CLASS HISTORY

(From the Bulldog)
The history of the '37 graduating class dates back exactly twelve years, when in a class of about 20, with Miss Gould as the class teacher, five of the present members of the class started to school in Hermiston. These five members were Hugo Pankow, Irene Kennings, Dorothy Knerr, Roberta Mullins and Bonnie Jean Follett.
The same year at Columbia grade school Bernard Jendrzejewski, Jim Stuart and Otha Whitsett started to school.
During the grade school life, the class roll was increased by Vivian Dyer, Helen Dunning, Rosemary Serell, Floyd Coxen, Darrel Seeliger, Floy Attebury, Edith Peterson, Margaret Clarke and Wayne Power.
During our freshman year several students entered from Columbia school in the persons of Bernard Jendrzejewski, Jim Stuart, Otha Whitsett and Opal Stockard. Bill Harris, Joyce Sater, Ernest Rainwater were also from outside schools. Williams Crampton and Gene Moore entered as sophomores and Forrest Putnam, Mary Burnham, Frank and Guy Jeppe, entered during the senior year.
Other students who have taken an active part in class affairs during the high school years are Beverly Allen, Lyle Anderson, Verda Conley, Dorothy Conrad, John Conrad, Eleanor Corey, Mary Doherty, Frank Furrer, Frances Keller, Esther Kalkala, Bonnie Lamberson, Wayne

Lindner, Mary McGonigle, Gladys McKenzie, Don Parker, LaVelle Stephenson, Victor Willcutt, Josephine Moyer, Marie Stephenson, Erma Thornburg, Maxine Mackan, Jack Isaacson, Robert Gardiner, Clarence Myers, Edith Null, Charlotte See and Lucille Shaw.
Considering the class officers and advisers for the various years we find that during the freshman year Margaret Clarke was president, Helen Dunning, vice president, Opal Stockard, secretary, Roberta Mullins, treasurer, and R. H. McAtee, as adviser.
During the sophomore year Bernard Jendrzejewski was president, Rosemary Serell, vice president, Bonnie Lamberson, secretary-treasurer, Jim Stuart, sergeant-at-arms, and Hal Hatton, adviser.
Bill Harris was president of the class during the junior year, Ernest Rainwater, vice president, Bonnie Lamberson, secretary-treasurer, and Hal Hatton as adviser. Bonnie moved during the school year and the vacancy was filled by Rosemary Serell.
The class was headed during the senior year by Opal Stockard as president, Bernard Jendrzejewski, vice president, Floy Attebury, secretary, Irene Kennings, treasurer, and Miss Ruth Morrison, adviser.
The class of '37 is about to complete four years of a very successful and happy high school life. During the last four years they have made an outstanding athletic and scholastic record and have contributed to the welfare of the school. During the coming years the class is aiming high for success in achieving as much happiness as they have had in Hermiston high.

Build with LUMBER..

A Lifetime of security at amazingly little cost

THE PROGRESSIVE UNION PACIFIC RAILROAD

SHIP AND RIDE UNION PACIFIC

Thousands of American families are today realizing their hopes for better homes. There is nothing like lumber for solid comfort in house building. It is durable, easy to handle and inexpensive.

When the Union Pacific was under construction seventy years ago, lumber was scarce in mid-continent America. Methods of logging were tedious and wasteful. Transportation was difficult.

Today, modern methods of logging and lumber manufacture, coupled with fast, dependable railroad transportation, make the choicest lumber available in all markets of America at amazingly low prices. In a frame house of average size the cost of the lumber is only about 15% of the total construction expense—and this includes freight charges to average destinations.

Union Pacific has played a leading part in development of the lumber industry. Steadily through the years, it has bettered its schedules, improved its equipment, to facilitate fast, low cost, dependable delivery of this important commodity. It has recently added 4,500 specially designed cars to its lumber fleet. Progressive steps in pace with a progressive industry.

For better homes—at minimum cost—consult your local lumber dealer.
