MRS. CATHRYN C. DURFEY BURIED IN PORTLAND MONDAY

Mrs. Cathryn C. Durfey, beloved mother of C. Jarvis Durfey, passed away Friday, September 7, in a Portland hospital where she had been transferred from Pendleton only a few days before.

Funeral services were held Monday from the Zeller Funeral Chapel in Portland and interment made in the Rose City cemetery.

Mrs. Durfey had operated the Hermiston Hotel here for 10 years and had a patronage that considered it one of the best hotels between Arlington and Pendleton.

Before opening the Hermiston Hotel Mrs. Durfey owned the Corlis on the west side of town which has been operated as an apartment house for the past two years.

Mrs. Durfey leaves her son C. Jarvis Durfey of Hermiston. Hermiston people who attended the funeral were: Mr. and Mrs. H. T. Fraser, Harold K. Dean, N. R. Mueller, Mr. and Mrs. F. B. Swayze and former residents of Hermiston who now reside in Portland.

WESTWARD HO PARADE FRIDAY AT PENDLETON ROUND-UP.

Friday, September 14, is the day for the famous "Westward Ho" parade at the Silver Jubilee Pendleton Round-Up and the Round-Up Association has received many indications that the public, remembering that the parade was held on Saturday in former years, hopes that the word will get around, so that visitors will not be disappointed.

On Friday, the second day of Pendleton's 25th Anniversary Round-Up, the longest and most colorful, and most historically accurate "Westward Ho" parade ever presented will be the most outstanding feature of Pendleton's great western exhibition, according to the Round-Up board.

Dr. L. J. Allen, assistant state 4-H club leader, will judge the club livestock, and H. G. Avery, Union county agent, will judge crops and livestock open class. Assistant County Agent Sawyer reported. An attempt will be made to complete all judging Friday.

HORSE THIEVES BOUND OVER TO GRAND JURY MONDAY

James Redhorse and Billy Wildhorse were bound over to the grand jury in the justice court of P. P. Sullivan here Monday, on the charge of stealing a horse from Archie Rugg and a saddle from H. A. Hooker.

Another case was bound over to the grand jury Monday when R. J. Marshall was picked up for passing bad checks.

Ross Black was sentenced to ten days in the county jail for vagrancy after being taken to Pendleton Monday by Deputy Sheriff H. A. Pankow.

ALICE WHITLARK IS NEW UMATILLA COUNTY NURSE.

Miss Alice Whitlark arrived in Pendleton last week to take up her duties as county health nurse, succeeding Mrs. Ruth Hinesgardner, who resigned recently.

Miss Whitlark has had a number of years experience and comes to the county from Rockport, Mo., where she was the Atchison county health nurse. During the summer she was field nurse supervisor for the federal relief project in Nebraska. She was formerly field nurse for Washington university at St. Louis, after securing her bachelor of science degree at that university.

EQUIPMENT ANNOUNCED, 4-H CLUB DEMONSTRATIONS

All 4-H clubs planning on taking part in demonstrations at the Umatilla Project fair, Friday and Saturday, September 21-22, are requested to notify Mrs. W. A. Hinefine, Farm Bureau club leader, or William A. Sawyer, assistant county agent, in order that time may be reserved for the demonstrations.

Mrs. Hinefine announced today that unless other equipment was requested, only a table and flamo stove with three burners would be furnished. If sewing club leaders request, a sewing machine will be furnished, she said.

CONGRESSMAN PIERCE GETS 50-YEAR I.O.O.F. JEWEL

Congressman Walter M. Pierce was presented with a 50-year jewel by the I.O.O.F. Eureka No. 32 lodge at Pendleton, Monday night, September 10. Mr. Pierce became a member of the order at Milton in 1884.

The jewel was presented by R. Alexander, father of Mrs. E. P. Dodd of Hermiston, and also a holder of a 50-year jewel. Other 50-year jewel holders present were E. E. Sharon, secretary of the Oregon grand lodge for 40 years, and Wm. Moran, present secretary.

Members attending from Hermiston included Curtis Simons, O. C. Pierce, H. A. Pankow, Gwyn Hughes, Dewey Grindstaff, Wm. Longhorn, Art Beasley, Mr. Dawson and Harry McMillan.

Blooms Reach Nome.

Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Bloom, former educators in the Umatilla schools who left the first of August for Nome, Alaska, where Mr. Bloom will be employed as superintendent, reached their destination on the "Victoria" about August 19. A letter was received this week by Mrs. Bloom's parents, Mr. and Mrs. L. C. Dyer, which was written at Seward where the Blooms had seen blubber removed from a 100-ton whale. The last boat scheduled for Nome this season left Seattle last Friday, and all mail will be received by plane during the fall and winter months. Mail will arrive there once a week the letter stated.

Boy, 16, Gets Prison Term.

Henry Maatteress, alias Henri Di-veny, 16, of New York city, was sentenced to two years in the penitentiary Monday by Calvin L. Sweek on a plea of guilty of assault with intent to kill. He and Allen McMillan, 23, of Spokane, were charged with shooting William Shepherd of Umatilla when he surprised them in his garage last month. McMillan is bound over to the grand jury under $1500 bail.

