HERMISTON, UMATILLA COUNTY, OREGON, THURSDAY, OCTOBER 19, 1933

SUBSCRIPTION, $1.00 PER YEAR

NEIGHBORS FROM WASHINGTON VISIT UMATILLA COUNTY

DELEGATION WELCOMED BY COMMERCIAL CLUB.

Given Fine Reception at Umatilla, Stanfield, and Echo; Group Inspects Turkey Flocks.

The city of Hermiston was a lively place Tuesday with members of the good will tour from Walla Walla circulating about the streets, and dropping into the business establishments. The tour was sponsored by the Walla Walla Chamber of Commerce under the direction of R. B. Bragg, and reached Umatilla by driving over the new Wallula cut-off road.

Headed by the Walla Walla high school pep band of 23 pieces, the caravan visited Umatilla, Hermiston, Stanfield, Echo, and Pendleton. The band played several numbers here before going into the hotel where a turkey dinner was served, and different members of the delegation heard from E. P. Dodd, president of the Hermiston Commercial club, introduced Miss Neva Richards of the local high school, who gave the address of welcome. A group of eighth grade pupils directed by Miss Norma Johnston delighted with a group of songs.

D. F. Baker, president of the Walla Walla Chamber of Commerce, who was next introduced by Mr. Dodd said "We want to increase the feeling of friendship with all the towns around us."

Dorsey M. Hill, treasurer of Whitman college, felt that it would be necessary for the canal development on the Columbia before boats could make use of the river, and the construction of a dam at Umatilla rapids would help all.

Frank Lawden, manager of the Walla Walla Meat and Cold Storage company, favored more of such meetings as was being held in Hermiston and felt that the changes he had seen in the northwest during his lifetime would be as nothing to the changes which will come about in the next few years.

J. H. Cunningham, district freight and passenger agent of the U. P., said railroads favor development of the district and were not opposed to river and highways.

Power companies, R. B. Bragg, manager of the Pacific Power & Light company said, are not opposed to power development, but want the truth brought out. If power can be developed and distributed more cheaply, the power concerns will be glad to do their part, he said.

R. W. Fisher, editor of the Walla Walla Union, spoke of the interest Walla Walla had in the Umatilla rapids project, and expressed the hope of early realization of plans for the project.

F. Lawden Jones of the Jones Scott company, commented on the community spirit and interest at Hermiston, and what was done through cooperation in that vicinity.

H. M. Thomas, general manager of the Northwest Cities Gas company, expressed the hope for improvement in business conditions in the Hermiston area.

Walla Walla, J. J. Kauffman of Tausick Kauffman, assured the Hermiston people, was glad to aid projects of worth in its district.

The day has gone, B. M. Huntington, Texaco distributor said, when communities were sufficient unto themselves.

Pal C. Clark, H. C. Tilley, H. E. Studebaker and Claude Gray spoke briefly.

Hermiston Responds.

Willard Felthouse, graduate of Whitman and a former basketball star at the college, told of the pleasure of meeting old Walla Walla friends.

W. J. Warner, city attorney, expressed pleasure at having Walla Walla so well represented and favored more such occasions.

J. Jendrzewski, president of the Eastern Oregon Turkey Growers' association, told of the annual output of birds in this district, and of the large percentage of prime birds shipped each year.

Garnet D. Best, assistant county agent, spoke briefly of the work being done through his office, and Harold Dean, superintendent of the Umatilla Experiment Station, outlined plans for a trip after dinner which took the group to the H. G. Rankin farm, and the experiment station where fine turkeys were seen. Dean explained experiments being made in studying soil and other conditions.

Talks at Stanfield.

At Stanfield, Mayor Frank Sloan told of the biggest little town in the country, and E. P. Dodd outlined what was being done around Stanfield.

E. F. Baker of Walla Walla, responded briefly.

† COLUMBIA NEWS †

By Florence Udey

Mrs. Tom Wilson and two daughters, Faith and Mary, were business visitors in Walla Walla Saturday.

Baxter Hutchison, who has been visiting his sister in Missouri for the past three weeks, returned home last week with a load of good cheer. He claims Hermiston doesn't know what hard times are.

Mr. and Mrs. Geo. Strohm were visitors at the H. F. Lindner home Sunday.

John Allen, who has been in the hospital for the past four weeks, returned home Saturday. She is feeling fine now.

Miss Fern Lindner is visiting at the J. F. Rueber home at Stanfield. Mrs. H. T. Clark and daughter Beryl were visitors at the J. Dunning home Saturday.

