Penner-Oakie Film Abounds with Comedy

Joe Penner is back on the screen again with Jack Oakie but minus his famous duck. The new Penner picture "Collegiate," which also has Ned Sparks, Lynne Overman and lovely Frances Langford in the cast, will be at the Oasis theatre Friday and Saturday.

The story tells how Jack Oakie, Broadway playboy, inherits a girls' boarding school from his aunt. His handy man, Lynne Overman, and his anti-publicity agent, Ned Sparks, get Oakie out of oil in time for the reading of the will, then start out for the newly-acquired school with him. On the way they meet Joe Penner, who is a victim of amnesia. The four join forces and proceed to the school, which proves a major disappointment because of its mid-Victorian atmosphere.

Oakie and his cohorts begin to make things hum from the beginning. They change the seminary into a "charm school," substitute the saxophone for the zither and shorts for bloomers, and bring some lively music into the place.

Penner's antics in trying to determine his identity as well as his romance with one of the girl students, Betty Grable, prove his right to the huge popularity he has achieved in the last two years both in radio and on the screen.

CHRISTIAN SCIENCE CHURCHES

"LIFE" was the subject of the Lesson-Sermon in all Churches of Christ, Scientist, on Sunday, Jan. 19.

The Golden Text was, "This is the record, that God hath given to us eternal life, and this life is in his Son" (I John 5:11).

Among the citations which comprised the Lesson-Sermon was the following from the Bible: "Jesus answered and said unto her, Whosoever drinketh of this water shall thirst again; But whosoever drinketh of the water that I shall give him shall never thirst; but the water that I shall give him shall be in him a well of water springing up into everlasting life" (John 4: 13, 14).

The Lesson-Sermon also included the following correlative passages from the Christian Science textbook, "Science and Health with Key to the Scriptures," by Mary Baker Eddy: "When spiritual being is understood in all its perfection, continuity, and might, then shall man be found in God's image . . . Immortal man was and is God's image or idea, even the infinite expression of infinite Mind . . . The spiritual man's consciousness and individuality are reflections of God. They are the emanations of Him who is Life, Truth, and Love" (pp. 325, 336).
