Our Lessons

When one has learned his lessons he may roam the fields and float on the river at his own sweet will; but so long as he is at his desk he must be deaf to the invitations of the sky and the woods.—Hamilton W. Mabie.

Curse of Progress

Letting Them Know
Sandy joined a golf club, and was told by the professional that if his name was on his golfballs and they were lost they would be returned to him when found.
"Good," said the Scot, "put my name on this ball."
The pro did so.
"Would you also put M. D. after it?" said the new member. "I'm a doctor." The pro obeyed.
"There's just one more thing, can ye squeeze 'Hours 10 to 3' on as well?"—Bee Hive.

Masterful Man
They were walking along North Main street and paused in the glare of a brightly lighted jewelry store. Unlike her escort, she seemed in no hurry to continue.
"Look," she said, "did you ever see such good looking engagement rings for such a low price?"
He was the masterful type. Taking her arm firmly, he answered:
"Uh-huh. But look over here Isn't that a swell radio for only $11.95?"