SEALOCKS AT BONNEVILLE PROVIDE NEW DEVELOPMENT

H. G. WEST ASKS FOR SUPPORT OF INLAND PEOPLE.

First Step in 7-Point Program Accomplished; Construction of Umatilla Dam Inevitable.

H. G. West, executive secretary of the Inland Empire Waterways association, was the main speaker at a dinner meeting of the Hermiston Commercial club Tuesday evening. Mr. West says that the victory in connection with the building of sealocks at the Bonneville dam provides a new set-up on the Columbia river and makes additional development possible.

The work of the waterways association was reviewed briefly by Judge C. L. Sweek, president, and supplementary talks were made by G. A. Hartman, vice president, and by E. B. Aldrich, editor of the East Oregonian.

Mr. Sweek explained the importance of the sea locks hearing held at The Dalles which aided in bringing about favorable action on the part of the army engineers.

Mr. Hartman pictured President Roosevelt as "river minded" and suggested that the interior forces work with unity so as to secure maximum results during his administration.

Mr. West reported that the association is seeking the support of grange organizations in Oregon and that he has already spoken before several groups. Similar support has been pledged by granges in Washington.

P. T. A. WILL GIVE RECEPTION FOR TEACHERS SEPT. 19.

The first meeting of the local P. T. A. will be in the form of a reception for the teachers, September 19, in the high school auditorium. A program is being outlined by the president of the organization, Mrs. Albert Moser. The program will start promptly at 8:00 o'clock. Refreshments will be served following the program.

Shot Injurs Foot.

Bud Sommerer, son of Mr. and Mrs. H. M. Sommerer, accidentally shot off his toe with a 16-gauge Winchester shotgun while hunting Sunday, September 9. He was taken to the Pendleton hospital and is getting along nicely.

HERALD WILL BE ISSUED EARLY NEXT WEEK.

In order that the Herald may reach subscribers a day before the big Umatilla Project fair opens in Hermiston, September 21st, it will be issued a day earlier next week. It will be entered in the Thursday morning mail in order that subscribers may read all about the show which opens Friday. Premium lists may be obtained at the Herald office by anyone who has not secured one.

SPRINGS IN UMATILLA FOREST AREA TO END DROUTH.

Work has begun and is progressing on developing 48 springs in the Umatilla forest to relieve the drouth situation and provide water for sheep and cattle on the mountain ranges. J. F. Irwin, supervisor of the forest, announced recently.

Because of the dry conditions in the mountains cattle and sheep on the summer range in the Blue mountains are already being brought to the lowlands. In ordinary seasons the stock remains in the mountains until much later.

The springs, 24 in Umatilla county and 24 in Morrow county, are being developed with SERA funds as part of the state drouth relief program. The work is under the direction of Roscoe Nell, district SERA engineer with headquarters at La Grande. Three crews of five men each are being employed.

Local Melons Win Prize Money.

Al Bolstad received a check and fair premium ribbons from the Oregon state fair directors this week for entries made in the watermelon division for local grown melons. Watermelons grown by Bolstad have received recognition in all Pacific Northwest markets for their fine quality. The melons are grown on a 40-acre tract southwest of Hermiston.

McCoy Loses Decision.

In the boxing card staged at Stanfield Saturday night, September 8, by Joe Quick of Hermiston, the decision in the main event went to K. O. Warner, 154 pound Pendletonian, over Kid McCoy, 155 pound Enterprise fighter. A slight change was made in the card as formerly announced.

Hospital Committee Named.

At a meeting Tuesday night in the William A. Sawyer office a committee consisting of H. M. Sommerer, H. J. Ott and F. C. McKenzie was appointed to work with other committees on a plan for a community hospital. A meeting was held Thursday night. Guy Amsherry acted as temporary chairman.

VOTERS' ATTENTION CALLED TO REGISTRATION CLOSING DATE.

In order to vote at the coming general election on Tuesday, November 6th, all voters must be registered. Voters who did not cast their ballots at the last general election two years ago might not be registered. If a voter has moved into another precinct since last voting he may not be registered and should check with the registrar. All persons under voting age, but who will be twenty-one on or before November 6th, may register now. If the voter desires to change his political party he must do so by re-registering, or if voter has changed his or her name by marriage (or otherwise) he or she should re-register. Registration books close Saturday, October 6th, 1934. F. C. McKenzie at the Oregon Hardware & Implement company store is the official registrar for this district and anyone who is not sure about their registration may check with Mr. McKenzie before October 6th. It is the duty of every citizen to vote so register at your earliest opportunity. Remember—the books close October 6th.

S. D. WILLIAMS DISSOLVES BUSINESS INTERESTS HERE.

S. D. Williams, who has served Hermiston and adjacent territory as jeweler for the past year, left Monday for Walla Walla where he will be employed by A. E. Fitzgerald, Jeweler. Mr. Williams states that he has enjoyed his work here but that the new opportunity of making a change had a decided advantage over his present business. Anyone having repair work that has not been called for or delivered may call for it at any time, Mr. Williams says.

