

UMATILLA NEWS

By Louise Byrnes
Because of the slight increase in the Columbia river water flow, the Shaver Forwarding Co., has ordered its boat, the Roosevelt, to resume operations above Arlington to Umatilla. The warehouse at Umatilla has been moved to the water's edge. All local labor was hired in the operation.

Guy Rowell of the Cater Trucking Co., has rented a house here and expects to move his family from Spokane soon.

Bill Switzler visited at Maryhill and Portland last week.
Tom O'Donnell has gone to Abner to work in the railroad yards.
Paul Lee has employment at Holdman this fall.

Mr. and Mrs. Ted Hartfield are moving into the Pike place west of town.
Everett Ervin, Loran Caldwell and Herbert Lane returned home after being employed on the Union Pacific near LaGrande.
Mr. and Mrs. M. M. McCullough accompanied by Mrs. Clarence Guen, and children, motored to Pendleton Tuesday to see Mr. Guen who is in the St. Anthony's hospital.
Calvin Shepherd of Dallas, Ore., is visiting his brother William Shepherd and family.
James Byrnes was a business visitor in Walla Walla, Monday.
Jay Berry and daughter Lola and Barbara spent the week end in Portland.

and Mrs. W. G. Rodda and C. Seitz attended the Thompson funeral at Echo Sunday.
Orville Rodda returned to Lexington after spending a week at home.

G. L. Bennett

INDEPENDENT CANDIDATE

FOR

County Commissioner

OF MORROW COUNTY

WRITE HIS NAME IN THIS WAY:

X G. L. BENNETT

Jack Folsom

Republican Nominee

For

Recorder of Conveyances

Umatilla County

"CAPABLE AND EXPERIENCED."

General Election Nov. 6, 1934.

(Paid Adv.)

WILL ROGERS CAST IN ROLE OF COBB TALE

"Judge Priest," film play starring Will Rogers in a story by Irvin S. Cobb, will be on the screen at the Oasis theatre Friday and Saturday.
The title part of Judge Priest is played by Rogers and is reported to fit him as smoothly as his recent assignment in David Harum. In accordance with Cobb's story, the kindly, eccentric judge fosters a romance between a young couple, played by Tom Brown and Rochelle Hudson. The course of young love has an obstacle in the objection by the boy's mother to the girl, on the ground that the girl's mother was unmarried.
The girl's father falls into trouble with a group of rowdies. Judge Priest learns his identity and, being temporarily barred from the bench himself, defends the man in court with many humorous complications. The dialogue throughout is reported to be natural and clever. Among others in the cast are Anita Louise, Henry B. Walthall, David Landau, Charles Grapewin, Stepin Fetchit and Berton Churchill.

Butter Creek-Minnehaaha

Mr. and Mrs. W. J. Moore of Harford, Idaho, visited at the W. A. Hine line home last week. The Moore's are old time friends of Mr. Hine line.
Miss Lois Jackson and friends were guests of her parents Mr. and Mrs. E. L. Jackson last week while on a hunting trip.
Mr. and Mrs. A. E. Bensele have been making extensive improvements on their house at the Swan ranch. The family is now living on the place, moving from their North Hill district residence.
Miss Margaret Elliott was a dinner guest at the C. M. Jackson home Monday evening.
Mrs. C. M. Jackson entertained Mr. and Mrs. Thos. Campbell, Mr. and Mrs. H. T. Fraser and F. E. Swayze at dinner Sunday.
Mr. and Mrs. Dan Lindsay and son Bruce and daughter Anne of Alpine were dinner guests of Mr. and Mrs. W. A. Hine line Sunday.
Mr. and Mrs. W. J. McDaid, Mr.

