Labor Reaps Reward.

The casual observer who attended the Umatilla Project fair and rodeo Friday and Saturday of last week, did not realize how much effort and actual labor each fair board member put into the show to make it the success that it was.

The first plans followed long hours of discussion. These were formulated by each board member giving his time, money, and energy in shaping them into reality. At first the board faced discouragement on all sides; people felt that it was impossible to put on a show under existing circumstances; but a few of these men still held to the conviction that the Umatilla Project fair must not die, that it was still a benefit to the community. And they carried on.

Labor has reaped its reward. A better show has never been put on in Hermiston, nor has there been a time in many years when such a large crowd of people was attracted to the city.

To these men we offer our sincere appreciation of their work: R. C. Todd, president of the board; Harry Kelley, secretary-treasurer; L. C. Dyer, John Jendrzewski, Roy Attebury, Chester Flannigan, and Lyle Tilden.

Accident Prevention.

The month of September will be observed throughout the nation as Automobile Accident Prevention month.

In the following statement made by Governor Julius L. Meier, the necessity of more definite precaution on the part of each citizen is brought more forcibly before us: "I earnestly urge each citizen, the press, and all churches, civic, patriotic, fraternal and industrial organizations of the commonwealth to put forth their united efforts toward the elimination of the loss and suffering which follow in the wake of preventable automobile accidents, by careful driving and walking and by giving full cooperation to all traffic officers whose whole aim is to make our streets and highways safe for us and our loved ones."

During the year 1932, 228 of Oregon's citizens were killed as a direct result of automobile accidents. More than 4200 citizens were injured, more than half of whom will never fully recover, but will go through life suffering physical handicaps.

Nearly ninety per cent of all automobile accidents are the direct result of carelessness of either the driver or pedestrians. In addition to the tremendous toll of human life and happiness, the annual cost in dollars to the citizens of Oregon is greater than the entire cost of our state government.

CHRISTIAN SCIENCE CHURCHES

"Matter" was the subject of the Lesson - Sermon in all Churches of Christ, Scientist, on Sunday, Sept. 17.

The Golden Text was, "In God I will praise his word, in God I have put my trust; I will not fear what flesh can do unto me" (Ps. 56: 4).

Among the citations which comprised the Lesson-Sermon was the following from the Bible: "My people have committed two evils; they have forsaken me the fountain of living waters, and hewed them out cisterns, broken cisterns, that can hold no water" (Jer. 2: 13).

The Lesson-Sermon also included the following correlative passages from the Christian Science textbook, "Science and Health with Key to the Scriptures," by Mary Baker Eddy: "Divine metaphysics explains away matter. . . That matter is substantial or has life and sensation, is one of the false beliefs of mortals, and exists only in a supposititious mortal consciousness. Hence, as we approach Spirit and Truth, we lose the consciousness of matter" (p. 278).

STANFIELD NEWS

By Sophronia Rhea

Mrs. C. C. Dunn died at Pasco hospital Wednesday evening. Mrs. Dunn broke her leg and dislocated her shoulder by a fall from the front porch of her home about eight weeks ago. She was eighty-three years of age and had lived in this vicinity for many years.

Mrs. Dunn is survived by her husband and six children: Harry, Frank and John Dunn, Mrs. Charles Chapman, Mrs. Loren Kennison and Mrs. U. G. Shipley, who were all with her at the time of her death.

Those attending Mrs. Dunn's funeral from Stanfield were C. D. Connor and family, U. G. Shipley and family, Mrs. Ralph Bartley, Mrs. Elmer Reeves and Clyde Kennison.

The Stanfield Commercial Club members entertained the ladies and new neighbors of the project to a lovely 8:00 o'clock dinner and social entertainment Thursday evening. Wayne Mendenhall, president of the club called the house to order and took the roll call. Lloyd Russell, acting as toast master, called on Rev. J. F. Gibson for a word of prayer. Frank Sloan, one of the oldest settlers of the Stanfield project, gave a few words on the history of the project. Judge C. L. Sweek of Pendleton was the chief speaker of the evening. His topic was cooperation and the Judge gave Stanfield his heartiest congratulation in receipt of the $100,000. Martin Wood, representative of the Portland Oregonian, addressed the gathering with a few words. F. A. Baker, secretary of the Stanfield Irrigation District, told of the situation as it stands, explaining what the appropriation means and what it requires of the community. J. D. Wallace, resident of the ditch company, was also present. Two readings, "Victory of the Dentist," by Billie Hedrick, and "Kate's Agent" by Sophronia Rhea; a tap dance by Phyllis Sires and a violin solo by Esther Fredrickson, with the accompaniment of her sister Helen, were among the interesting features of the program. Jim Kyle was also present. J. M. Richards, master of the Stanfield Grange, completed the program. Marshall N. Dana, Senator McNary and Steiwer, Congressman Walter M. Pierce, Robert Stanfield, and W. G. Ide, sent letters of deepest regret at being unable to attend the meeting.

Mr. and Mrs. Ed Morgan opened the dining room of the hotel Monday morning, prior to hunting season.

The Full Gospel Mission held a "friendship meeting" day program in Stanfield Monday. Quite a number of people from visiting towns were present. Delicious luncheon and dinner were served in the basement of the fraternal building.

M. Refvem, in company with Joe Norton of Hermiston and Mr. and Mrs. Harvey Hull of Umatilla, drove to Tacoma Sunday. The men attended the National Red & White convention held at the above place, on September 18 and 19, returning to their homes Wednesday.

C. M. Jump of the local ditch office, is a Portland visitor this week. Mr. and Mrs. Ed Hoosier returned from Portland Saturday night. They have been away two weeks and while gone Edgar had his tonsils removed. He has been ill for several weeks and hopes that the operation will clear up his trouble. O. M. Hooller had charge of the garage during Edgar's absence.

M. E. Ling, a pioneer resident of Stanfield but now living at Lewiston, Idaho, was in town the first of the week looking after his business interests and visiting old friends. Mr. Ling was accompanied by his daughter, Mrs. Cole and her husband.

Pear packing at the local packing house started this morning with the usual force. There will be a short run of pears and later apples will be packed for market.
