

Local Happenings

Math Weis of La Grande, Ore., is visiting this week at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Chas. Clark.

Miss Frances Clinton, county home demonstration agent, was a business visitor from Pendleton this morning.

Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Shaar and Mr. and Mrs. Hugh Neill motored to Walla Walla Sunday on business.

Mr. and Mrs. Paul Conrad of Heppner arrived Wednesday and are living on the Dunham place.

Mrs. L. S. Burrell spent the week end in Portland visiting relatives.

Straw sun hats at Amsberry's adv.

Mr. and Mrs. M. J. Miller and son of Pasco, Wn., visited Sunday with Mrs. Miller's mother, Mrs. Shumate.

Mr. and Mrs. Antone Soneson and Miss Ada Soneson accompanied Mrs. O. O. Felthouse to Pendleton Tuesday on business.

Mrs. Grace Tyler, Mrs. J. A. Howell of Boardman, and Claude White of Lexington were Hermiston business visitors this week.

F. H. Depperman of Butter Creek and W. S. Campbell of Holdman were business visitors in town this week.

Henry Paxton of Alice, Ore., stopped in Hermiston Wednesday while on a business trip to Milton. He is the son of Mr. and Mrs. John Paxton, former residents of Columbia district.

OASIS THEATRE HERMISTON, OREGON

Friday - Saturday
MARCH 19 - 20
DOUBLE FEATURE!

Anne Shirley - Herbert Marshall

in
MAKE WAY FOR A LADY

PLUS SHORTS

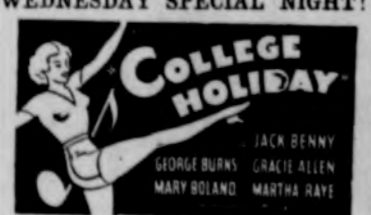

SUNDAY - MONDAY
MARCH 21 - 22
MATINEE 2:30 SUNDAY

WALTER WANGER... presents

Color Cartoon—Blind Musketeers
Last Chapter—Flash Gordon.

Wednesday - Thursday
MARCH 24 - 25
WEDNESDAY SPECIAL NIGHT!

PLUS SHORTS

Mr. and Mrs. Carl Rhea of Stanfield and La Vern Null were Sunday dinner guests of Miss Norma Davis.

Don Campbell of Portland visited his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Thos. Campbell, here Sunday.

Richard Faszholtz of Seattle spent the week end at the home of Mr. and Mrs. J. R. Harding in Westland district.

Donald Serell arrived home Wednesday night to spend the spring vacation with his parents. He is a student at U. of O.

Joe Hawkins of Adams was a business visitor in town Thursday.

Mrs. Orvill Dawson returned Sunday from St. Anthony's hospital in Pendleton where she underwent an operation four weeks ago. She is reported as getting along nicely.

Bill Honey of Tillamook, Ore., is the house guest of his sister, Mrs. Frank O'Neill this week, while enjoying spring vacation. He is a senior in high school.

Miss Margaret Felthouse and Lawrence Swarner, students of Oregon State college, are spending spring vacation with their parents here.

Mr. and Mrs. A. F. Rohman, son Adolph, and Mrs. Al Quiring motored to Spokane Tuesday of this week on business.

Mrs. A. L. Carter spent the week visiting her sister and daughter in Salem and Portland.

Mrs. R. E. Cox of Lyle, Wn., is visiting Mr. and Mrs. Kenneth Pierson.

A community party is planned at Irigoin Saturday, March 20th, at which time cards, games and dancing will be enjoyed. The ladies are asked to bring cake or sandwiches.

The Misses Helen and Eunice Woughter left Thursday afternoon for Portland.

Large stock of Easter candies, reasonably priced at Amsberry's, ad

Mrs. Ina Wessell and daughter Barbara left Thursday morning for Rufus, Ore., where they will visit Mrs. Chas. Hoggar, for the next three days. They operate the Hunter's Cafe here.

New spring gloves in modern styles in shades of white, blue, black and beige, 50c to 89c. The Style Shop.

Adrian Lovering was honored at a farewell party last Tuesday evening at the Kenneth Pierson home. An enjoyable evening was spent by a large group of young people.

