HERMISTON, UMATILLA COUNTY, OREGON, NOVEMBER 5, 1936.

CITY CLEAN-UP ORDINANCE SOON

COMMERCIAL CLUB MAY LEAD

It is expected that a proclamation declaring a two day clean-up campaign for the City of Hermiston will be issued by Mayor McKenzie next week setting the days on November 13th and 14th. Definite action will be taken Tuesday night by the Commercial club which will sponsor the clean-up program. Every person in the city will be asked to lend a hand in this program.

Action was taken by members of the city council Wednesday night and a desire was expressed to cooperate with any movement to be undertaken.

This clean-up will not only include the territory around the main business section but on the home grounds, vacant lots and streets. It was expressed that a thriving community such as Hermiston should be clean and orderly, with trash and litter cleared from its alley ways, to give the right impression to visitors and transients.

The city council also voted to enforce the dog license ordinance, requiring all dog owners to secure a license for their dogs, commencing after the first of the year. The city radio interference ordinance will also be enforced. The council ordered an inspection of all major electrical equipment in the city within the near future.

An improvement will be made in the sidewalk terminating by the Umatilla Co-operative Creamery to reduce the height of the curb.

The city council condemned the old building on Hurlburt avenue between Second and Third streets, as a public health hazard, since scarlet fever cases had been confined there last year.

Other regular city business was transacted at the meeting Wednesday night. Councilmen present were M. L. Watson, N. R. Mueller, W. W. Felthouse, B. Haneline, F. Knerr and Mayor McKenzie, Recorder Taylor and City Attorney Warner.

PREACHING MISSION

Over 70 meetings, some of which are expected to attract audiences of many thousand people, are to be held during the evangelistic campaign to be conducted in Portland Thursday to Sunday of this week by the National Preaching Mission team of 14 outstanding American and English church leaders. Every facility provided by the city of Portland to accommodate the hundreds expected to be in the city during the Mission, and, in a broader sense, to make the mission an emphatic success, is being stretched to the utmost.

Of primary interest to the general public will be the four mass meetings, to be held in the public auditorium Thursday, Friday and Saturday nights at 8:00 o'clock, and the noonday mass meetings to be held in the Liberty theater, downtown, on Thursday and Friday. Seminars for church workers and ministers will be held in the White Temple (Baptist), the First Methodist church and the First Presbyterian church at 2:30 each week-day of the mission. Innumerable luncheons will be held to honor various members of the mission team. The mission campaign will reach a climax with the mass meeting to be held in the public auditorium at 3:00 o'clock on Sunday.

Separate meetings will be held for youth conferences, for church women, for business and professional women, for church officers, business men and ministers. The schedule of meetings is so heavy that many of them are being held simultaneously.

The protestant churches of the Pacific northwest are actively engaged in making the Portland mission an outstanding success.

ALASKA TURKEYLESS THANKSGIVING

Alaska will have a turkeyless Thanksgiving day unless the strike lifts by November 16. The last north bound ship out of Seattle didn't carry many holiday birds. November 16 is the latest they could be shipped to arrive in time.

HOT WATER BROODER HOUSE HEATING SYSTEM IS FAVORITE

Twelve years ago Charles Keller raised 600 Barred Rock hens and maintained them for a number of years. Four years ago he went into the turkey business and now has 1500 birds. He made the chicken houses into brooder houses, two of which have the underground heating system and the other the hot water system. Mr. Keller plans to change to the hot water system this fall, due to the fact that it is more readily regulated to conform with the change in temperature.

Mr. Keller raised sufficient corn on his farm to fatten the 1500 birds and to use in the mash to develop the spring poults.

Mr. Keller is a member of the board of directors for the Eastern Oregon Turkey Growers' association.

L. E. Elwood and wife secured 500 poults from the I. C. Cox turkey flock this spring in their second year as turkey producers and now have a flock of 470 birds. They came here two years ago last Tuesday from Marino, Kansas, and like the country so well they would not return to Kansas under any circumstances. They raised turkeys in Oklahoma but were constantly menaced by rodent animals and weather conditions.

They use a hot water system in their 18x24 brooder house and expect to extend their building program in the spring to accommodate 1500 poults.

The Ellwoods state that they cleared $1.65 per head last year despite the fact that the birds were set back several weeks when they ate watermelons.

PLAN PROGRAM FOR ARMISTICE

Beginning at 9:00 o'clock in the morning and continuing until 1:30 in the afternoon, a turkey shoot will be held at the Legion traps set on the Community park grounds. The shoot will not be confined to turkey prizes but various merchandise items will be given.

A football game between Heppner high school and the Hermiston Bulldogs will take place on the athletic field at 2:30 p. m. Heppner and Hermiston are enemies of long standing and the game should be one of interest.

In the evening, members of the Hermiston Legion Post and Auxiliary Unit plan a get-together pot luck dinner in the hall.

The P. N. G. Club of the Rebekah lodge will sponsor a dance the same evening in the Community hall.
