BRILLIANT PASSING WINS FOOTBALL GAME FOR LOCALS

In the remaining minutes of play Heppner opened up a brilliant pass-ing attack and was headed down the field. It was Heppner's ball, first down on Hermiston's 30 yard line. One minute left to play. The Hepp-ner fullback shot a long pass which looked like a sure go for a touch-down. Two Heppner men were in the clear racing for the ball and from somewhere Harris shot out of the massed players, intercepted the pass, and ran the ball back sixty yards before he was tackled. Her-mission made two more plays and were threatening the Heppner goal line when the gun ended the game. It was unfortunate that the Hermiston fans did not get to see the brand of football the Hermiston boys played. They were all in there fighting from start to finish and should put up a better fight for the Armistice day game at Arlington.
