COCHRAN GIVES BULLDOG SQUAD STIFF DRILLS

KENNEWICK, SEPT. 23, FIRST TEAM ON ROSTER.

Twenty-Six Men Now On Football Squad; Henning Coaches Reserves.

Twenty-five men reported to Coach Cochran Wednesday afternoon for the first scrimmage practice of the season. Series of line bucks, end runs, and cut backs plays as displayed by the first squad last night show great promise as ground gainers this year.

The remainder of this week and the early part of next will be spent in smoothing out all rough spots and concentration on perfect timing of plays in preparation for the Kennewick game, September 23.

Hermiston high should equal, if not better, last year's brilliant record with five of last year's regular linemen and two backfield men again on the squad.

Glen Hammon, veteran center, will again deliver the pigskin to Martin, who has been shifted from quarter to full, and Hunt at left half. Harris and Settle, guards, who showed great ability in running interference and piercing the enemy line last fall, will again display usual form. "Little" Tommy Stewart, who is always a threat with his 210 pounds, will again be mated with Fred Reeves at tackle. Bense, one of last year's reserves, will probably play quarter, and Mervin Evans, who dons Bulldog colors for the first time this year, will probably play right half. Don Moore, Jack Dawson, and Charlie Wells will have a merry time fighting for end positions.

Reserves under the instruction of Clarence Henning, seventh grade teacher, who will keep the regulars on their toes are: Jim Lenhart, Dale Wells, Floyd Pierce, C. O. Marble, Paul Marble, Clark Paul, George Sale, Clement Stockard, Jack Reeves, Woodrow Whitsit, Herbert Throop, Richard Cox, Eugene Pierce, and Burke Doyle.

Church Incorporates.

Members of the Baptist-Christian church have incorporated under the name of Hermiston Union church. This decision was made at a regular business meeting held last Thursday night and will enable the membership to purchase the building east of the Umatilla Cooperative Creamery, which they have been occupying. The name was chosen partly because it would make members of any denomination feel free to attend any service without any special church affiliation.

SCHOOL NOTES

High school enrollment has increased two, and grade enrollment three, the past week, bringing the total number now on the registers 127 and 221 respectively.

Practically all grade students have been supplied with this year's quota of books by the district. Those not yet supplied have been ordered. A total of $87.95 was paid students by the district for second hand books. Commercial and science classes are crowded this year. Enrollment in bookkeeping is 26, shorthand 12, and first year typing classes are completely filled. Several students were refused admittance to courses due to lack of room and equipment. Lack of laboratory space makes work in the science classes difficult.

During the summer, eight new Remington Noiseless typewriters were added to the typing department in exchange for eight older machines.

Forty-eight students have purchased Associated Student Body tickets up to this time.

Assembly singing is being held each Wednesday under the direction of Mr. Knapp.

The high school music department is progressing nicely this year. Orchestra practice is held Monday and Friday; band practice Tuesday and Thursday; and vocal work, including boys quartet and girls sextet, takes place Wednesday. Much interest is being shown in some divisions and real difficulties will be met in selecting the best applicants.

A demonstration showing how to cure mutton was given Monday afternoon, in the library building by H. A. Lindgren, extension animal husbandryman and meat specialist from Oregon State college, assisted by Garnet D. Best, assistant county agent.

Mr. Lindgren also gave a meat cutting demonstration showing the proper steps in the preparation of a carcass for canning. This demonstration was witnessed by 87 people, who sampled the cured mutton.

Mr. Lindgren is working on a subcommittee of the state relief committee appointed by Governor Meier. This committee is known as a committee on food preservation and is interested in showing farmers how to utilize the cheaper meats for home use, such as old ewes.

Pamphlets containing instructions and recipes for meat preservation may be obtained from Assistant County Agent Best's office or County Agent Holt's office, in Pendleton. They are furnished free to anyone who can use them.

LOCAL CO-OPS. REPRESENTED AT BOARDMAN MEET.

A group of Hermiston men representing various cooperative organizations here, met at the grange hall in Boardman Monday night to explain the set-up of the local cooperatives. It was not a regular Grange meeting night but a good representation was present. Those present from Hermiston were: Jess Richards, Ralph Krause, C. M. Jackson, Mr. and Mrs. B. E. Seitz, O. Barlow, Garnet D. Best, and Henry Sommerer; and A. E. McFarland, Umatilla.

LOCAL LIBRARY RECEIVES ROSICRUCIAN BOOK

Readers in Hermiston will now have access to the Rosicrucian book in the public library. Antone Soneson of this city, a member of the order, (A.M.O.R.C.) has just received official notification from the organization headquarters in San Jose, Calif., that the following book has been donated to the library: "Rosicrucian Questions and Answers," with complete history of the order, written by H. Spencer Lewis, Ph. D., F. R. C.

Antone Soneson states that the Rosicrucian Grand Secretary informs him that the donation to the library is the result of several requests from local readers that the book be made available to the public. A fund is maintained by the order for such donations. It is said the number of such books at the local library will be increased as the public interest creates a demand for them.

Car Overturns At Intersection.

As Miss Myrtle McAtee reached the intersection near Walker's Service Station Friday morning enroute to her school in Columbia district, a Reo car, driven by Mrs. Wilson of Portland, struck the right back wheel of the car she was driving and caused it to turn on its side. Miss McAtee was driving her father's Ford tudor which was damaged considerably. According to witnesses of the accident, Mrs. Wilson was driving at a speed that prohibited her from making the turn without hitting the car which was already in the right-of-way at the intersection. Property damage was carried by Mrs. Wilson. Miss McAtee escaped without injury.