Miss Shirley Brownson, who teaches in the Pendleton high school, visited her parents, Mr. and Mrs. R. A. Brownson over the week end.

Mr. and Mrs. Fred Wornstrom are the parents of a baby daughter born March 9th at the Hermiston General hospital. She has been named Georgia Maxine.

Sloan Spencer of Stanfield left Saturday for Yakima, Wn., where he has employment. Mrs. Spencer and baby will leave the latter part of the week to join him.

Mrs. O. C. Pierce and son Stanley accompanied Mr. and Mrs. Raymond Elliott of Pendleton to Portland last Friday where they visited relatives until Monday when they returned home.

Miss Carle Nelson, who is in charge of the obstetrical department at the Portland Sanitarium, and Miss Edith Starbuck of Portland, visited with Mrs. Alton Kingsbury at the Hermiston General hospital Wednesday.

Fred Rankin, student at O. S. C. is home for the spring vacation visiting his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Harold Rankin.

Miss Betty Ralph, senior in home economics at Oregon State college, arrived Wednesday morning to spend the spring vacation with her mother, Mrs. Mabel Ralph. Edward Schofield, small son of Mr. and Mrs. E. Schofield of Vancouver, Wn., accompanied her and will visit his grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. W. J. Warner.

Mr. and Mrs. C. M. Jackson entertained Wednesday night at the first of a series of three dinner parties at their country home in Minnehaha district at which time three tables of bridge were in play. Green candelabra and shamrock favors portrayed St. Patrick's day motif. Eight honors were won by Mr. and Mrs. Walter Smith.

Mr. and Mrs. R. C. McReynolds and Mr. and Mrs. W. L. Pearson entertained jointly at two dinner parties early this week at which they carried out the Easter motif. Bowls of bright daffodils were used to add to the color of Mrs. Pearson's home as guests assembled for the evening both Sunday and Monday. Six tables of bridge were in play Sunday night at which time Dr. and Mrs. W. L. Morgan won high honors. Five tables were in play Sunday night with Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Richards winning high honors. Mr. and Mrs. Frank Morgan of Pendleton were out-of-town guests Sunday evening.

Floyd Bilyeu, field director for the WPA in this district, with headquarters in Portland, was a business visitor in Hermiston Wednesday. He was pleased with the progress of work on the Hermiston Community park in which project he is particularly interested.

Mr. and Mrs. Harry McKenty left Saturday of last week for Orland, Cal., where they will make their home for the present. They have leased their farm in Minnehaha district for a year.

Miss Barbara Wessell motored to Walla Walla Saturday on business, and was accompanied home by the Misses Alice Dunn and Gladys Driscoll who spent Sunday visiting friends here. The two girls are students at the Mormon Beauty school in Walla Walla.

Miss Margaret Hedwall and Miss Emogene Paul motored to The Dalles Sunday where they visited Miss Snow McCoy who is recuperating following an operation. Miss McCoy left the hospital Saturday and is at the home of her sister.

Carl Brown was returned to St. Anthony's hospital in Pendleton early this week. He underwent an operation several weeks ago and had returned to his home here.

Mr. and Mrs. J. M. Pearson motored to coast points over the week end on a business trip.

Dr. H. C. Curry, the Seattle optometrist who has made professional visits to Hermiston for 25 years and is known for good optical work at reasonable prices, will again be at the Hermiston Hotel Thursday, Mar. 25, for one day. Eyes examined. Glasses ground and fitted. adv.

Art Farance, who has been employed by the Oregon Hardware & Implement company store since last July, left Tuesday for Walla Walla where he has taken a position with the Amery & Son hardware company. He will act in the capacity of field man.

Miss Helen Jendrzewski, who is a student at Oregon State college, arrived Sunday morning to spend the spring vacation week with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. John Jendrzewski, in Columbia district. Walter Jendrzewski arrived home Wednesday.

Joint hosts at two dinner parties last week were Mr. and Mrs. H. T. Fraser and Mr. and Mrs. E. D. Martin when they entertained at the Martin home Wednesday and Thursday evenings. High honors were won by Mr. and Mrs. N. G. Robertson and Mr. and Mrs. W. G. Kersbergen.

