VOLUME XXVIII NUMBER 6

HERMISTON, UMATILLA COUNTY, OREGON, THURSDAY, OCTOBER 5, 1933

SUBSCRIPTION, $1.00 PER YEAR

CITY'S BUSINESS CONDUCTED ON CASH BASIS, 1933

REPORT ACCEPTED BY BUDGET COMMITTEE.

Only 48 Per Cent of Last Year's Budget Expended During First Eight Months' Period.

It was revealed at a budget committee meeting of the city council Wednesday night that despite the fact that only 35 per cent of the current taxes for the first half of 1933 were collected the council kept the city on a cash basis. The city council expended but 48 per cent of the total tax assessment during the first eight months' period.

Current taxes collected amounted to $1,993.36 or 35 per cent of the tax assessment, $5,620.00. With the tax and delinquent tax collections included, total receipts were $2,913.95. Expenditures for the first eight months were shown to be $2,646.44. Never at any time during the year did the expenditures from the city treasurer surpass receipts, which shows the city on a cash basis, up to the present time, according to figures presented by Chas. Taylor, recorder.

The budget committee composed of Tom Fraser, M. L. Watson, W. L. Hamm, E. P. Hilsley and Raymond Walker offered a vote of confidence to the city council for the way it had handled the city's business. The budget was adopted as presented. Mr. Walker was elected chairman of the budget committee, and Mr. Hamm secretary.

In the year 1932 the tax assessment was $6,220.00, and current collections were $4,037.41, with $915.15 collected for delinquent taxes. These figures show the delinquent tax collections less in 1932 by $5.44 than those collected in 1933.

The 1933 budget, in brief, as prepared and presented by City Recorder Taylor, at the direction of the city council, is as follows: Government: $2,270; Protection to persons and property, $1,770; Streets, $350; Education and recreation, library, $750; Retirement street improvement warrants, water works, $12,120. Estimated receipts: domestic water revenue, $4400; County road fund, $100; and amount necessary by taxation $5620.

The total budget last year was $5620, and this year $5580 which includes $120 for city health officer not in last year's budget. Complete budget will be published in the near future.

City officials present were: F. C. McKenzie, mayor; Chas. Taylor, city recorder; H. A. Pankow, water superintendent; W. J. Warner, city attorney; B. S. Kingsley, J. G. Pearson, Geo. Wagner, N. R. Mueller, and Bert Haneline, councilmen.

PROCLAMATION

In accordance with the proclamation issued by the President of the United States, I invite the people of this state to observe Fire Prevention Week from October 8th to 14th. NOW, THEREFORE, I, Julius L. Meier, Governor of the State of Oregon, by authority in me vested do designate and proclaim the period from October 8th to 14th as Fire Prevention Week.

In testimony whereof, I have hereunto set my hand and caused the seal of the State of Oregon to be hereto affixed on this, the 22nd day of September, A. D. 1933.

CHANCE TO LEARN TRADE OFFERED BY GOVERNMENT

Young men interested in gaining a knowledge of motor mechanics, both aviation and heavy duty tractor engines, will be pleased with Major Paul Hathaway's announcement that the U. S. Army Recruiting Station, located at 323 New Post Office Building, Portland, is making applications for enlistment in branches of the army where such training may be had. A very limited number of vacancies are available in the Air Corps, and a similarly limited number of vacancies exist in a motorized field artillery unit at Fort Lewis, Wn.

Major Hathaway also stated that enlistments could be made for Letterman General Hospital, San Francisco, Calif., where training in clinical laboratory work, X-ray, surgery, dentistry and other technical work may be had.

In addition to those vacancies mentioned, enlistments may still be made in coast artillery corps, infantry and in horse drawn field artillery. An enlistment in any of these branches of service may easily become the means of learning a trade that will be of lasting value upon returning to civil life.