John Wojcik and M. McWaters of Portland were visitors at the John Jendrzewski home over the week end. Mr. Wojcik is Mrs. Jendrzewski's brother.

Floyd Pierce and Fred Rankin were Saturday night guests of Billie Lindner.

Jim Allen and family have moved to the old Hannon place.

Mr. and Mrs. Geer and family were visitors at the O. Road home Sunday.

Mrs. J. H. Reid left for Spokane Saturday morning on business.

Allen Settle, who has been living with Mrs. D. Perry, is now staying with Jim Allen.

Glenn Parsons, who is employed in Hermiston, spent Sunday visiting his father.

Martin Lenz was given a very pleasant surprise party Saturday night by his sister Martha. Those present were: Helen, Dorothy and Victor Adleman, Guy and Frank Jepp, Dorothy and Laura Conrad, Opal and Nat Stockard, Ruth and Evelyn Leander, Glen McCracken, Herbert Fox, Faith Wilson, Fern Lindner, Melvin Pollett, Clyde Mc Davis, Mr. and Mrs. G. Leibe and two sons Albert and Walter, Mr. and Mrs. Lenz and two sons Fred and Martin, and the hostess.

Dr. Davis and Mr. Ladd of Portland were pheasant hunters at the C. A. Keller farm Sunday and Monday.

RECALL OF GOV. MEIER SOUGHT BY OREGON GROUP.

A movement to recall Governor James L. Meier of Oregon was launched in Salem Saturday when P. W. Stevens, 74, proprietor of a small refreshment stand near Eugene filed a preliminary copy of a petition charging the chief executive with general neglect of duty.

The petition would need 8801 signatures to bring the recall to a vote, and the completed petitions would have to be filed within 90 days.

The governor would be allowed five days in which to resign. Should he decline to do so, the secretary of state would call a special election within 20 days.

Other men listed as sponsors of the movement were Earl Lutzenhiller and Gus Reinhart, in the Gold-wood district.

WRESTLING JACKASS STARTS LAUGH RIOT IN ZANE GREY FILM

If you've never seen a man wrestle a stubborn jackass, prepare to roar at the antics of Guinn Williams and Vince Barnett, as Big Casino and Little Casino, two comedy cowpunchers. They appear in Zane Grey's "Man of the Forest" which is at the Oasis theatre Friday and Saturday. In the cast are featured Randolph Scott, Harry Carey, Noah Beery, Verna Hillie and Buster Crabbe.

These two screen comedians, plus "the Wrestling Jackass", furnish the laugh relief in this fast-moving action story of the old West, the twenty-ninth of the Zane Grey novels to reach the screen.

"Man of the Forest" starts a "new" note in Westerns. It gets away from the modern conventional Western drama and brings back the whirlwind action of the old-fashioned frontier thriller. Scott portrays a strong, silent hero of the forests, and the story tells of his efforts to avenge the death of a friend. The picture speeds through thrilling gun battles before it drives on to a fiery conclusion.

Scott, Carey and Noah Beery are the kind of Western characters that made this type of action thriller so famous in the old days. Verna Hillie, one of Paramount's new comedians, seen before in "Under the Tonto Rim" is quite lovely as the girl for whose rights Scott battles. And as for Guinn Williams, Vince Barnett—and the "wrestling jackass"—you'll laugh loud and long at each appearance on the screen.

Visits in Missouri.

Baxter Hutchison returned last week from a four weeks' visit to Rollins, Missouri, where he saw his sister Mrs. C. A. Davis who has been in poor health for some time. While there he attended a family reunion when more than 100 relatives gathered to celebrate his visit. He also visited a brother John at Sedalia, and a sister, Mrs. Edward Kingston, at St. Louis. Mrs. Hutchison accompanied Mrs. Alpha Christley and son Del who attended the Century of Progress at Chicago.

INTERESTING PROGRAM PRESENTED AT P.T.A. MEETING

An educational and interesting program was enjoyed by a large group of instructors and parents attending the second meeting of the Parent-teachers association held last Wednesday evening at the high school.

Austin Landreth, superintendent of Pendleton schools, addressed the group on the topic "Heredity and Mental Growth." He stressed the point that disciplinary problems result chiefly from an unorganized home or lack of efficient instruction on the part of teachers.

Ninety-nine per cent of the pupils are equipped with adequate brains, and it is the task of instructors to take the pupils, each with different temperament and emotions, as they are, and instruct them in a group. If the home is unorganized and falls in its tasks, school problems are made more difficult. In this regard, Landreth emphasized the health problem.

