TICKETS REDUCED FOR PENDLETON'S ANNUAL ROUND-UP

30,000 PEOPLE EXPECTED TO PACK STANDS DAILY.

"New Round-Up Attitude" is NRA Meaning in the Round-Up City of Pendleton.

Pendleton, Oregon, August 29.—N R A means "New Round-Up Attitude" in Pendleton, scene of 23 revivals in the spirit of the glamorous old wild west. Pendleton folks have discarded depression worries and uncertainty and have their hearts set on making the forthcoming 1933 Round-Up, September 21, 22, and 23, a worthy successor to the long chain of breath taking cowboy spectacles that have spread the fame of Oregon around the world.

Out of this new Round-Up attitude, or to be more exact, this renewed round-up enthusiasm, comes the announcement that the Round-Up management has "taken the bit between their teeth" and boldly slashed admission prices for the September classic. Reserved seats that used to cost $2.50 are made available this year for $1.50 and $1.25, while bleacher seats, formerly $1.50 are to be sold for 75 cents.

"At these pre-war time prices we hope, and expect, to pack 30,000 people in the stands daily", business manager Roy W. Ritner of the reorganized non-profit Pendleton Round-Up Association said yesterday. "What we want is twice as many visitors seeing the Round-Up at half the price of recent years. In other words, volume of people rather than mere volume of revenue. The Pendleton Round-Up stands alone in that it is put on for the enjoyment of the folks in the northwest and to advertise the whole northwest throughout the country."

"The Pendleton Round-Up will be as big and colorful and dramatic as ever in its history. We want to spike the rumors to the contrary that have been floating around this summer, probably originating as a natural product of the late but not lamented depression. Our Pendleton show still remains the one competitive spectacle where the world's championships in riding, roping and bulldogging are settled."

FORMER LOCAL GIRL RESIGNS POSITION IN LINE WITH NRA.

Mrs. Everett Schooley, formerly Everette Kingsley of this city, resigned yesterday as teacher of home economics at George Washington Junior High School at Tampa, Florida, because she believes the purpose of President Roosevelt's NRA campaign means the giving of jobs now held by persons able to take care of themselves, to those in need of work.

"It was a patriotic thing to do and Mrs. Schooley deserves a medal", Superintendent Hale declared. "She is a fine teacher and was a valuable member of the school system. She certainly rates the Blue Eagle of the NRA—with palm." Mrs. Schooley was the first to resign after the board suggested two weeks ago that it is the patriotic duty of married teachers, whose husbands draw good salaries, to step aside in favor of less fortunate members of the profession.

E. P. DODD SENDS LETTER OF THANKS TO WOMEN'S CLUB.

The following letter was received by the Women's Community Club from E. P. Dodd, after they appropriated $150.00 for the carrying on of his work as secretary to the Tri-State organization for the Umatilla Rapids Dam:

"I want to thank you for your generous appropriation of funds toward the support of the Umatilla Rapids. I am sure this movement would not have gone over if it had not been for your action. I have used the money so far for expenses, and hope that in the near future other funds will begin to come in to carry on the work. It is meeting with great success so far as general interest and publicity is concerned and today we are forwarding Honorable Harold L. Ickes, Administrator of Public Works, at Washington D. C., a formal application for funds for building the Umatilla Rapids dam and for improvement along the Snake river. We have sent letters and telegrams to the President and head officials in Washington D. ## FIRE DESTROYS SEELIGER HOME SUNDAY NIGHT.

Fire destroyed the Paul Seeliger home, a mile north of the Jess Prindle place in Westland district, last Sunday night about 9:30 P. M. The cause of the fire is undetermined but it is thought that perhaps when Lewis Seeliger took a handful of matches from the box he perhaps lit one in the box, just before coming to town that night. Mr. and Mrs. Seeliger and family were in Walla Walla at the time of the fire so nothing was saved except several boxes of fruit which neighbors and friends saved after being notified by the alarm which rang about 9:30. There was no insurance. Everything was a total loss. Business houses and friends of the Seeligers are responding with clothing, food and money to help them get started again.

Student Body Tickets Reduced.

Associated Student dues in the years previous to 1932 in the Hermiston Union high school were $2.50. Last year they were reduced to $2.00, and the finances were in very good shape at the close of the school year.

Because of the continued financial shortage, the principal proposes a fee of $1.50 this year, subject to the approval of the student council. Tickets will be on sale at the office on Thursday and Friday of this week, and if all students will get a ticket, the reduced fee will be sufficient.

Salem, Ore., August 29.—Eight o'clock Labor Day morning the gates of Oregon's 72nd State Fair will swing open for the largest first day attendance in history. That is the belief now, if reports coming from every part of the state are any indication of the renewed interest this year. By 9 o'clock every department will be ready to offer its best display to the thousands of visitors.

The arrival of special trains in the morning will open the holiday activities. A special will carry hundreds from Eugene and Lane county.

Labor Day evening, starting at 7:30, Eugene will offer a program in front of the grandstand. This performance precedes the big Gymkhana and Rodeo, scheduled to start at 8 p.m. The Eugene Junior Chamber of Commerce drill team of 25 men, Rose Festival winners, will be featured. A band and orchestra will help round out the program.

Then, of course, at 8 o'clock is the start of the two-hour Gymkhana and Rodeo, a featured event every night of fair week, with more than 1,000 free seats in the grandstand and standing room for nearly 10,000.

ALONG THE CONCRETE

Mrs. O. L. Barlow says that six weeks old puppy dogs have no business in canneries and laundries—consequently we saw her trying to make the poor little dear understand that he was not wanted in that place of business. He might possibly find some "best pairs" of hose to perferate.

Well folks—while away on our vacation we visited one of those places where you pay as you enter and then pay as you leave—and while you are in they get a lease on your income for the next two years. Well, these doctors have to make a living and laymen will be sick.

Will Rogers says that Santa Claus will be coming around about December as usual this year for the little business as well as the big corporation. Wonder if Will wouldn't speak to the old boy and have him put his schedule ahead about three months this year.

We have discovered a new way of getting a vacation. Go to the hospital. Don't let me mislead you, however. It is not a vacation on pay.

Lloyd Moore and Paul Van Patten waking everyone in town at 2 o'clock in the morning by trying out the More-Tons system. I think we can vouch that there's more tone alright.

"LION MAN" HITS STARRING RANKS IN FIRST PICTURE.

Buster Crabbe, world-champion swimmer, chosen as "The Lion Man" from among scores of well-known athletes tested for the role, makes his screen debut in "King of the Jungle," wild animal thrill-romance which comes to the Oasis theatre Sunday and Monday. Dark-eyed Frances Dee plays opposite him in the principal feminine role.

Crabbe, member of the U. S. Olympic Swimming Teams in 1928 and 1932, holder of five world records and 35 national championships in aquatic events is 23 years old and a graduate of the University of Southern California. He weighs 188 pounds and is six feet, one inch tall.

The search for an athlete to play the role of "The Lion Man" covered the entire country.

"King of the Jungle" centers around the Lion Man, a youth raised in the jungle among lions, and ultimately captured and brought to the United States to use his understanding of lionine temperament as headliner in a circus. His romance with Miss Dee, a school teacher who understands him and sympathizes with him, runs throughout the picture.

The film reaches its climax in a circus fire, when the wild animals break loose from their cages and pour out into the streets of a large city, spreading carnage and ruin.