STRAY SHEEP CAUSE OF CAR ACCIDENT TUESDAY

Several stray sheep caused a car accident Tuesday night that might have been fatal to the occupants. James Todd, accompanied by Garnet D. Best, and O. K. Mudge were motoring to Heppner in the early part of the evening to attend a Legion meeting when several sheep came onto the highway unexpectedly, causing Mr. Todd to "brake" his car sufficiently for it to skid. The car turned over on an embankment and Mr. Todd received injuries to his right arm. Mr. Mudge was knocked unconscious and it is thought he has several ribs cracked.

The accident occurred between Lexington and Heppner. The mechanism of the car was not damaged but the body was completely wrecked. Mr. Todd drove the car on into Heppner, and then home later that night.

HERMISTON GRID DEFEATS MORO 6-0 HERE FRIDAY

THRILLING PLAYS SEEN IN THIRD QUARTER.

Pendleton Will Play Bulldogs Here Saturday; Passing Game Predicted.

The Hermiston eleven met the Moro high school gridiron on the local field last Friday afternoon in a game that was packed with thrills for a win of 6-0.

In the third quarter two long passes were completed; one from Harris to Reeves for a gain of 40 yards. Paul then made around end for another 40 yard gain putting the ball on Hermiston's own 20 yard line, but failed to score when the ball was lost on downs.

The ball was again back in the center of the field when Moro kicked to put the ball in their own territory. The ball was lost on downs and after a series of line drives by Hermiston Harris plunged through for the only touchdown of the game. The try for point was unsuccessful.

The Moro team used reverse plays almost entirely, but were unable to stop the Bulldogs from charging through for three straight downs in the last of the third quarter. On the Bulldog's own ten yard line Paul completed a pass to Dawson who failed to score by only a few inches. The ball was lost to Moro on downs.

No other close to scoring plays were made during the game. A news dispatch in Thursday's E. O. says Pendleton is sending a crippled eleven to meet the Bulldogs on the local field Saturday, 2 p. m. After last Friday's game the boys may take the Buckaroos down the field. Coach Cochran has been working the boys hard this week.

The Hermiston lineup was: J. Stewart, L.E.; T. Stewart, L.T.; S. Keikkala, L.G.; E. Pierce, C.; J. Reeves, R.T.; J. Dawson, R.E.; C. Paul, R.H.; D. Harris, F.; A. Chamness, Q.; F. Reeves, L.H.

OREGON MILKMEN URGED TO ENTER PORTLAND EXHIBIT.

Oregon's milk producers and distributors, many of whom are known to market some of the best milk in the country, may get public recognition for this quality by entering the annual Pacific International Dairy Products show in Portland, October 21 to 28, says Dr. G. H. Wilster, manager of the show and professor of dairy manufacturing at O.S.C.

"Many Oregon dairy and creamerymen may not realize that this has grown to be the largest dairy products show in the country that features all products," says Dr. Wilster. "Butter and cheese makers of Oregon have been competing successfully year after year with the best from the middlewest and east, but Oregon milk producers have for the most part left the field to other states."

All milk and cream entered must be produced October 9, and must be shipped or delivered not later than October 10. All milk scoring above certain marks is awarded signed diplomas, while the highest scoring sample gets a gold medal.

EXTENSION TIME GIVEN ON WHEAT LOAN APPLICATIONS.

The Farm Credit Administration at Washington has authorized an extension of the time limit for filing winter wheat loan applications to October 31, 1933. This is an extension of one month as compared with the original regulations which specified September 30 as the post-mark limit date.

Necessary forms are in the hands of E. J. Davis, at Freewater, and at the offices of the county agents at Pendleton and Hermiston. These loans are for amounts up to $200.00, and are straight crop loans. Miss Ruth Dodd visited in Pendleton Saturday and Sunday with her cousin, Cathryn Collins. She was one of the guests at a party Saturday night.

The Topic of Conversation

ANNUAL MEETING NORTHWEST TURKEY GROWERS ASSOCIATION

J. Jendrzewski, president of the Eastern Oregon Turkey Growers' association, of Hermiston, J. C. Leedy, Portland, manager of the Oregon Turkey Growers, and Frank Davis, president of the Central Oregon Turkey Growers, left Saturday afternoon for Salt Lake City, Utah, to attend the third annual meeting of the Northwest Turkey Growers' association. Mr. Jendrzewski attended as a member of the board of directors for the Oregon Turkey Growers.

