OREGON STATE NEWS OF GENERAL INTEREST

Brief Resume of Happenings of the Week Collected for Our Readers

Coquille—Coos county firemen, meeting for the first time since Bandon burned on September 26, fixed the total loss in the conflagration at $1,500,000.

Corvallis—A gain of 53 per cent. in total value of building permits issued here over the 1935 figure was announced last week by the assistant city engineer, Charles Willey.

Ashland—The chamber of commerce has opened a contest for a name for the city's "boulevard." The contest will close midnight of December 31. Five dollars are offered the winner.

Tillamook—Dedication of the new Liberty playshed was held last week. Frank B. Bennett, city superintendent; Claud Barrick, chairman of Liberty school board, and Vern Higbee, principal, were speakers.

Klamath Falls—Birds eggs, possibly a century old, were discovered in the trunk of a large fir tree by loggers last week. The loggers, topping the tree, noticed a fault which they traced to a cavity where the nest and its seven occupants were hidden.

The Dalles—Just twenty years ago Oregon had the same sort of dry spell as this year's, said Charles McOlliget, Condon wheat rancher, and at that time he practically gave up all hope for his fall wheat crop. Warm rains came along, however, and by July his wheat was waist high.

Bend—Two road contracts, one calling for construction of a new route for the Ochoco highway near Prineville and the other a 13-mile unit on the Central Oregon highway west of Burns, are under way. Subsurfacing on the new route of The Dalles-California highway between Bend and Redmond has been completed.

Enterprise—A shipment of 3,000,000 eastern brook trout eggs arrived at the large salmon hatchery here operated by the state fish commission. The trout eggs came from the game commission, indicating that the local hatchery will be used for hatching game fish, even if the plant has not been bought by the game commission.

Wheeler—Prospects are favorable for a county organization whereby the mutual interests of fish and game propagation may be promoted by a common unit, according to Robert Cronen of the Sunset Fish company. Rod and gun clubs in the area have been contacted and have given indications they are willing to attend preliminary meetings.

Eugene—More than 70 per cent. of the students enrolled in the six Oregon state institutions of higher education earn part or all the expense of their college education. The figures were embodied in a report released from the office of the chancellor of the system. Those earning their way completely represent 29 per cent. of the total.

COURTHOUSE ASSURED

Hood River—Through acquisition of the former Butler bank building for $15,000, Hood River county has the nucleus of a county court building which will, it is estimated, fill all requirements during the life of any of the present residents of this county. The property was valued at $10,000 some ten years ago when the building was erected at a cost of $100,000.

Since Hood River became a county, all official business has been transacted in an old frame building, part of which was the first school in this city.

EDITORS NAME DATES

Eugene—Oregon newspaper men will gather at the University of Oregon school of journalism January 21, 22 and 23 for the annual Oregon Newspaper conference. A program which will include an unusually wide variety of problems and policies has been promised by Eric W. Allen, dean of the school of journalism. Highlighting the session will be the presentation of the Sigma Delta Chi cup, awarded annually to the best weekly paper in the state, and of the Hal E. Hoss memorial trophy, which goes to the best weekly published in towns under 1000 population.

Guest speakers already listed include Paul C. Smith, executive editor, San Francisco Chronicle; Charles M. Sprague, editor, the Salem Statesman; Herb Gray, Medford Mail-Tribune, who will preside at the advertising managers' session, and Lars M. Bladine, publisher, McMinnville Telephone-Register, who is president of the conference.

Astoria—Heavy catches of silver-side salmon in the Columbia have kept local fish canneries operating steadily for some time. A large pack of river silvers is expected after the fresh-fish market failed to absorb the unusually heavy receipts.

Newberg—An expected 25 per cent. increase in Christmas business over the 1935 holiday season is the opinion of a number of local merchants. Prospects are, in fact, for the best holiday trade since 1929 and may even top that year's sales.

Simple, Elegant, Practical

TIME and Sew-Your-Own fashions march on. Today's trio have the simplicity, elegance and practicality so vital to the up-to-the-minute well-groomed woman—and so within reach of the modern, progressive members of The Sewing Circle.

Pattern 1812—Little Miss Two-To - Five can manage her own dressing with the aid of this frock that buttons down the front. She will be the picture of daintiness too, with such clever aids as princess lines, puff sleeves and an intriguing little collar. The one piece step-in is the essence of practicality—a great boon to the youngster's comfort. This ensemble is available in sizes 2, 3, 4 and 5 years. Size 3 requires 2 3/4 yards of 35 or 39 inch fabric and 3/4 yard contrasting.

Pattern 1998—This new dress "belongs" in almost any company. Its great simplicity will endure it to homemakers, and business women alike. It is a combination of charm, good lines and youthfulness. You'll want two versions of this style — one with short sleeves, the other with long. Pique, silk crepe or velveteen will serve nicely as the material. It is available in sizes 34, 36, 38, 40, 42, 44 and 46. Size 36 requires 4 1/2 yards of 35 inch material, with long sleeves 4 3/4 yards.

Pattern 1938—Daytime distinction takes on a new meaning in this super-styled frock. The squared shoulders, swing skirt and peplum fullness are the important details which give it such perfectly balanced finesse. Yet not one part of it is difficult to cut or to sew. This is a dress which is adequate for every occasion—save the strictly formal.

Available for sizes 14 to 20 (32 to 42 bust). Size 16 requires 4 1/2 yards of 39 inch material. The collar, jabot and belt in contrast take 3/4 yard.

Speech on a Match

On a match received in Vienna by M. Goemoes, premier of Hungary, is the full text of his speech outlining a plan for national employment. The speech contained 1,170 words, and an admirer in Saigo Tarjan wrote it on the match. He used a special hard-steel pen and a strong magnifying glass. The task, he said, took several months to complete.

Don't miss these grand numbers. A detailed sewing chart accompanies each pattern to guide you every step of the way.

WOMEN WHO HOLD THEIR MEN NEVER LET THEM KNOW

NO matter how much your back aches and your nerves scream, your husband, because he is only a man, can never understand why you are so hard to live with one week in every month.

Too often the honeymoon express is wrecked by the nagging tongue of a three-quarter wife. The wise woman never lets her husband know by outward sign that she is a victim of periotic pain. For three generations one woman has told another how to go "smiling through" with Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound. It helps Nature tone up the system, thus lessening the discomforts from the functional disorders which women must endure in the three decades of life: 1. Turning from girlhood to womanhood. 2. Preparing for motherhood. 3. Approaching "middle age."

Don't be a three-quarter wife; take LYDIA E. PINKHAM'S VEGETABLE COMPOUND and Go "Smiling Through."
