PUREBRED PIGS PURCHASED BY 4-H CLUB MEMBERS

Nine boys and girls on the Umatilla project are going to feed about 20 head of purebred pigs in 4-H club work between now and this fall. These pigs are being purchased from hog breeders living near Walla Walla and Dayton at a price ranging from $5.00 to $8.00 per head. The pigs are to be shown in the 4-H club division at the Pacific International Livestock Exposition in Portland, in October, and will be sold at the fat stock auction sale at the conclusion of the stock show.

The following boys and girls are purchasing pigs, giving name of purchaser, number of pigs, and name of breeder from whom pigs were purchased:

Leo Rueber, 6, C. W. Vaughn; Bernard Jendzejewski, 4, C. W. Vaughn; Eldon Saylor, 2, H. F. Clarke; Marie Olsen, 1, H. F. Clarke; Neil Bleakney, 1, Awilda Bleakney, 1, H. F. Clarke; Lavester Mulkins, 1, Loretta Mulkins, 1, Henry Garber; Harry Lewis, 2, V. V. Lewis.

This is the first club of this kind which has been organized in this section for several years, and along with the 12 head of baby beef calves and several head of lambs, should make an excellent showing from the west end of Umatilla county, both at the Umatilla Project fair and at the Pacific International.

Humid-A-Kold

Air Conditioned Electric Refrigeration
by MONARCH

The MONARCH "Humid-A-Kold" series of modern electric refrigerators offers the latest development in domestic refrigeration. Air circulation, which automatically maintains the necessary moisture in storage compartment prevents dehydration of foods. Covered containers for all foods are not necessary. Foods keep fresh and wholesome and do not dry out or absorb strong flavors.

The "D" Series of MONARCHS, incorporating this feature, is designed to meet every home requirement. A variety of sizes offers optional food storage space, as well as freezing capacity. The exteriors are modern in design, finished in beautiful White or Ivory-Tan Dulux, trimmed with attractive Chrome hardware and modern black bases. Interiors are porcelain enamel.