Herbert Hedwall, manager of the Safeway Store, and Mrs. Hedwall, and Bruce Robinson attended a meeting of the Safeway employees association at Walla Walla Wednesday night which was in the form of a dinner at the Grande Hotel.

Mrs. Ralph Richards returned Sunday from Bucoda, Wn., where she has been for several weeks with her son Ralph, Jr., who underwent an operation for mastoid. She reports that he is getting along as well as can be expected at this time.

Mr. and Mrs. John Jendrzewski report that the turkey hens are laying sufficient eggs to enable them to set an incubator of 500 egg capacity by Friday of this week. The Neil Boynton flock dropped 60 eggs Monday and incubators will be set soon.

Mr. and Mrs. C. M. Jackson entertained Wednesday night at the first of a series of three dinner parties at their country home in Minnehaha district at which time three tables of bridge were in play. Green candelabra and shamrock favors portrayed St. Patrick's day motif. Eight honors were won by Mr. and Mrs. Walter Smith.

Mr. and Mrs. R. C. McReynolds and Mr. and Mrs. W. L. Pearson entertained jointly at two dinner parties early this week at which they carried out the Easter motif. Bowls of bright daffodils were used to add to the color of Mrs. Pearson's home as guests assembled for the evening both Sunday and Monday. Six tables of bridge were in play Sunday night at which time Dr. and Mrs. W. L. Morgan won high honors. Five tables were in play Sunday night with Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Richards winning high honors. Mr. and Mrs. Frank Morgan of Pendleton were out-of-town guests Sunday evening.

Floyd Bilyeu, field director for the WPA in this district, with headquarters in Portland, was a business visitor in Hermiston Wednesday. He was pleased with the progress of work on the Hermiston Community park in which project he is particularly interested.

Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Luttrell returned last week from a ten weeks' trip to Tacoma, Wn., where they visited their daughter and family, Dr. and Mrs. D. C. Fisher, and in Portland and Waldport. At Waldport they saw a niece and nephew, Mr. and Mrs. C. Snively. Dr. and Mrs. Fisher are returning this week from a visit in Honolulu where they spent a month with friends.

All Easter goods at Amsberry's adv.

Miss Edith Harkenrider left Wednesday morning for Bucoda, Wn., where she will visit her sister Mrs. R. H. O'Neill for the next week. She has been at the home of her sister, Mrs. Ralph Richards here for some time while her sister was with her son Ralph, Jr., in Bucoda. She will return to her home in Estacada after visiting in Bucoda.

The Wool Growers Auxiliary gave a benefit card party at the Odd Fellows' hall in Echo Monday evening, which was well attended by members and friends from Hermiston, Stanfield and Echo. Light refreshments were served followed by card playing. Prizes were awarded for five hundred, contract bridge and pinochle. The evening closed with the sale of a cake baked by Mrs. Sion Thomson which brought the record price of $12, going to M. Revem of Stanfield.

Mrs. Geo. Harkenrider and Mrs. Curtis Simons were joint hostesses at

Mrs. Howard E. Petit of Oregon City is the house guest of her aunt Mrs. C. E. Baker and her mother, Mrs. Georgia Henderson. She arrived Monday night and plans to spend the week.

Members of the Legion Post and American Legion Auxiliary held a joint pot luck dinner Monday night at the Legion hall with a good attendance. A musical program was enjoyed.

Clement Stockard, student in pharmacy at O. S. C., arrived Tuesday afternoon to spend the week with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. R. H. Stockard.

Mr. and Mrs. Harry McKenty left Saturday of last week for Orland, Cal., where they will make their home for the present. They have leased their farm in Minnehaha district for a year.

Miss Barbara Wessell motored to Walla Walla Saturday on business, and was accompanied home by the Misses Alice Dunn and Gladys Driscoll who spent Sunday visiting friends here. The two girls are students at the Mormon Beauty school in Walla Walla.