PINE CITY NEWS

By Oleta Neill
Mr. and Mrs. A. E. Wattenburger were business visitors in Hermiston Monday.
Mr. and Mrs. John Healy and family, Mr. and Mrs. Marion Finch and Miss Cecelia Brennan attended the Lena Grange dance Saturday night.
Miss Mary White, teacher in the Pleasant Point school, spent the week end in Portland.
Mrs. E. B. Wattenburger went to Heppner last Wednesday and remained there to visit her cousin, Mrs. Burl Coxen.
Mr. and Mrs. Frank Helms and daughters Henrietta and Harriet were business visitors in Pendleton Saturday.
Everyone is cordially invited to attend the carnival and program given by the school November 2, at 8:00 p. m. in the school auditorium. Final preparations are now being made.
Mrs. Ollie Neill and daughter Lenna, Miss Eleanor Barth and Ray Hardman motored to La Grande Saturday to visit the Misses Neva and Oleta Neill, who are attending the normal school. They stayed in Pendleton Saturday night and returned home Sunday morning.
Mr. and Mrs. Fred Rauch and daughter Doris were business visitors in Hermiston Monday.
Rev. E. R. Martin, superintendent of the American Sunday School Union, will arrive in Pine City Sunday, November 4, for the purpose of organizing a Sunday school.
Mr. and Mrs. W. D. Neill returned home Wednesday evening from a trip through the Willamette Valley.
Mr. and Mrs. T. J. O'Brien were business visitors in Pendleton Friday.
Mrs. Ollie Neill and daughter Lenna and Miss Eleanor Barth spent Thursday evening visiting at the C. H. Bartholomew home.
Mr. and Mrs. Bert Young from The Dalles, spent Sunday visiting friends and relatives on Butter Creek.
C. H. Bartholomew was called to Montana last Tuesday on business. He returned Monday night.

VOTE X 39 Barney E. Anderson

DEMOCRATIC CANDIDATE

FOR

County Commissioner

General Election November 6, 1934.

"ECONOMY AND EFFICIENCY"

I stand on my former record with fairness to all parts of the County. I have had a part in building 300 miles permanent roads in Umatilla County. (Paid Adv.)

YOUR VOTE

FOR

T. B. BOMBOY

Democratic Candidate for

CORONER

is a vote for

Efficiency & Experience

X 45 BOMBOY T. B.

(Paid Adv.)

We are PROUD to Recommend these Candidates

Not because they are Republicans, BUT because, candidate for candidate, we think them the most CAPABLE.

FOR GOVERNOR

JOE E. DUNNE

He has made his way through life and knows the hardships of the wage earner. He knows the troubles of the business man. He knows Oregon and is better acquainted with the point of view of the average man than any other candidate on the ballot. He is a LEADER, is fully aware of the duties of the office he seeks, and has all the qualifications necessary to make a good governor.

For Secretary of State

EARL SNELL

A man of whom Eastern Oregon is justly proud.

For Superintendent of PUBLIC INSTRUCTION

CHARLES A. HOWARD

Who is piloting Oregon's school system through a difficult period.

For Commissioner of the BUREAU OF LABOR

C. H. GRAM

Present commissioner, who has earned labor's confidence.

Paid Advertisement

FOR CONGRESSMAN

JAY H. UPTON

An alert, hard-working, hard-fighting progressive man whose record in the state senate is outstanding in the support of the farmer, the livestock man, the veteran, the laborer and the aged. He has never dodged an issue and is well-acquainted with every section of this district.

For State Senator

NINETEENTH DISTRICT

R. E. BEAN

His record as a County Commissioner was outstanding. He deserves support not only for what he has done, but for what he can do for us in the state capital.

For State Senator

TWENTIETH DISTRICT

JAMES A. BEST

Who has already made a reputation in state legislative circles.

For Recorder of Conveyances

JACK FOLSOM

Experience, ability, and the confidence of the people make him the logical choice in this election.

FOR REPRESENTATIVES

VOTE FOR TWO

JAMES H. E. SCOTT

Present Representative, who has given this district honest and intelligent representation.

CARL ENGDAHL

A man whose ability and honesty we all respected.

For County Commissioner

J. O. HALES

His fairness to all parts of the county, his hard work and honesty have been instrumental in keeping county affairs in excellent condition.

For County Treasurer

BETTYE F. DEHART

Present Treasurer, whose office has been operated in a most commendable fashion under these unusual financial conditions. She has earned re-election.

For County Coroner

ALLAN "PAT" FOLSOM

Present Coroner, whose experience, record, ability in office, and pioneer background, are the strongest recommendations a candidate could have.

Umatilla County Republican Central Committee

J. L. STOCKMAN, Chairman.