UMATILLA HERD IMPROVEMENT ASS'N. RETAINS MEMBERSHIP

AVERAGE OF HERDS FIGURED ON THREE MONTHS BASIS.

Number of Boarders Sold for Beef During May; Lynch and Luttrell Maintain High Herds.

The May report for the Umatilla Herd Improvement association has been completed by Al Kennings, tester, and shows that 556 cows were enrolled with 38 herds on test, of which 78 were dry. Total milk production for these cows was 369,146 pounds containing 16,344.1 pounds of butterfat. There were 115 cows on test which averaged 40 pounds of butterfat.

The report states that the T. G. Gregory herd has been on test for five months, and that the Eastern Oregon State Hospital herd has been tested four times. Since the majority of the association membership signed in March, the Gregory and State Hospital herds' average has been figured on a basis of the last three months test so as to make a fair comparison with the other herds.

Five cows in the association were sold for beef during May, the report shows. Also that the Wm. Luttrell herd is now being tested under the original standard plan.

The highest herd of over 20 cows for May is owned by Chas. Lynch, with 42 cows, averaging 960.3 lbs. milk, containing 33.1 lbs. fat; and the highest herd of 12 to 20 cows by Wm. Luttrell, 17 Jerseys, averaging 71.0 lbs. milk containing 32.2 lbs. fat.

High herds to date, dry cows included, for the three months since the beginning of the testing year, are owned by the E.O.S. Hospital, 75 Jersey-Holstein, averaging 2395.1 lbs. milk, containing 95.7 lbs. fat; Chas. Lynch, 42 Holsteins, averaging 2567.3 lbs. milk, containing 88.0 lbs. fat; Wm. Luttrell, 17 Jerseys, averaging 2301.7 lbs. milk containing 99.1 lbs. fat; and Louis Keen, 13 Guernsey-Jersey, averaging 1654.0 lbs. milk, containing 81.7 lbs. fat.

The two high cows in the association are Chloe, E.O.S.H., 7 year old Holstein, producing 3739 lbs. milk, and 62.6 lbs. fat; and Bowline, E.O.S.H., 6 year old pure bred Jersey, producing 1255 lbs. milk and 61.5 lbs. fat.

The highest individual butterfat production was 62.6 lbs. and the lowest was 42.4 lbs.

G. E. KITCHEN SALES COACH WILL VISIT HERMISTON JUNE 15

Housewives of Hermiston and surrounding towns will have an opportunity next Thursday, June 15, to inspect the novel all electric traveling kitchen which will make its appearance on Hermiston streets through arrangements made by the Hermiston Light & Power Co., General Electric distributors here.

"This kitchen on wheels is equipped with all the latest labor-saving devices for the home," said John A. Clarke, manager of the local light company. "With similar rolling kitchens now being constructed, it is expected to do much toward revolutionizing kitchens of American homes."

"The purpose of bringing the General Kitchen coach to Hermiston is to stimulate interest of housewives in kitchen modernization. Every housewife, we believe, will want to inspect this novel traveling kitchen, because it is the latest word, not only in kitchen appliances, but in arrangement, as well.

"We will drive the kitchen coach up and down various streets of the residential sections of the city in order that housewives of Hermiston may conveniently inspect the coach and its arrangement."

Arrangements have been made with Jim Pearson, owner of Black & White Service Station, to locate the coach near the south side of his service station, both afternoon and evening, so that the people from surrounding towns may have an opportunity to see this "Dream Kitchen."

The traveling coach is equipped with various electric appliances, including refrigerator, range, dishwasher, clock, ventilating fan, radio, food mixer, toaster, percolator, washing machine, ironer and novel lighting. It has a built-in breakfast nook and kitchen work desk. Monel metal is used for the sink, while the arrangement of cabinet and storage space has been scientifically worked out. FREE LECTURES AT HERMISTON UNION CHURCH BY DR. CONDER.

Dr. Conder, who begins his lecture on "Sociology" at the Hermiston Union church Sunday evening, is no colliered academic offering an impractical idealistic panacea to the world, but for almost half a century has been in close touch with world problems as an executive; an engineer in charge, as consultant on projects of national and international construction, and very early in life as an editor and contributor to the press and as a platform speaker dating back to 1898; as a teacher in college, which brought him in touch with young life; and as a practicing physician he has studied life with keen analogy in its very beginning and all the way up through the home, society and government. His optimism is significant and the black depression and cold cynicism of the present seems to him as obsolete as the "public be damned" philosophy of the past.

The lectures are free but a free will offering will be taken for the local and other expenses. W. E. Jones, Minister.

A CHALLENGE!

The Umatilla Project Fair will be held September 15 and 16, 1933.

With the decision of the fair board to again hold the annual project fair comes a challenge to every man, woman, and child to keep up the old traditions of making this agricultural exhibition bigger and better each year. The growth of the fair represents the growth of agriculture, dairying, sheep and hog raising, the bee industry, and 4-H club work in the west end of Umatilla county. All these, and more, are the supporting industries of our communities.

It is your fair—a part of it the same as you are a part of your community! Inject a little sentiment. Bring back and maintain that pride in achievement without the dominating thought of recompense through premiums. Only by this attitude will the fair be carried through another year successfully.

This is your invitation to participate personally in your own project fair. If you have exhibited regularly, by all means exhibit this year. If you have never exhibited before you will find a thrill in exhibiting now—develop a wider interest in your project by exhibiting and attending your project fair.

This year the fair needs you, and you need the fair.

ALONG THE CONCRETE

If the barren wastes of Siberia look as bleak to Jamie Mattson, a Texas globe flier, as the future does to some people, he will not have courage to journey on.

Symptoms of news! City Attorney Warner, B. J. Nation, and State Policeman Pettinger in a huddle on Main street.

Two small feet were seen going over the front seat in an automobile parked on Main street immediately after the horn of the car had been sounded. Giggles were emitted from the depth of the back seat and soon two small bobbed heads appeared. The car belonged to Ramond Walker.

It would be just our luck to have the possibilities of a real news story breaking on Thursday, spoiled when we discovered that what looked like smoke rolling from the roof of the P. W. warehouse, was only dust caused by grinding shell.

Reprieved!