Miss Margaret Hedwall and Miss Emogene Paul motored to The Dalles Sunday where they visited Miss Snow McCoy who is recuperating following an operation. Miss McCoy left the hospital Saturday and is at the home of her sister.

Carl Brown was returned to St. Anthony's hospital in Pendleton early this week. He underwent an operation several weeks ago and had returned to his home here.

Mr. and Mrs. J. M. Pearson motored to coast points over the week end on a business trip.

Dr. H. C. Curry, the Seattle optometrist who has made professional visits to Hermiston for 25 years and is known for good optical work at reasonable prices, will again be at the Hermiston Hotel Thursday, Mar. 25, for one day. Eyes examined. Glasses ground and fitted. adv.

Art Farance, who has been employed by the Oregon Hardware & Implement company store since last July, left Tuesday for Walla Walla where he has taken a position with the Amery & Son hardware company. He will act in the capacity of field man.

Miss Helen Jendrzewski, who is a student at Oregon State college, arrived Sunday morning to spend the spring vacation week with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. John Jendrzewski, in Columbia district. Walter Jendrzewski arrived home Wednesday.

Joint hosts at two dinner parties last week were Mr. and Mrs. H. T. Fraser and Mr. and Mrs. E. D. Martin when they entertained at the Martin home Wednesday and Thursday evenings. High honors were won by Mr. and Mrs. N. G. Robertson and Mr. and Mrs. W. G. Kersbergen.

Herbert Hedwall, manager of the Safeway Store, and Mrs. Hedwall, and Bruce Robinson attended a meeting of the Safeway employees association at Walla Walla Wednesday night which was in the form of a dinner at the Grande Hotel.

Mrs. Ralph Richards returned Sunday from Bucoda, Wn., where she has been for several weeks with her son Ralph, Jr., who underwent an operation for mastoid. She reports that he is getting along as well as can be expected at this time.

Mr. and Mrs. John Jendrzewski report that the turkey hens are laying sufficient eggs to enable them to set an incubator of 500 egg capacity by Friday of this week. The Neil Boynton flock dropped 60 eggs Monday and incubators will be set soon.

Mr. and Mrs. C. M. Jackson entertained Wednesday night at the first of a series of three dinner parties at their country home in Minnehaha district at which time three tables of bridge were in play. Green candelabra and shamrock favors portrayed St. Patrick's day motif. Eight honors were won by Mr. and Mrs. Walter Smith.

Mr. and Mrs. R. C. McReynolds and Mr. and Mrs. W. L. Pearson entertained jointly at two dinner parties early this week at which they carried out the Easter motif. Bowls of bright daffodils were used to add to the color of Mrs. Pearson's home as guests assembled for the evening both Sunday and Monday. Six tables of bridge were in play Sunday night at which time Dr. and Mrs. W. L. Morgan won high honors. Five tables were in play Sunday night with Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Richards winning high honors. Mr. and Mrs. Frank Morgan of Pendleton were out-of-town guests Sunday evening.

Floyd Bilyeu, field director for the WPA in this district, with headquarters in Portland, was a business visitor in Hermiston Wednesday. He was pleased with the progress of work on the Hermiston Community park in which project he is particularly interested.

Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Luttrell returned last week from a ten weeks' trip to Tacoma, Wn., where they visited their daughter and family, Dr. and Mrs. D. C. Fisher, and in Portland and Waldport. At Waldport they saw a niece and nephew, Mr. and Mrs. C. Snively. Dr. and Mrs. Fisher are returning this week from a visit in Honolulu where they spent a month with friends.

All Easter goods at Amsberry's adv.

Miss Edith Harkenrider left Wednesday morning for Bucoda, Wn., where she will visit her sister Mrs. R. H. O'Neill for the next week. She has been at the home of her sister, Mrs. Ralph Richards here for some time while her sister was with her son Ralph, Jr., in Bucoda. She will return to her home in Estacada after visiting in Bucoda.

The Wool Growers Auxiliary gave a benefit card party at the Odd Fellows' hall in Echo Monday evening, which was well attended by members and friends from Hermiston, Stanfield and Echo. Light refreshments were served followed by card playing. Prizes were awarded for five hundred, contract bridge and pinochle. The evening closed with the sale of a cake baked by Mrs. Sion Thomson which brought the record price of $12, going to M. Revem of Stanfield.

