The Lesson That Came Too Late

The recent open season on the great red deer of North America whose name is more familiarly known as elk, has...

The fact that only a small portion of Umatilla county is in hunting territory, with the same condition in Baker county, leaves only one answer. Hundreds of sportsmen from other sections in Oregon flocked to this small territory to be present for the opening of elk season.

Had the open season been closed before sportsmen were allowed to hunt the big elk, there would have been much less spoilage.

colder weather, would not spoil so easily. If elk are hunted again next year it is hoped that the most regrettable waste will be reduced by the provision of a later season.

ANNOUNCEMENT MADE OF OREGON HISTORY ESSAY CONTEST.

The Oregon Historical Society has selected "Saejawava," the Indian "bird woman," who accompanied Lewis and Clark in 1804-6, as the subject for the 1934 C. C. Beekman History Prizes and Medals.

The prizes are four in number, viz., first sixty dollars; second, fifty dollars; third, forty dollars; and fourth, thirty dollars; and will be awarded for the best four original essays on the above named subject written and submitted by girls or boys over fifteen years of age and under eighteen years of age, attending any public or private school, academy, seminary, college, university, or other educational institution within the State of Oregon.

Each of the four prize winners will also receive a handsome bronze medal.

The conditions governing the competition are as follows:

(1) The essay submitted in competition must not exceed two thousand words in length.

(2) The essay may be in handwriting or in typewritten form, preferably upon paper of commercial letter size, either ruled or unruled, the several sheets being numbered consecutively and written on one side only, with blank space of about one and one-quarter inches at top and left-hand margin.

(3) The essay shall be accompanied by a separate sheet containing the name and post office address of the writer, the date of his or her birth, and the name of the school attended.

(4) There shall also be delivered with the essay a certificate signed by a teacher or instructor of the educational institution attended, stating that the writer of the essay is a pupil or student attending the same.

(5) In order to be considered in competition the essay must be delivered, by mail or in person, to the Oregon Historical Society, Room C, Public Auditorium, 235 S. W. Market Street, Portland, Oregon, not later than Saturday, March 17, 1934.

(6) All essays submitted in competition will be numbered and submitted, without the names of the writers or other identifying marks, to three judges selected by the committee, B. B. Beekman, Leslie M. Scott, and George H. Himes.

(7) All competitive essays will be judged according to their general merit and excellence; but the judges will also take into consideration, in passing thereon, neatness of manuscript, accurate orthography, correct grammar and composition, and purity and clarity of diction.

The Oregon State Library in Salem has a reading list or bibliography upon the above named subject, which will be sent to any Oregon student on request.
