GINGER ROGERS PLAYS A NAUGHTY GIRL OF RADIO

Pert, vivacious and peppery Ginger Rogers enacts radio broadcast idol who is forced to smother her natural desires under a purer-than-thou pose before her public in "Professional Sweetheart" RKO-Radio Picture at the Oasis theatre Sunday and Monday.

Miss Rogers is exploited as the Purity Girl, ideal of the millions who use Ipswich wash clothes. To preserve that illusion she must not drink, pet, dance or be seen with a man. When she becomes irascible at these deficiencies in her life, her sponsor, the wash cloth king, selects Jim Davey, Kentucky backwoodsman, from her fan mail to become her husband.

After their marriage the girl leads Jim a hectic life. To tame her he abducts her to his log cabin, where he spansks her like a child and loves her like a Casanova.

CHRISTIAN SCIENCE CHURCHES

"Man" was the subject of the Lesson - Sermon in all Churches of Christ, Scientist, on Sunday, Sept. 3.

The Golden Text was, "He hath shewed thee, O man, what is good; and what doth the Lord require of thee, but to do justly, and to love mercy, and to walk humbly with thy God? (Micah 6: 8).

Among the citations which comprised the Lesson-Sermon was the following from the Bible: "And God said, Let us make man in our image, after our likeness; and let them have dominion" (Gen. 1: 26).

The Lesson-Sermon also included the following correlative passages from the Christian Science textbook, "Science and Health with Key to the Scriptures," by Mary Baker Eddy: "God fashions all things, after His own likeness. Life is reflected in existence, Truth in truthfulness, God in goodness, which impart their own peace and permanence. . . . Man, made in His likeness, possesses and reflects God's dominion over all the earth" (p. 516).

Are You In Step With The Recovery Parade? The most important essential in the government's great recovery program is for every employer to afford as much and as lucrative employment as his business can possibly stand. Remember, even the hiring of one more person increases the buying power of one more family. Multiply even that small effort by tens of thousands and the results mount up astonishingly. Let's talk things over and see how we can both lend a helping hand to this great campaign for prosperity. We can help the country and ourselves, too, by starting the job here in Hermiston.

STATE FAIR OPENS WITH RECORD ATTENDANCE SALEM, Ore., Sept. 5 — Oregon's 72nd annual State Fair got off to a flying start here this week, with Labor Day crowds setting a new attendance record. The holiday date and a twenty-five cent admission to the fair grounds aided in breaking old-time marks.

The presentation of the world's largest bouquet was attended by thousands with many thousands clamoring to get into the agricultural building. Mrs. Julius L. Meier received the bouquet from J. O. Holt of Eugene, chairman of the Board of Agriculture.

Exhibits this year also set a new high mark. A new interest seems to permeate every department of the fair. And then, of course, every afternoon so far has seen capacity crowds at the horse races. With part-mutual wagering being tried at the fair grounds, interest has run high. Thrilling races have been won and lost, with a long-shot coming in first every once in awhile for a large pay-off for the lucky ticket holder.

The parachute race preceding the horse racing has been more than bargained for in thrills. The sight of seeing two men drop through space has been too much for several women spectators and first aid has had to be administered.

Jim McCleave and his highly-educated horses continue to thrill at the big free night Gymkhana. Special lights have made the grandstand and surroundings as bright as daylight. Sandwiched in between McCleave's acts have been three competitive rodeo events—bronc riding, bull-dogging, and Brahma steer riding. Cow hands from all sections of the west are here for these nightly contests.
