THOUGHTS OF JERUSALEM

(From the Industrial News Review) As Christmas passes and the old year gives way to the new, thoughts of Jerusalem, the holy land, appear in thousands of minds...

In Jerusalem, practically unchanged through nineteen hundred years, are the scenes that Christ knew. The age-old hills of Judea remain through time, as do the green pastures and still waters of biblical significance.

No journey offers the traveler so much in historical importance, in the pleasures of meditation and study. It is a strange fact that but one in two hundred of the ministers who preach the gospel in this country have ever visited Palestine.

are so fortunate as to go to it, once, twice or a dozen times, are to be envied.

CHURCH NOTES

METHODIST EPISCOPAL CHURCH W. A. Briggs, Pastor Morning worship at 10. Sermon theme: "Realizing Our Possibilities."

Evening worship at 7:30. Sermon theme: "A Faith That Overcomes." Since this is the last day of the old year the young folks will reverence the occasion by having their league service from 11 to 12 in the evening.

CHRISTIAN SCIENCE CHURCHES

"Christian Science" was the subject of the Lesson-Sermon in all Churches of Christ, Scientist, on Sunday, Dec. 24.

The Golden Text was, "These signs shall follow them that believe; In my name shall they cast out devils; they shall speak with new tongues; they shall take up serpents; and if they drink any deadly thing, it shall not hurt them; they shall lay hands on the sick, and they shall recover" (Mark 16:17, 18).

Among the citations which comprised the Lesson-Sermon was the following from the Bible: "And I will pray the Father, and he shall give you another Comforter, that he may abide with you for ever; Even the Spirit of truth" (John 14:16, 17).

There are 11 air routes in Great Britain, not counting those between London and Europe. It has been estimated that there are 7,000,000 bicycle riders in Great Britain.