F. ELLIS MOYER WILL OPEN MEN'S CLOTHING STORE HERE.

F. Ellis Moyer of Heppner, who has been employed by J. C. Penney Co., for the past five years, will open a men's and boys' clothing store in Hermiston, Wednesday, September 19. Mr. Moyer has leased the Shaar building on Main street and is remodeling before moving his stock. The establishment will be known as "Moyers" and will carry a line of stylish, up-to-date merchandise. Mr. Moyer says he will be ready to do business on Wednesday of next week. He was in town Thursday making arrangements for the opening.

SENATOR ZIMMERMAN WILL SPEAK HERE SUNDAY, SEPT. 16.

Senator Zimmerman, independent candidate for governor of the state of Oregon, will speak at the Methodist church Sunday, September 16, at 8:00 P. M., according to announcement made by R. G. Penney, president of the "Zimmerman for Governor" club which was organized in Pendleton Tuesday evening. Mrs. Minnie McFarland of Umatilla is vice president, John Crow of Pendleton, secretary-treasurer. A mass meeting has been arranged for Tuesday, September 18, in the court house at Pendleton, at 8:00 p. m., with Senator Zimmerman as the speaker.

Weiner Bake Enjoyed.

More than a hundred people gathered about small campfires, under a clear, starry sky in Columbia park last Saturday night to enjoy a weiner bake, and music by Donald De-Moss, Bruce Follett and Eddie Peterson. More than 127 pounds of weiners were consumed, it was estimated by the purchases made that day at local stores. Other affairs of a slightly different nature will be scheduled at times later in the season, by the Umatilla Project Farm Bureau and Auxiliary, it was announced by the vice president of the ladies organization, Mrs. C. L. Upham.

There was a trace of precipitation on the 10th.

UMATILLA COUNTY BOY NAMED OUTSTANDING STATE 4-H CLUBBER

ELMER SMILEY WINS LOUGHARY JERSEY CALF.

Local 4-H Clubbers Win Honorable Mention; Helen Jendrzejewski Placed First in Canning.

Local 4-H club boys and girls made some fine showings at the Oregon state fair at Salem last week. One of the most outstanding of these was the announcement by H. C. Seymour, state club leader, of the two boys and two girls outstanding in all 4-H club projects at this year's fair. Elmer Smiley, a Freewater boy, from Umatilla county, was named as one of these two boys. Chriss Starr of Yamhill county was the only boy, and the girls were Helen Michael and Myrna Jean Laird, both of Lane county.

Smiley is 17 years old and has been engaged in 4-H club work for eight years. He was local leader of the Fruitvale Pig club and has attended summer school at Oregon State college for six years. Smiley started club work with one Jersey heifer and now owns 25 head of purebred livestock. William A. Sawyer of Hermiston, assistant county agent for Umatilla county, names some of Smiley's placements as follows: his livestock placements at the 1934 state fair included second on Jersey producing cow, second on Jersey junior yearling, third in Jersey championship, first on pen of four market Duroc Jersey pigs, first on single fat hog, eighth on junior sow pig, tenth in pig showmanship, sixth on Hampshire yearling ewe and second on medium wool sheep showmanship. Smiley also won the Loughary Jersey calf.

The Umatilla county livestock judging team placed third in the state contest. Members of the team were Elmer Smiley, Alfred Bixby and Harold Smiley, a cousin of Elmer's, all from Freewater, Or.

Girls Win Honors. Miss Helen Jendrzejewski, member of the We-Can Canning club under the leadership of Mrs. W. A. Hinefine of Hermiston, won first in second division canning. A demonstration team from the same club composed of Margaret Clarke and Helen Jendrzejewski placed fifth in the canning demonstration. There were 14 teams entered. Miss Jendrzejewski was also elected as a member of the executive board in the girls' dormitory. Other placings were made by Leo Rueber of Stanfield; eight on Hampshire yearling ewe; Bernard Jendrzejewski of Hermiston, ninth on Hampshire yearling ewe.

Stock Entered. Stock from the west end of Umatilla county was entered by Clare Lindner, 1 Holstein heifer; Bernard Jendrzejewski, 2 Hampshire sheep; and Leo Rueber of Stanfield, 2 Hampshire sheep and 2 Duroc Jersey hogs.

Mrs. W. A. Hinefine, Farm Bureau 4-H club leader, and William A. Sawyer, assistant county agent, accompanied the 4-H clubbers from the west end of the county to Salem.

CARD OF THANKS.

For the kindness shown us by our friends at the loss of our beloved mother, we wish to express our appreciation.

C. JARVIS DURFEY

ALONG THE CONCRETE

A serious collision occurred in Minnehah district last week when a log owned by W. G. Rodda and a kunk came together.

Someone got Tom Jensen's goat Saturday. Tom said today he hoped to get it back soon. He had him on Main street Sunday.

A man by the name of Redhorse stole a bay horse, which he traded to a Mr. Wildhorse for a black horse and was caught in Blackhorse canyon. What a horsey story.

G. A. Garrett furnished some amusement for U. P. stage passengers Saturday by calling all stops and way point stations through the Mor-Tone sound wagon which was parked on Main street.