The meeting opened Monday, for a two day session, with representatives from nine states present to discuss marketing problems. It is the hope of the organization that other states will join in the present hookup for marketing of birds.

Mr. Jendrzewski says that a shipment will be made locally as soon as there are sufficient mature birds to justify holding a pool.

APPLICATIONS MAY BE MADE FOR OLD AGE PENSIONS

Application blanks for the old age pension may be obtained from the county clerk's office at any time, by those desiring them, says a letter from E. B. Casteel, county clerk.

Any person, 70 years or over, who has been a resident of the county for fifteen years, is a citizen of the United States, and has no other person responsible for their care, is eligible for the pension. The allowance in no case shall exceed $30 a month, including any income which the claimant may have from any source or any thereafter acquired. Property owned jointly or slightly by an applicant and the applicant's husband or wife may not exceed $3000 in value.

Questions and answers relating to the old age pension law may be obtained from the county clerk's office also.

APPLICATION FOR FARM CROP LOANS BEING RECEIVED.

Henry Morgenthau, Jr., Governor of the Farm Credit Administration has announced through J. L. Paulson, Regional Manager of the Farm Credit Administration Crop Production Loan Office at Minneapolis, Minnesota, that loans for winter production may be granted in all states which normally produce winter wheat. Loan application forms are now being distributed to authorized field inspectors and county fee and seed loan committees. These application forms are also available at the office of the county agent at Pendleton, Oregon, and the assistant county agent at Hermiston.

Regulations closely follow those of other crop loans requiring a first lien on the crop to be seeded, with a note maturing August 31, 1934. Loans will be limited to a maximum of $200.00.

Farmers interested in obtaining a loan should immediately get in touch with the authorized field inspector of the Minneapolis office who is E. J. Davis, located at Freewater, Oregon, or the county agricultural agent and assistant county agent, located at Pendleton or Hermiston.

UMATILLA COUNTY NEARLY 100 PERCENT FOR WHEAT SIGN-UP

NEARLY MILLION DOLLARS TO FARMERS BY PLAN.

Practically 400,000 Acres Covered In County Which Indicates Largest In State.

Committeemen handling the sign-up of the Umatilla County Wheat Production Control Association report that nearly every farmer in the county has signed an application. This fact came out at a meeting of the 33 committeemen in Umatilla County in session at Pendleton Tuesday, September 26.

Applications already in the hands of the association total 947, and include practically 400,000 acres. This indicates by far the largest list of applicants of any county in the state of Oregon, and shows that an extremely small number of farmers are not planning to take advantage of the cash payments to be made by the wheat administration. It also means that nearly a million dollars will be placed in the hands of Umatilla County farmers as the 1933 payment to those who participate in the acreage reduction.

The report by William Steen of Milton, President of the County Association, was to the effect that some half dozen in the Milton district had not yet signed, but would probably do so before the expiration of the applying date. For the Weston district, S. J. Culley stated that most of the wheat land is signed up, and the small number of farmers who would stay out are mostly located in the mountain districts.

For the Athena district, Henry Dell predicted practically a complete sign-up of the farmers in the district. For the Adams district, A. R. Coplock gave figures very closely in line with those reported elsewhere.

Jens Terjesen of the Helix committee said that there would be one farmer in the entire district who would not sign up.

For the Holdman district, County Commissioner William Melners figured there would be a complete sign-up with the exception of one farmer. Hans Pahl of the North Pendleton committee knew of but three or four farmers who would not make application. For the South Pendleton district, John Crow indicated a very small number of non-signers.

For the South Reservation District, Earl Thompson indicated that there were but 3 farmers who had not signed, and at Pilot Rock, Victor Roumagoux indicated a likelihood that there would be but one farmer who would not sign, with the exception of three others who would not be able to qualify. The Echo district report by Claud Meyers showed all but two farmers as being applicants. These two will probably apply before the time limit expires.

All in all, the indications are now that the number of wheat growers in Umatilla County who will not take advantage of the allotment plan will represent but a trifling proportion of the county's wheat acreage.