The school as a socializing agency, Mr. Landreth said, must provide the fundamentals—reading, writing, arithmetic and grammar. These tools unlock the door to the storehouse of culture in a child whose task is to read and then apply himself. The result of normal development in all these channels produces the balanced character.

The musical program included a xylophone solo by Miss Arlene Clark and a chorus of eighth graders gave several numbers under the direction of Miss Johnson.

Mrs. N. R. Mueller, chairman of the program committee submitted plans for programs during the remainder of the year.

R. H. McAtee stated that Mrs. Hinegardner, county health nurse, would attend the next meeting and present definite plans concerning diphtheria, smallpox, and tuberculosis tests.

A membership committee consisting of Miss Catherine McBain, Mrs. Barnhart, Mrs. Geo. Harkenrider, and Mrs. Ed Benschel was appointed.

Mrs. W. L. Hamm, president, expressed her appreciation for the excellent cooperation shown by all.

HUNDAY AFTERNOON CONCERT WILL BE GIVEN OCTOBER 29

The first of a series of concerts to be given this season will be held Sunday afternoon, October 29, under the direction of Miss Golda Mumma, in the interest of good music.

The program will include several vocal numbers, piano numbers, a violin solo, instrumental trios and others. All those who enjoy an entertainment of musical numbers are cordially invited to attend. There will be no admission charge.

The place and complete program will be announced in next week's paper.

LEGION AUXILIARY OPENS MEMBERSHIP DRIVE

The next meeting of the Unit will be Thursday, October 26, with Mrs. A. P. Garner and Mrs. Peter Castric acting as hostesses.

A membership campaign has been launched with Mrs. B. S. Kingsley and Mrs. O. K. Mudge as captains. It is hoped that all dues will be in by November 1 in order that they may be sent to Portland by the eleventh.

The losing side in this contest will entertain the winning side at a fallow'en party.

PARTY CLIMAXES INITIATION: FRESHMEN CAUSE LAUGHS.

The sophomores upheld age old tradition when the trying pre-initiation ordeals of the freshmen were climaxed at an initiation party on the evening of October 2.

For the sophomores the Frosh have owed, carried books, used the back stairs, worn earrings, fancy garters, and clothes backwards, until, according to their antagonist, they were considered sufficiently humbled.

A hilarious time characterized the initiation ceremonies. Vinegar, soda, sour milk, alum, and the electric chair added to the comfort of each candidate. Light refreshments were served after which each lowly freshman went home freed from all obligations.

New Students Enter District.

(From The Bulldog)

The following students are new to the high school, having moved into this community since the last school year: Freshmen—Mary Doherty, Bonnie Lamberson, Wayne Lindner, and Victor Willcutt; Sophomores—Wallace Chammess, Frank Jepp, Guy Jepp, Myrno Madden, Erma Patton, and Elva Stamper; Juniors—Fred Hensel; Seniors—Arthur Chammess, Ruth Lindner, and Evelyn Lindner.

BULLDOGS LOSE TO WAITSBURG FRIDAY 19 TO 6

BRILLIANT PASSING ATTACK NETS TWO TOUCHDOWNS.

Bulldog Eleven Shows Outstanding Teamwork: Score in Final Period.

The Bulldogs met defeat at the hands of the Waitsburg eleven, Friday, October 13, with a score of 19-6.

With Waitsburg's highly rated running attack failing to work against a charging line, and their defense unable to consistently stop the Hermiston backs, they resorted to a dazzling passing attack which netted two touchdowns, and put them in a position for the third. Hermiston's score came in the last period on a drive from mid field with line plays accounting for most of the yardage.

As the opening whistle blew, Tom Stewart, booted the ball deep into Waitsburg's territory. The ball was down on the 30 yard line. Hermiston held. On a double exchange of punts the Waitsburg safety got away and made a nice run to the 10 yard line. Hermiston held and punted. By a nice pass and several running plays, Waitsburg brought the ball up to the five yard line where Hermiston held for four downs. Clark Paul made a nice kick but on the first play Waitsburg scored on a perfect pass to Bailey at the end zone. They converted with a drop kick.

Hermiston dominated the play in the next quarter. Harris and Reeves made a first down through center, and a 15 yard pass to Pierce for another. Moore intercepted a Waitsburg pass and followed this by taking a nice pass on the next play for 30 yards. Hermiston was penalized and punted. Waitsburg ran the ball to mid field and passed to the 10 yard line. They fumbled on the next play and Moore recovered. Hermiston punted and Waitsburg completed two passes to the 6 yard line and sneaked over on a line play. The half ended with the score 13-0.

