DWIGHT MAHONEY MARRIES

At a beautiful wedding service Sunday morning at 9 o'clock in the Presbyterian church, Miss Mollie Laing, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. W. R. Laing, became the bride of Dwight Mahoney, son of Mr. and Mrs. D. C. Mahoney, with Rev. R. Murray Jones reading the service.

The bride, who was given in marriage by her father, wore an attractive floor length gown of white moire with short tunic jacket and large bouffant sleeves. She wore a wreath of white rosebuds in her hair and her corsage bouquet was of pink rosebuds and lilies of the valley.

Miss Annie Laing, maid of honor wore a floor length frock of rose crepe with silver embroidered tunic. Her corsage bouquet was of pink rosebuds and Bouvardia. Guy Tucker of Salem was best man.

Preceding the ceremony, Miss Frances Robertson, accompanied by Mrs. Harry Brawn at the organ, sang "At Dawning" and "Because." The altar was most attractive decorated with huge white chrysanthemums, palms and candelabra with white tapers.

Following the ceremony a wedding breakfast for those in the bridal party and members of both families was held at the home of the groom's family, 812 West Alta St. A large wedding cake with miniature bride and groom was a feature.

Mr. and Mrs. Mahoney left for a week's wedding trip to Portland, after which they will make their home in Pendleton.
