SOCIAL and FRATERNAL Notes

At a pretty home wedding Sunday morning, August 19th, at 7:00 o'clock, Miss Myrtle McAtee, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. R. H. McAtee, became the bride of Mr. Orville J. Widman, son of Mr. and Mrs. Elmer Widman of Rosalia, Wn. The bride walked down a lane formed by large baskets of flowers on the arm of her father to the altar in the flower garden. Miss Golda Mamma played the wedding march as the bridal party proceeded to the altar, where Rev. W. A. Briggs of Hermiston read the sacred rites.

The bride was charming in a tipto-length white organdy. Mrs. McAtee, attired in her wedding dress, added to the atmosphere of the scene.

A wedding breakfast was served at small tables on the lawn following the ceremony. Mrs. Bert Mullins catered and the Misses Roberta Mullins and Geraldine Mullins served.

Guests included Mr. and Mrs. Jackson Harr, Mr. and Mrs. M. L. Watson, Mr. and Mrs. O. O. Felthouse, Rev. and Mrs. W. A. Briggs, Mrs. W. J. Cochran and Miss Golda Mamma, all of Hermiston.

Mrs. Widman graduated from the Rosalia, Wn., high school and the Henry Teacher's college. She has taught in the Columbia school here for the past two years.

Mr. Widman recently received his Bachelor of Arts degree from Henry and will serve as principal in the school at Thornton, Wn., where they will make their home.

Mr. and Mrs. Geo. Sale celebrated their silver wedding anniversary last week when their friends surprised them at their home. They were married in Ferdinand, Kansas, 5 years ago. Among those present besides the family were Mr. and Mrs. W. A. Briggs, Mr. and Mrs. Tom Lenhart, of Hermiston, and Tom Thomas of Salem.

Miss Nell Reeves, bride-elect, was honored at a miscellaneous shower last Thursday night, August 16, at the home of Mrs. W. L. Morgan with Mrs. W. L. Pierson and Mrs. Morgan acting as joint hostesses. The affair was a second of a series of cards were the diversion of the evening. Miss Shirley Brownson on high honors and Mrs. L. C. "old cut for prize. The gifts were placed in a room hung with yellow and white streamers and the honoree opened them on a table centered by a miniature bride.

Miss Reeves will be married to Frank D. Morgan, Sunday, September 2.

Miss Odelpa Hoskins, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. James C. Hoskins of Stanfield, became the bride of Mr. Vernon C. Waterman, son of Mrs. Rena Waterman of Hermiston, at an attractive church wedding in the Presbyterian church in Stanfield, Sunday night, August 19th, at 8:00 o'clock. Rev. J. F. Gibson of Stanfield read the service.

The bride was charming in white organdy and veil caught with orange blossoms. The maid of honor, Miss Bytha Hoskins, wore yellow organdy, and the bridesmaids, Miss Jane Gibson and Miss Alice Rhea, wore gowns in pastel shades. Harold Waterman of Bend, Ore., brother of the groom, acted as best man.

Preceding the ceremony, Mrs. W. W. King and Chas. Hoskins sang, "I Love You Truly," and Mr. Hoskins sang "O Promise Me." Mrs. J. R. Yeager of Hermiston, sister of the groom, played the wedding march and processional.

A reception was held in the basement of the church following the ceremony. The young couple left immediately on a short wedding trip to Ranier National park.

Mrs. Waterman is a graduate of the Stanfield high school and Oregon Normal school at Monmouth, and also attended Oregon State college. Mr. Waterman is a graduate of Whitman college at Walla Walla, Wn. He will be employed in the school at Thorp, Wn., this coming school year where the young couple will make their home.