In the third period the ball searced back and forth with Reeves intercepting a pass at just the right time and Pierce making a hard tackle, downing his man for a 15 yard loss. Waitsburg made a long pass for its final score.

Hermiston started a drive for a touchdown. With Harris hitting the line behind good blocking they drove the ball over.

The game was hard fought and very clean.

Silver Tea Friday.

The local unit of the American Legion Auxiliary will give a silver tea Friday afternoon, October 20, from 2:00 to 5:00 o'clock in the new Legion hall. A fine musical program has been arranged and all who attend will enjoy a pleasant afternoon.

Night Editor Barometer.

Oregon State College, Corvallis, Oct. 18—Walther Ott, senior in agriculture, has been appointed night editor of the Barometer, daily publication of Oregon State college.

Hospital Notes

Gladyss Ross, niece of Mr. and Mrs. Reftum of Stanfield, was operated upon for acute appendicitis Friday. She has made a splendid recovery and will be able to leave the hospital in a few days.

Tom Richards, a pioneer of the Stanfield project, entered the hospital this week as a medical case.

Wayne Sage, son of Mr. and Mrs. J. S. Sage, was operated upon for tonsils and adenoids Wednesday. He returned to his home Thursday.

Rose Mary Keller, daughter of Mr. Chas. Keller, will be operated upon for tonsils and adenoids Saturday.

Elaine Percival of Madras, niece of Mrs. W. S. Boynton, who was struck by a car near Umatilla about six weeks ago, is doing nicely. She suffered a fractured skull and a compound fracture of the right leg.

The hospital has added several extra beds and an accident ward is now equipped on the main floor. This improvement has proved necessary as the hospital has been running practically at full capacity during the past six weeks.

"POLISHING PAPA" COMEDY IS PLAY SELECTED.

(From The Bulldog)

"Polishing Papa", a comedy-drama in three acts, is to be presented by the Class of '35, November 2, at the Oasis theatre, under the direction of Miss Esther Sibert.

The play contains a certain amount of deception and mystery coupled with a gripping drama, while Mr. Smith, a manufacturer of sausage, Karpem, a high-pressure salesman, and Mr. Smith's son and daughter furnish comedy throughout the entire play.

Mr. Smith is very generous with clothes and money, but he has no manners. His two children, Arthur and Jane, who have just finished college, love their father, but are very conscious of their father's lack of manners. When Reginald Dabney, Jane's admirer, and Rose Parker, Arthur's sweetheart, are to come to visit the Smith home, Jane and Arthur do their best to polish papa. But in the meantime Karpem, Mr. Smith's high pressure salesman, has been decorating the walls of the living room with signs, such as, "Smith's sausage—Daintily flavored by dainty hogs." And when the visitors see—but let's all go see this hilarious comedy for ourselves, Nov. 2 at the Oasis.

The cast is: George Sale Arthur Smith Bill Lindner Dick Brainerd Fred Hensel Marie Edna Turblad Jane Smith Neva Richards Rose Parker Sylvia Shuter Peggy Julia Colpitta Karven Floyd Pierce Reginald Dabney Chester Dyer Mrs. Stevens Florence Lewis

H. L. PROPST LOCATES IN POMEROY, WASHINGTON.

H. L. Propst, former owner of the variety store here, has purchased a similar business in Pomeroy, Wn., and will take charge some time in the near future. Mr. and Mrs. Propst sold their store here to Mr. and Mrs. Guy Amersbury of Bend, Ore., who took charge August 7th.

Since leaving here Mr. and Mrs. Propst have traveled over 5000 miles while looking for a location. They were enroute to Pomeroy Wednesday and stopped over in Hermiston for a few hours.

"NO MARRIAGE TIES" COMING FRIDAY AND SATURDAY.

Exceptionally witty and natural dialogue and excellent direction are promised as good points of "No Marriage Ties," the feature coming to the Oasis Theatre Friday and Saturday.

Dix is Bruce Foster, sports writer on a New York daily, big, hearty, egotistical, a man who likes to be convivial and when he drinks too much becomes careless about his job.

Out to cover the Funney-Dempsey fight, Dix takes about too much joyater and at midnight, with no report on the fight, David Landau, managing editor, sends word that Dix is fired. The balm in this bomb is that he meets Elizabeth Allan (an English actress, new to pictures but with considerable promise) and she takes him home.