P. T. A. Will Meet.

The first meeting of the Parent-Teachers association will be held at the high school auditorium, at 8:00 o'clock Wednesday evening, September 21. The regular business meeting will be followed by entertainment.

CLASSIFIED AD REQUEST BRINGS BABY GIRL TO HOME

HERMISTON WOMAN GETS GIRL WITH BROWN EYES.

Story Wins Day's Prize; Girl Adopted and Has Made Local Home Bright and Happy.

Among the interesting life stories revealed through The Oregonian classified column contest was one sent in by Mrs. R. French, of Hermiston, which was published in The Oregonian recently as prize winner for the day's stories.

The story follows: "She wanted a baby left on her doorstep—and she got one. All through an Oregonian classified ad. 'The account of this unusual occurrence takes first prize today in The Oregonian's "story behind the classified ad" contest. It was submitted by Mrs. R. French, Hermiston, Ore.

"Nine years ago this fall I read of a baby being left on someone's doorstep. I remarked to a friend that I wished someone would leave a baby on my doorstep.

"She said maybe they would if it was known that I wanted a child, and suggested that I make my wants known through The Oregonian. We laughed about it and as a joke I sent in this ad:

"Wanted—Someone to leave a bright brown-eyed baby girl on my doorstep."

"A few evenings later several friends and myself were seated in our home. The bell rang. My aunt answered the door.

"I heard her exclaim, then she called to us. We all rushed to see what was the matter. We found the prettiest, brown-eyed baby you ever saw.

"Well, to make a long story short my husband and I adopted the baby at once. She was just what I'd been wanting. She has grown up into a splendid child and a very talented one. My husband and I both adore her and she has brought much happiness to a childless home.

"So who can doubt my faith in an Oregonian ad?"

ADAM ZINN, PIONEER STANFIELD RESIDENT, PASSES

STANFIELD, Ore., Sept. 14 (Special)—Friends of Adam Zinn were shocked to hear of his death Thursday, September 8, while he was spending a few days vacationing in the mountains near Ukiah. His death was due to heart failure.

MANY HERMISTON PEOPLE ATTENDED LEGION CONVENTION

SALEM DRUM CORPS WINS FIRST IN NATIONAL FINALS.

Eakin Chosen Department Commander for Oregon; J. E. Hallyburton Named District Commander.

Many local people were among the 75,000 Legionnaires and Auxiliary members in Portland the past week attending the state and national American Legion conventions. They will be returning tomorrow bringing tales of one of the most colorful conventions ever held on the coast.

One of the highlights of the 14th annual state convention was the election of John Bronson Eakin, affable, hard-working member of Carl B. Fenton post of Dallas, known to all the boys as "Jae," as commander of the department of Oregon, American Legion, at the closing business session.

His victory for the position, succeeding Alex G. Berry of Portland, was undecided until three-fourths of the roll was called, for Don A. McLeod of Hood River made a spirited bid for the honor and actually led for part of the count. A bolt by several eastern Oregon posts from the line-up for McLeod swung the convention in favor of Eakin.

J. E. Hallyburton of Hermiston was elected commander for District No. 6. Other district commanders were chosen as follows: No. 1, M. R. Calhoun, St. Helens; No. 2, Fred Deiner, Newberg; No. 3, R. A. Talbot, Albany; No. 4, Ray Jude, Coquille; No. 5, R. J. McKinney, Bend; No. 7, Harley Richardson, LaGrande.

Eakin Active in Legion.

The new commander has just completed a year as chairman of the membership committee of the state department and has served in past years as commander of Carl B. Fenton post at Dallas and as district commander.

Paul McDonald, Ashland, was chosen vice-commander unanimously after Eddie Boatright, commander of Portland post No. 1, withdrew his name from the ballot.

Thomas D. Stoughton, Portland, was re-elected finance officer and Rev. Joseph R. Jeffery, Forest Grove was named chaplain.

ALONG THE CONCRETE

Judging from a display in a downtown window, we believe that repeal of the eighteenth amendment is just across the street.

Believe it or not, Miss Emogene Paul walked to work Monday for the first time in months. This crisp fall air is invigorating!

It will be a tough winter for the medical profession if Hermiston residents eat all the apples parked in front of grocery stores and being delivered by truck.

Some of the candidates in the coming election who thought they heard the voice of the people calling them are apt to wake up and find it was just themselves thinking out loud.

"Early to bed, and early to rise makes a man healthy and wealthy and wise." But who wants to be, on those terms?

If "wise men profit by fools' mistakes," we shall soon have a large crop of sages.

Radio announcers always keep a supply of cats for they need the "pawse" for station announcements.

Young Todd Editt of Pendleton sprung a good one on his uncle Logan while visiting recently, that is almost as difficult to figure out as "why does a black cow, that eats green grass, give white milk, that makes yellow butter?" After inspecting the cow from all angles Todd wanted to know "where the cream tit was."

Since the American Legion national convention is bringing so many people to Portland, some local citizens have decided Hermiston should try to bring members of that organization to the Irrigation City next year. It might not be a bad idea to leave that up to the President of the Hermiston Commercial club since that organization so ably assisted the national finance committee balance the budget this spring.

Exterior Decorators Are Busy
