reach a position near the hospital. The hose was connected with a fire plug near the McReynolds home and was strung along the track in the road.
 Firemen were hindered and handicapped in their work by the number of cars which blocked the road ahead of them, and which were deliberately driven over the firehose.
 Our fire engine does not have a modern siren but it might be a means of saving life and property if allowed to reach the scene of the fire in a reasonable time without unnecessary obstructions.
 Officials urge that onlookers cooperate by giving way first to the fire truck and firemen.

Sunday morning. Preaching at 11:00 A. M. Evening evangelistic service at 7:00 o'clock. Friday night prayer meeting at 7:00 o'clock. Tuesday evening children's Bible study at pastor's residence. A welcome to every one.

METHODIST EPISCOPAL CHURCH

R. R. Finkbeiner, Pastor. Worship at 10:00 A. M. and Sunday school at 10:50 each Sunday. Epworth League at 6:30 P. M. and the evening evangelistic service at 7:30.

Next Sunday at the M. E. Church the pastor will bring a message from the text, "Not my will, but thine be done." The general subject, Prayer—a picture of Hofman's Christ in Gethsemane will be used to illustrate the message. Everyone interested in art is cordially invited. At night the second in a series of messages on the letters of Christ to the seven churches in Asia will be delivered. "Faithfulness unto Death," is the subject.

A profitable evening was spent at the M. E. church last Sunday evening viewing the colored slides on Peru. Educational, social, economic and religious conditions prevailing were vividly represented. We were forcibly reminded of the great privileges of free speech and free press which we daily enjoy, the products of freedom to worship God according to the dictates of conscience.
