If you suffer from neuritis what you want is quick relief. Genuine Bayer Aspirin tablets give quick relief, for one reason, because they dissolve or disintegrate almost instantly they touch moisture. (Note illustration above.) Hence—when you take a real Bayer Aspirin tablet it starts to dissolve almost as quickly as you swallow it. And thus is ready to start working almost instantly. . . . headaches, neuralgia and neuritis pains start easing almost at once. OREGON STATE NEWS OF GENERAL INTEREST

Brief Resume of Happenings of the Week Collected for Our Readers

Waterloo—The bridge across the South Santiam has been recently rebuilt and is again open to traffic.
Waldport—Chinook salmon fishermen reported heavy runs last week. They are receiving six cents per pound.
Pendleton—Postal receipts for the first nine months of 1936 show an increase of six per cent. over the same period for 1935.

Umatilla—The second switch engine was taken off the local run last week and men were divided between The Dalles and Portland.
Bend—The Bank of Bend, a locally owned, newly chartered institution, opened for business recently. The new bank is capitalized at $50,000.

Oregon City—R. H. Baldoek, state highway inspector, was recently instructed to survey the Oregon City-Portland super highway for a safety lighting system.

Salem—Keeless hunting permanently bars a person from ever bearing firearms in the state again, according to the opinion of Attorney General Van Winkle.

Grants Pass—Two CCC camps will be reopened in Josephine county according to recent report. They are Camp Rand and Oregon Caves Camp closed for the winter.

Portland—Outgoing water shipments were 40 per cent. greater in September of this year than for September last year. Shipments received were 37 per cent. greater.

Ashland—The landscape engineer for the state highway commission is making plans for the beautification of the under crossing on the Pacific Highway near the north city boundary.

Oregon City—Imagine the surprise of a local wood dealer when he had to turn his truck off the highway in order to pass a big black bear on the highway between Colton and Elwood.

Rainier—Ernest Hollenbeck was mauled severely by a 250-pound bear that he had shot and wounded. He shot the bear in an orchard and thinking it dead put aside his rifle and approached. The bear came to life and attacked.

Seaside—Labor trouble in the logging camps of this region was averted when the local union voted to accept the extension of the present agreement until the market improves. The men had previously demanded a ten per cent. raise.

Bandon—Even the fire will not keep local youngsters from their studies. Portland school board No. 1 loaned the Bandon district enough school books and supplies to supply them all. The equipment was hauled free by two major auto freight lines.

St. Helens—Bob McKie saved the life of a bird here recently only to have a cat enjoy the deed. He found a wounded bird. Jake Watters sewed up a gaping wound in its breast, and put it in a cage for recovery. A stray cat clawed off the top of the cage and ate the bird.

Eugene—A situation developed here that was unparalleled in Oregon collegiate history—a situation that is amusing to some and downright annoying to others. The copy-right on "Mighty Oregon," Oregon's alma mater song, now belongs to a Chicago music firm and students feared that the use of it would be restricted. However, the firm announced that such were not its intentions.

SO WHAT?
Portland—Apparently there aren't any foot racers in Portland confident of their ability to run 28 miles; at least, not fast enough to keep up with Fireman Al Dunn of engine 24.

A race in from Woodland, Washington to engine 24 was in prospect recently between Dunn and all comers, but there weren't any comers.

HISTORIC MANSE RAZED

Portland—The Corbett home, long a historical spot in the center of downtown Portland, is being razed to make way for the progress of the city. Operations are being carried on as gently as possible in order to salvage time defying materials.

The three story dwelling, through whose portals civic leaders and empire builders have stepped for more than a three-quarters of a century, was one of the best and most luxuriously constructed homes to ever be dismantled in these parts.

Portland—The Portland local of the International Longshoremen's association tossed a check for $2000 into the Bandon fire relief fund. It was the largest single contribution to the fund at that date.

Corvallis—Furze or, as it is commonly called, gorse or Irish moss may have been responsible for the rapid spread of the fire around Bandon, according to Frank P. McWhorter, Oregon State College. The plant is exceedingly high in oil content he said and burns fiercely.

Lesson for October 18 THE SPOKEN AND THE WRITTEN WORD

LESSON TEXT—Acts 17:1, 5-11; 1 Thessalonians 2:7-12.
GOLDEN TEXT—The Word of God is quick, and powerful, and sharper than any two-edged sword. Heb. 4:12.
PRIMARY TOPIC—When People Read the Bible.
JUNIOR TOPIC—The Power of Jesus' Name.
INTERMEDIATE AND SENIOR TOPIC—How May I Win Others to Christ?
YOUNG PEOPLE AND ADULT TOPIC—Evangelism and the Bible.

The persecution at Philippi served not to discourage Paul and Silas, but rather to send them forward into new territory with the gospel message. Passing through two cities they came to Thessalonica, then as now a city of considerable importance. After a successful though stormy ministry there they journeyed forty miles to Berea, where the Word was gladly received.

The portion of our lesson from the Book of Acts relates how the Word was preached and received in these two cities, and the excerpt from the letter which Paul later wrote to the Thessalonian church shows what manner of life the preacher sought to live among them.

I. Preaching the Word (Acts 17: 1, 5-8).
Paul's experience at Thessalonica presents an excellent illustration of 1. How the Word should be preached (vv. 1, 5-8).

This section is incomplete without verses 2-4, which are omitted from the printed portion but should be included in the study of the lesson. Notice four things concerning his preaching.

a. The place (v. 1). Paul went to the synagogue, not by chance or because it was a great religious holiday, but because it was his "custom." The synagogue was the center of Jewish worship, and there Paul met those who were ready to receive the Word of God.

Some Christians are content to remain comfortably in church and forget to go out into the highways and hedges, but there are others who have become so accustomed to going elsewhere that they neglect the opportunity for spiritual ministry in the church.

b. The method (vv. 2-3). "Reasoning from the Scriptures." No better method has ever been devised. It is God's method. Let us get back to exposition of the Scriptures—"opening" them to men and women, "alleging," or setting out in order the truth.

c. The subject (v. 3). He preached three fundamental doctrines—the atonement, the resurrection, and the deity of Christ. Scripture preaching will be doctrinal.

d. The result (vv. 4-8). Faithful preaching of God's Word brings one of two results in the hearts of men—they are either "persuaded" and converted, or they become angry and persecute. Those who rightly received the truth were glad to join with Paul; the others raised a hue and cry because Paul and Silas were turning "the world upside down." As a matter of fact the world was already wrongside up, and Paul sought to set it right.

It is still upside down in our day. Coming to Berea, we find Paul's experience there an illustration of 2. How the Word should be received (vv. 9-11).

Good hearers are as important as good preachers. How should the Word be received?

a. With readiness of mind (v. 11). This is a mark of nobility. The world regards the sophisticated doubter as the learned man, but he is not. Noble is the mind and heart that receives God's truth.

b. Carefully and thoughtfully (v. 11). There would be less error and folly in the pulpit if there were more intelligent Bible study in the pew. Do not assume that what some learned professor, or distinguished radio preacher says is true. Check his message by the Word.

In the final portion of our lesson Paul tells the Thessalonians that when he was with them he was concerned not only about preaching the Word, but also about

II. Living the Life (1 Thess. 2:7-12).

Paul did not contradict his preaching by his living. His was a 1. "Sacrificial service" (vv. 7-9).

The man who preaches for his own glory—or gain—is not a true preacher of the gospel.

2. Consistent example (vv. 10-12).
The minister of Christ must behave "holily, righteously, and unblamably" if his people are to "walk worthy of God."