Miss Allan is a capable illustrator. When Dix learns the next morning that he is out of a job, he goes out and lands a partnership in an advertising agency run by Dinehart. They make a financial success and Miss Allan an artistic success in their art department.

Doris Keypon is head of a concern manufacturing cosmetics. Dix meets her to get her advertising account, and loses control of his affections, which Dix takes about too much for Miss Allan. For the next few sequences it is a question which has the stronger appeal. Others in the cast are Richard Carey, Hobart Cavannagh, Hilda Vaughn and Charles Wilson.

MUSICAL PROGRAM PLANNED FOR TUESDAY, OCTOBER 24

Hermiston is to be treated to an unusual evening of music on Tuesday night, October 24, at the Methodist church. The concert will be open to the general public with no admission charge.

Bert McDonald of Pendleton has arranged a program that includes a string quartet, two violins, viola and cello; a trio of piano, violin and cello; a male quartet; together with vocal and instrumental soloists.

Franklin Smith of the National Institute of Music and Arts will give a short talk explaining the plan of musical instruction for children, sponsored by that organization. This will be of interest to all parents.

P. T. A. Program for 1933-34.

November—Need for Proper Study Conditions in the Home, Mr. Bense.

December—Child Welfare, Mrs. Hinegardner.

January—Character Education, Oscar Payne.

February—Exceptional Child, Mr. McAtee.

March—Proper Use of Leisure Time.

April—Summer Play Ground Supervision, Mrs. G. White.

At each meeting there will be musical numbers both vocal and instrumental. The teachers of their respective grades have agreed to entertain to the parents what they expect the children to be able to do in their grades.

† IRRIGON NEWS †

By Mrs. W. C. Isom

Mr. and Mrs. Melvin Harder of Gregory, South Dakota, visited Saturday and Sunday with their aunt and family, Mr. and Mrs. W. C. Isom. They were enroute to Portland and were accompanied by Mr. and Mrs. Otto Ikers and family of Gregory. Both families expect to settle somewhere in Oregon.

The Irrigon Grange held their regular meeting Saturday night in the school gym. After the business meeting a splendid program was rendered under the direction of Mrs. Minnie McFarland. Lecturer, Miss Riccio of Umatilla gave a very interesting talk followed by an address from E. P. Dodd of Hermiston on the Umatilla Rapids dam proposition. A community card party was held after the Grange session and a splendid time spent by those present.

Chas. Maxwell of Portland, brother of Mrs. Vern Jones, arrived Monday evening, Tuesday Mr. Maxwell and Mr. Jones left for Laman Springs on an eight day hunting trip.

George Morsett, who has been employed at the government camp at Bull Prairie visited his uncle Paul, Graivell two days last week. He has enlisted and has gone to Frog Heaven to wait for a call.

A crowd of men left Monday for LaGrande on a hunting trip. Mr. and Mrs. W. C. Isom spent Monday with Mr. and Mrs. George Kender. The men were employed sawing wood.

Harry Smith who has been at the hospital several days in Hermiston is reported doing nicely.

The H. E. club met with Mrs. A. E. McFarland at Umatilla Thursday afternoon.

MORROW COUNTY'S PIONEER REUNION OCTOBER 28

The annual Morrow county pioneer reunion will be held at Lexington Saturday, October 28, and a group of Hermiston women plan to take part in the program by putting on a skit. At noon there will be a basket dinner and the program will start at 2:30 o'clock with a free dinner at 5:00 o'clock. The "Merry Troupers" will present a play at 7:00 o'clock in the evening which will be followed by dancing.

Many Morrow county pioneers have moved into Umatilla county and will be planning on attending this reunion. The grange is cooperating in arranging the program for this year.

Pendleton Man Injured By Gun.

George Bradley of Pendleton suffered injuries to his face and hand Sunday while hunting Chinese pheasants on the Hermiston project, when the barrel of his shotgun burst. Several shots entered his right hand and the side of his head. Fifteen stitches were taken to close the wound. Six hours when he was treated at the Hermiston hospital. Mr. Bradley had been hunting several hours and had just opened a new box of shells. The barrel burst at the first shot.

R. Alexander at Grand Lodge.

R. Alexander of Pendleton, father of Mrs. E. P. Dodd of Hermiston, left for Boise, Idaho, the first of the week to be the special guest of the Idaho Grand Lodge of the I.O.O.F. Mr. Alexander is the oldest Past Grand Master of the order in Oregon, and was Grand Warden of the Oregon Grand Lodge when the Idaho Grand Lodge was instituted. As such he was identified with the year and beginning of the Idaho organization.

