He was assisted by the Pastor Father Dominic O. Connor, O.M. Cap., and Father J. J. Walsh, Pastor of Freewater, and Father F. Carroll, O.M. Cap.

The sweet toned bell is the gift of an anonymous donor. It is probably the first church bell solemnly blessed in eastern Oregon.

In accordance with the ritual, it was blessed to the honor of God under the invocation of Mary Immaculate, St. Joseph, St. John, St. Patrick, and St. William.

After the Mass which followed the blessing, the clergy and the congregation were entertained to an alfresco breakfast on the grounds of the Nugent home by the ladies of Saint Patrick's Altar Society.

"I'LL TELL THE WORLD" FILM SNAPPY TALE.

With Lee Tracy as the big-shot foreign correspondent for a press association grabbing off a big monarchist yarn and mixing into a romance with a princess, "I'll Tell the World," at the Oasis Sunday and Monday, has all the popular ingredients required for a snappy tale.

The story is, of course, a newspaper fable, staged on an international locale, and with Tracy and Pryor shown as having an uncanny faculty for meddling in the middle of a day's news, from balloon runaways to royal intrigues. It works up into some exciting sequences as Tracy discovers a plot on the part of the prime minister of a mythical kingdom to have the princess assassinated. Finale shows no assassination, but Tracy running off with a princess.

A cartoon and comedy complete the program.
