FOR COUNTY CLERK.
Charles L. Pinkerton, Democratic nominee for the office of county clerk, is a native son of Umatilla county, born in 1880 on the Pinkerton homestead between Weston and Athena. His parents were the late Henry and Mary E. Pinkerton, who crossed the plains to Oregon in 1864. Mr. Pinkerton was educated in the public schools of Weston and in the old Weston Normal, in which he took the post-graduate course after receiving his diploma. He was successfully engaged for six years in teaching, and afterward had fifteen years of varied clerical experience. Mr. Pinkerton has strong support for the office he seeks, as he is regarded by those familiar with his career as well qualified for it by personal characteristics and business experience. In hearing he is known by his friends to be urbane, courteous and agreeable, and in character irreproachable. He is married; Mrs. Pinkerton being among the county's best known and most successful school teachers. (Paid Adv.)

ANSWER TO LAST WEEK'S "YOU'D BE SURPRISED." There is no historical evidence that Isoratus defended a bridge against an army. It is a romantic invention that has persisted because of its heroic qualities.