MRS. IRA D. HALL.

News of the death of Mrs. Ira D. Hall, which occurred at the home of her son in Baker, Oregon, early Sunday morning, has been received by friends here. Mrs. Hall will be remembered as the wife of a former pastor of the Baptist church in Hermiston, and has made her home in McMinnville. Death came after an illness of several weeks. She visited at the home of Mrs. D. A. Hall here in the early summer.

Wanted for Grand Larceny.

Arthur Noland, 21, of Pasco, Wn., wanted by Spokane authorities on a charge of grand larceny, was apprehended here Saturday by B. J. Nation, who has been checking all suspicious looking pedestrians since the escape of several inmates from the criminal insane ward recently at Salem. Spokane authorities came for the boy Monday.

School Principals Will Meet.

The Oregon High School Principals' Conference will hold its fifth annual meeting in Salem October 20 and 21. This meeting convenes every year in the House of Representatives for two days, when problems of all kinds relative to the high schools of the state are discussed.

CARD OF THANKS.

We wish to thank our neighbors and friends for their kindness during the recent loss of our daughter and sister.

L. STEWART and family.

J. Jendrzewski, president of the Eastern Oregon Turkey Growers' association, returned from Portland Friday after attending a meeting of the Oregon Turkey Growers' association.

NIMRODS SWARM PROJECT FOR OPENING GAME BIRD SEASON

MANY HUNTERS' BAG LIMIT: BIRDS PLENTIFUL.

Thousands Expected to Hunt Eastern Oregon's Elk: Special State Police Will be on Job.

Early morning hunters were scattered about the project Sunday and Monday with the opening of the Chinese Pheasant and wild game bird season. Nearly every hunter was reported to have bagged his limit each day, with fewer casualties than usual. Apparently there were not so many hunters from valley points this year.

Amateur hunters registered at the Hermiston hotel Sunday and Monday were: K. Hackworth and B. Moore of LaGrande; Dr. and Mrs. Alan W. Smith, Chas. Blackwell, and Dr. Robert Smith of Portland, friends of Dr. and Mrs. A. W. Christopherson; Ed Axton and Lloyd Brown of Hillsboro; Dr. E. D. DuBois and Richard Jorney of Portland; C. B. Hunt and wife and C. E. Phillips and wife of Portland; Frank Belcher and J. W. Patterson of Portland; S. H. Ketchum, Portland; O. H. Stiles, Springfield; Mr. and Mrs. Lewis J. Myers of Hood River.

Monday, Mr. and Mrs. Montgomery of Portland, friends of Mr. and Mrs. J. G. Pearson, who are here on their honeymoon; W. H. Grouth and C. Harwo of Portland; Lester Anborn, Fred Johnson from Calif.; Russell Cooley, J. A. McKeen, Geo. T. Bries of Portland.

Elk Hunters Expected.

Between 6000 and 7000 hunters seeking elk are expected to swarm into Umatilla, Wallowa, Union, and Baker counties for the opening of the three day season on elk, October 23, 24, 25. George Glenn of the State Police makes the above estimate. "Gunsnacks" have applied for licenses.

Umatilla county is expected to have more hunters seeking elk because it is closer to Portland, and a noted for its wild game birds.

State Police on Job.

A big delegation of State Police will be in the four counties for the elk season, headed by Captain Chas. McCles, head of the game division, who has headquarters at Salem.

The rumor that there will be a special train on the Union Pacific has not been confirmed by F. C. Voughter, depot agent here.

Due to the fact that there has not been open season on elk for some 18 years, the novelty of hunting the big game is appealing to nimrods all over the country. Simultaneous with the open elk season are the open season for deer and grouse, both of which will close at sunset Wednesday, October 25.

Open season on pheasants, quail and Hungarian partridge closes October 31, and the duck and geese season closes December 15.

Torch Honor Society Has Party.

The Sophomore members of the Torch Honor Society were hosts and hostesses at a party given in honor of the Junior and Senior members. The party was held at the home of their adviser, Miss Brierley, Saturday, October 14.

ALONG THE CONCRETE

The public works administration is good at keeping secrets. When we ask for money to build a dam at Umatilla rapids, they just act as though they never heard it.

We understand that Virgil Smith took a mule into the mountains with him in order to bring the big elk kill out to the truck. The poor mule may be the one who has to be carried out.
