families enrolled in the year round garden project will take advantage of this portable cannery to preserve their garden produce. A charge of a few cents per can will be made to cover cost of operation and supplies, to be paid cash or in produce. Directing this program are Mrs. Sara Wertz, home demonstration agent; H. B. Howells, county agent; and a Pomona grange committee composed of George Wertz, Ernest Campbell, Ben Coutant and Pete Dorsay.
