:SOCIETY:

Mrs. Lella Phelps, who will be leaving soon to make her home in Salem, has been the inspiration for numerous social affairs during the week. Monday night she was guest of honor at the home of Mrs. Walter Pearson when a handkerchief shower was given by Mrs. Pearson and Miss Nell Reeves. Five tables of bridge were in play with Mrs. Roy Thomas winning high honors and Mrs. Herbert Haneline second high honors.

An informal affair was given Tuesday night at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Curtis Simons. Guests invited were Mr. and Mrs. James Todd, Mr. and Mrs. Julius Gimble, Jasper Templeton, Joe Reeves, and Mrs. Phelps, the honoree.

A delightfully appropriate dessert bridge luncheon was given Wednesday afternoon at the Hermiston hotel honoring Mrs. Phelps, who was presented with a beautiful little cosmetic bag for traveling. Mrs. C. J. Durtsey, Mrs. H. T. Fraser, and Mrs. N. R. Mueller acted as hostesses. Mrs. Walter Pearson won high honors as a result of the afternoon's play.

Livestock Association Active.
ENTERPRISE — The Wallowa Marketing association handled 933 hogs, 14 head of cattle and five calves last month for farmers of the county, according to N. C. Donaldson, county agent. Hog prices reached a top of $6.10 during the month—the highest price paid for hogs since October, 1931.

Home Seed Supply Started.
PRINEVILLE—Because of the constantly increasing demand for beardless barley for hay, most of the Crook county crop is harvested for that purpose, and it has been necessary each year to import seed. This year, however, H. W. Flowers and Vernon Eldridge of the Ochoco project have agreed to cooperate with County Agent W. B. Tucker in starting a home supply by harvesting seed instead of hay.
