MR. & MRS. RUBE ZWEIFEL.

:SOCIETY:

The Misses Georgiana and Eleanor Briggs were hostesses at a miscellaneous shower at the home of Miss Jessie Brierley Thursday afternoon complimenting Miss Edith Mikesell. Favors of small corsages concealed two tiny hearts bearing the names of Miss Mikesell of Hermiston and Mr. Alfred Cable of Pilot Rock, which were used in announcing the engagement of the two young people.

A group of fifty young people gathered at the DeMoss home at Cold Springs last Saturday night for a beach party and swim. Guests came garbed in old clothes, and were armed with a cup and spoon. The group was lead to a large bonfire soon after the arrival of the last guest where hotcakes and sausages were fried. For dessert the guests were lead to a watermelon patch. Later in the evening a refreshing swim was enjoyed.

Mrs. Walter Hamm entertained at her home Monday evening complimenting Mrs. H. McCulley at a miscellaneous shower. Various games were enjoyed during the evening. Later, gifts were presented to the honoree in a very clever manner.

The Ladies of the Baptist-Christian church were hostesses to the members of the Methodist church Ladies Aid Wednesday at an all-day meeting. The ladies sewed on quilt blocks. A bounteous dinner was served at noon.

FOREST PRODUCTS—Of Oregon's primary income 91 per cent is accounted for by forest products, agriculture, and manufacturing. Of this 91 per cent, forest products contribute 43 per cent; agriculture 24 per cent; and manufacturing (other than of forest products) 24 per cent.
