Local Happenings

A baby boy was born to Mrs. T. Foster of Stanfield Tuesday at the Hermiston General hospital.

Raymond Walker, who has been critically ill with pneumonia, is reported as somewhat improved.

Mrs. James Taylor, who has been quite ill for some time, is greatly improved and expects to be about soon.

A good selection of low-priced gift items at Amsberry's. Mr. and Mrs. Alton Kingsbury were Pendleton business visitors last Thursday.

Mr. and Mrs. Chas. Connor of Pendleton were in Hermiston Sunday where they were called by the illness of Raymond Walker.

Mrs. Maude Huff and son Maurice left Tuesday night for California after leasing her place to Mr. and Mrs. H. A. Wilson. Mr. and Mrs. Wilson and their three children have moved onto the place.

Mr. and Mrs. Harold Rankin returned early this week from a trip to Portland where they attended to business. Fred and Marvin Rankin accompanied them but did not return until Thursday.

Mrs. Jennie White of Weiser, Idaho, arrived last week to visit her daughter and son-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. S. F. Foster. She plans to remain until after the Christmas holidays.

Miss Thelma Walker of Pendleton was called to Hermiston Friday by the illness of her brother Raymond Walker, who is now improving after a severe attack of pneumonia.

Mrs. Harold Thompson and infant son John Richard returned home from Pendleton Wednesday. Mrs. J. M. Shipley of Portland, mother of Mrs. Thompson, arrived Tuesday and will visit her daughter for some time.

Mrs. Beatrice Christopherson, who was in town over the week end disposing of her furniture, left Tuesday afternoon for Portland where she will make her home with her mother. Mrs. Lyle Tilden, who is making her home in Portland this winter, accompanied her.

Marshall Newport of Portland was in Hermiston on business Tuesday. John Thom is ill at the home of J. A. Reeves. He is somewhat improved at this time.

Miss Queenie M. Peck of Portland has been engaged as nurse at the Hermiston General hospital for the past three weeks.

Mrs. Ralph Richards returned Tuesday afternoon from Wasco where she visited at the home of Dr. and Mrs. V. Haufelt.

Miss Marian Henderson returned the first of the week from Pendleton where she spent the week end visiting friends.

Fredrick Stolz of Portland, has located here permanently, and will teach violin under contract with the National Institute of Music of Spokane. He covers all territory surrounding Hermiston in his instruction.

Still toys for that last-minute gift at Amsberry's.

Mr. and Mrs. A. M. Tillson, who have been visiting at the home of their daughter and family, Mr. and Mrs. O. L. Barlow, returned to their home at Meacham, Or., Tuesday. Mr. and Mrs. Barlow accompanied them but returned to Hermiston the same day.

Dr. W. W. Illsley arrived in Pendleton Tuesday morning by plane after receiving word that his father E. P. Illsley of Hermiston had suffered a stroke. Mr. Illsley is somewhat improved and Dr. Illsley left for his home in southern California Wednesday.
