

New Streamliner Speeds British Train Travel

Specially constructed to make the London to Glasgow journey in six and a half hours, the London Midland and Scottish railway's new streamlined train, the Coronation, has set a new speed record for British travel. The high-speed express is shown getting into its stride near Watford, England, on a recent test run.

FALSELY IMPRISONED

Ernest Mattice, thirty-three-year-old candy salesman of Denver who was freed after serving six months of two sentences of life imprisonment for the kidnaping and assault of Mrs. Margaret Cykosz, twenty-two-year-old waitress. Gov. Teller Ammons of Colorado signed the pardon after Frank Neill, twenty-six years old, and Arthur Parker, twenty-one years old, confessed to the assault charge. They denied the charge of kidnaping.

"Puppy Love" Uncovers Old Art

Forgotten pictures, gathering dust for years in an old attic, brought the hope of new life to Mrs. Alida Clark, seventy-nine years old, of Maywood, Ill., a suburb of Chicago. She swapped one of the pictures with Arthur Lloyd, Jr., of Oak Park, an antique dealer, for a cocker spaniel, shown in the picture here. When the dealer cleaned it up he was told by an art authority that it was the work of an old French master, Jean Baptiste Greuze.

Dr. Ward Elected Head of Osteopaths

Dr. Edward A. Ward (right), of Saginaw, Mich., was elected president of the American Osteopathic association representing 10,000 physicians, surgeons and specialists at the association's annual convention in Chicago recently. With him is Dr. Arthur E. Allen (left), of Minneapolis, Minn., who was chosen president-elect, to take office at the 1938 convention, which will be held about mid-year. The office of president-elect is a new one.

Soviets Establish Post on Top of the World

This photograph, brought back by returning members of the Soviet aerial expedition to the North pole, shows the camp established at the pole by the expedition. Parts of the planes, first to land on top of the world, may be seen in background. Four members of the expedition will remain at the pole for a year, studying conditions and atmospheric phenomena. It is planned to establish a base there for a regular Soviet air service between Moscow and the United States.

Buy Gift Only If You Want to and Are Able

DEAR Mrs. Post: Does an invitation to the wedding reception or to the wedding at the house always necessitate sending a present to the bride? I know it is a rule but I wondered just how hard and fast it was. The question of buying presents constantly is becoming a serious handicap to our already rather strained income. In some cases we hardly know the bride and groom and in others we don't know the young people at all.

Answer: The giving of presents is much more a matter of personal feeling, and of your ability to buy them, than of rule. Although it is always rather expected that you send a present when you accept an invitation to the house, this is really not an obligation to the extent of preventing one who can not afford to send a present, from going to the wedding. On the other hand, if the bride (or groom) is a personal friend or their families are very intimate friends you would certainly try to send a present even though her wedding was so small that you could not be invited.

He Should Escort Girl Home If Hour Is Late

DEAR Mrs. Post: How should a girl answer a man when he asks whether he might send her home alone in a cab instead of going home with her? This happened to me when I spent the evening recently with a friend and his family at their house.

Answer: I think the only answer you could make is, "Don't think of coming." Of course, if the hour were late, then someone should have gone with you.

When Not to Tip

DEAR Mrs. Post: I have gone for years to a very expensive hair-dressing establishment and have always left a tip for those who take care of me. In discussing the question with a friend, she believes that their prices are exorbitant enough so that no tip is necessary. To substantiate her side of the argument she gave me for example some of the better restaurants in which no tips are expected.

Answer: Unless the restaurant or the hairdressers have signs plainly explaining that no tipping is permitted, you would be expected to tip at the usual rates. And unless your total bill is very high your percentage would, if anything, be slightly higher than in similar places having cheaper rates.

Use of Monograms

DEAR Mrs. Post: What is the proper arrangement of initials in a monogram? I am thinking now of the monogram that has a taller initial in the center. Also, is a monogram ever carried out on the envelopes, and if not, may a return address be put on the flaps of envelopes to be used with paper marked with a monogram?

Answer: When the initial in the center is larger it is always the initial of the surname. It is proper, if you like it, to have the address stamped on the flap of the envelope for paper marked with a monogram, although strictly speaking formal notes are sent without any return address. Paper marked with a monogram is more formal than paper stamped with an address but of course you can use it for any personal letters.

Women in Night Clubs

DEAR Mrs. Post: I was much interested in your article in which you said that women should not go to a night club unaccompanied by a man. Won't you please tell me whether this also applies to the early dinner hour? I sometimes go to New York accompanied by my mother, or other older woman relative, and instead of having dinner in a quiet restaurant we like to go to one that has Broadway atmosphere with music and show.

Answer: A young woman dining no matter where and staying for awhile with her mother or other older woman relative is quite a different situation from that of two young women going late to a night club without a man!

Use Logical Form

DEAR Mrs. Post: Is there a proper answer to make when someone expresses thanks for a birthday card or other slight remembrance? If I say, "I'm glad you liked it," then I feel that I am assuming they liked the card when all the person may have said was "Thank you." I always find the situation awkward and wonder whether there is some suitable reply to be used at such times.

Answer: If they admire the card or think it amusing, then you say, "I'm glad you like it," and if they merely thank you for having sent it then you say, "You're very welcome."

AROUND the HOUSE

Items of Interest to the Housewife

Browning Biscuits.—Biscuits can be given rich brown tops by brushing the tops with a pastry brush dipped in milk before placing them in the oven.

Storing Brown Sugar.—Brown sugar will not become lumpy if stored in an airtight jar.

Turnips Au Gratin.—For this tasty dish half-cook turnips in boiling salted water, then cut into fairly thin slices and drain well. Arrange in layers in a buttered fireproof dish, and cover each layer of turnip with grated cheese, a seasoning of pepper, and some little dabs of butter. The last layers should consist of breadcrumbs sprinkled with grated cheese and dotted with butter. Bake in a moderate oven until well browned.

When Drawers Stick.—Black lead or black lead pencil rubbed on the edges of a drawer which has become swollen from heat will enable it to be opened and shut quite easily.

Heating the Oven.—Open the oven door for a minute soon after the gas has been lit and you will find that the oven will get hot much quicker. By doing so you let out the moisture that always collects when the oven is not in use.

Meat Pinwheels.—Biscuit dough, left-over meat chopped with onion, carrot and parsley. Spiced tomato gravy. Make your favorite biscuit dough and roll out fairly thick. Spread the meat mixture over the surface, leaving an inch margin of dough uncovered. Then roll up dough and meat together, and slice off pinwheels. Grease a shallow pan and lay in the pinwheels. Bake in moderately hot oven until done, about 30 minutes.

Disagreeable Odor.—The smell of new paint has a very bad effect on some people. To minimize it, fill a pail of water and sprinkle in it some hay and one or two onions, freshly sliced. Stand this in a room newly painted, and much of the smell will be neutralized.

Cooking Cabbage.—Cabbage should be cooked only until tender when tested with a fork. Too much cooking results in changed color and an indigestible product.
