

Turkeys Fattening for Thanksgiving Feasts

A million turkeys are being fattened by the Northwestern Turkey Growers in Utah who supply a great percentage of America's holiday birds. At this time each year, pretty Utah rancherettes help to feed and round up the choice birds which will soon grace Thanksgiving tables. Fair trio are seen feeding turkeys from the water wagon on a large Utah turkey ranch.

Scenes and Persons in the Current News

1—Joachim Von Ribbentrop, German ambassador to London, photographed on his way to his official office. 2—View of Madrid, Spain—the prize for which the rebels and loyalists have been contending for months. 3—Secretary of State Cordell Hull (right) and Assistant Secretary Sumner Welles enroute to Pan-American peace conference in Buenos Aires.

BOY ORATOR IN SENATE

Representative Joshua Bryan Lee, A. B., M. A., LL. D., author, poet, artist, farmer and Sunday School teacher and ardent supporter of the New Deal, who was elected to the United States Senate from Oklahoma in the recent landslide Democratic victory at the polls. Familiarly known as Josh Lee, the former boy orator who became public speaking professor at the University of Oklahoma, the new senator-elect had served two years in the house of representatives.

Old Masterpiece Shown in Chicago

Here is the old master, known as "The Education of Cupid" by Titian, which was put on exhibition at the Chicago Art Institute recently, when it was revealed that the painting had been purchased by Mr. and Mrs. Charles H. Worcester of Chicago. The purchase price was not disclosed.

Roosevelt Enrolls in Red Cross

Admiral Cary T. Grayson, chairman of the American Red Cross, shown enrolling President Roosevelt as the first member in the annual roll call. Miss Hebe Reynolds, a representative of the District of Columbia chapter made the presentation in the oval room of the White House.

NEW NAVY CHIEF

Admiral William D. Leahy has been selected by President Roosevelt as the new chief of naval operations, succeeding Admiral William H. Standley, who is retiring. Admiral Leahy has been commander-in-chief of the navy's battle force with the rank of full admiral.

Model of Giant Telescope Exhibited

James Stokley, director of the Planetarium at the Franklin Institute of Philadelphia shown with a one-tenth scale glass model of the 200-inch disc, and a model of the telescope mechanism, three-eighths of an inch to the foot, which is being constructed for the California Institute of Technology.

DENTAL PRODIGY

Smiling at you is Paul Bartlett, son of Mr. and Mrs. William J. Bartlett of Medford, Mass., who started teething at the age of three months, and now has a dozen molars to his credit, a month before his first birthday. If early teething indicates good health, then young Paul seems to be well on his way to become some man.

Ballet Dancers Arrive From La Belle, France

A group of French ballet dancers pictured aboard the S. S. Ile de France on their arrival in New York. They formed an unusual treat for the eyes of ship news photographers.

Letting You In on Television's Ground Floor

Although still in its swaddling clothes, television has been found practical and it is only a matter of a little time until the radio owner of today becomes the television owner of tomorrow. Photo shows a television broadcast of live talent. It looks like a movie studio, cameras and sound booms record the picture and the sound of the actors to be flashed out over the air.

NANNY W. HONEYMAN

The Democratic majority in the next house of representatives will include Nanny W. Honeyman, of Portland, Ore., who won over Judge William E. Ekwall, Republican incumbent. Mrs. Honeywell is a close friend of Mrs. Eleanor Roosevelt and was a bridesmaid at the wedding of President and Mrs. Roosevelt.

Crack Horses Compete in Chicago Show

Bluebloods of horse flesh from the leading horse breeding states are competing for honors at the International Horse show at Chicago, which is a daily feature of the International Live Stock exposition. One of the most coveted prizes is the $1,000 jumper stake. Horse and rider are shown in competition for this honor. Foremost among expositions of its kind in the world, the stock show yearly attracts thousands of farmers from every state in the Union and neighboring Canada.