BANCROFT MOVIE SCORES HUMAN INTEREST ROLE

"Lady and Gent," George Bancroft's latest starring picture, which opens Sunday at the Oasis theatre will run two days.

Bancroft has one of the most amusing, and at the same time one of the most human roles of his career in the picture, in which he is suddenly called upon to decide between continuing his life as a not so big "big shot" in the shady areas just west of Broadway, or becoming the fosterfather of the 12 year old son of a dead friend.

His ultimate decision brings results at once whimsical and dramatic.

Playing opposite the husky star is petite Wynne Gibson, cast as a hard boiled blonde night club proprietress. She shares Bancroft's life, both before and after the decision is made.

Also in the cast are Charles Starrett, James Gleason, Joyce Compton and John Wayne.