Mrs. Geo. Harkenrider and Mrs. Curtis Simons were joint hostesses at two bridge luncheons this week, one on Tuesday and one on Wednesday at the home of Mrs. Harkenrider. The St. Patrick's day motif was prevalent with bowls of daffodils adding color. High honors were won by Mrs. Roy Hale and Mrs. James Todd, and second high by Mrs. F. B. Swayze and Mrs. K. M. Mayer.

Have you paid your park dues?

The J. L. Putnam family were agreeably surprised Sunday morning when a carload of relatives and friends arrived from Bend, Ore., to spend the day with them. Mr. Putnam's mother, Mrs. E. M. Putnam, a nephew John Putnam, also two nieces, Mrs. Helen Steen and Mrs. Ruth Hudson, and small daughter Gayle, were in the group. Accompanying them were Miss Rosa Hoback and Don Nettleton, and Mr. Putnam's brother and wife, Mr. and Mrs. V. E. Putnam of Walla Walla. Other dinner guests were Mr. and Mrs. H. G. Lake and Mr. and Mrs. J. P. Morse.

Weather Report.

Date	Max.	Min.
March 11	67	38
March 12	64	42
March 13	57	42
March 14	56	36
March 15	57	31
March 16	61	40
March 17	56	33

Precipitation was .22.

Let your friendly money-saving Safeway start to save you money on all your food purchases—NOW! You'll be delighted with the quality and economy we have worked to perfect for 21 years. Prices Effective Friday, Saturday and Monday, March 19th, 20th & 22d.

TANG
Salad Dressing
Quart 31c
Jar

CORN
Farmers' Golden Bantam
2 No. 2 25c
Cans

SYRUP
Sleepy Hollow
Pure Cane & Maple
1/2 Gal. 69c
Jug

EASTER EGGS
Chocolate Covered
Carton (Dozen) 10c

KITCHEN CRAFT FLOUR
Strictly Top-Grade in Every Respect. Guaranteed Equal to the finest brands on the market or money refunded.

24 1/2 Lb. Bag 98c
49 Lb. Bag $1.89

HARVEST BLOSSOM 49 lb. bag $1.39
All Purpose Family Flour

PANCAKE FLOUR, Maximum 40 oz. pkg. .. 19c

PAAS, EASTER EGG DYES, package 10c

CLOTHES PINS, Spring type, 18 for 9c

LIGHT GLOBES, G.E. 30 & 60 Watt, Ea. 10c

O'CEDAR POLISH, 4 oz. size 23c

TOOTH PICKS, Diamond, large box 9c

CODFISH, Rofico Boneless, lb. pkg. 23c

CORN MEAL, White or Yellow, 9.8 lb. bag 39c

SKOVBO'S HONEY, 10 lb. pail 93c

AMMONIA, Western Maid, 12 oz. bottle 7c

BLUING, Our Choice, 12 oz. bottle 7c

Shredded Wheat 10c
KELLOGG'S — 15 Biscuits

CRACKERS 2 Lb. Box 28c
Krispies, Snowflakes or Grahams.

ONION SETS LB. 10c
Brown Type

HAMS for Easter GET YOURS NOW! Swift's Premium 1/4 or Whole Pound 29c

SALMON Fancy Pink Tall Can 10c Doz. Cans $1.18

OLD DUTCH CLEANSER "Chases Dirt" 4 Cans 25c

CATSUP Ruby Brand 2 12 ounce Bottles 19c

OVALTINE The Food Beverage Large Can 59c

TYPEWRITERS OVERHAULED REPAIRED

Call Hermiston Herald Phone 51

Plenty of Local Reference E. A. ROWAN

MARCH- AND FULL SPEED AHEAD

from our opening date
Friday, March 19th, 1937.

CAFE AND REFRESHMENT
TO ALL OUR PATRONS THE BEST IN

O'CONNOR'S SERVICE COURTESY

--- COME IN AND GET ACQUAINTED ---

Safeway