Workmen Toil Against Time and the Father of Waters

Workmen are pictured building up the Mississippi river levee at Cairo, Ill., in an effort to stem the rising waters. The most disastrous flood in the history of the father of waters cost hundreds of lives, rendered more than a million people homeless and caused hundreds of millions of dollars worth of damage.

HE CAN TAKE IT!

This youngster found a temporary home in a box car when the Mississippi river flood drove him from his own home. He took flood discomfort in his stride. One thing that may account for his obvious high spirits was the fact that water shortage eliminated his Saturday night bath and the daily scrubbing behind the ears. It was estimated that more than 1,000,000 people in the Ohio and Mississippi valleys were rendered homeless by the flood. The known dead were estimated in excess of 400. Contributions by citizens everywhere to the special relief fund of the Red Cross were more than $17,000,000. The storm's damage was estimated at close to a billion dollars.

FLED RIVER'S WRATH
