New Hop Grower.

"Dad" Sutton has been employed as foreman of the Dixon hop yards. He has had 25 years of experience in hop growing in the Willamette valley and other places and is enthusiastic over the showing of hops in this locality. He says the vines are stronger and the production heavier here than any place where he has operated. The Dixon yard now has 23 acres of growing vines and the poles are all set. Mr. Sutton is introducing new methods of planting and more rapid ways of fastening the strings. Work on the drier will be commenced in the near future.

LILY PONS IN 'THAT GIRL FROM PARIS'

It isn't every girl who can jilt her fiancé and find four beaux to take his place. Lily Pons, attractive little French prima donna, does exactly this in the new gay musical comedy, "That Girl from Paris," showing Sunday, Monday and Tuesday at the Oasis theatre, with Gene Raymond and Jack Oakie in the other stellar parts.
