the economic life of an agricultural population than one that helps produce the daily and annual incomes and improves the business acumen of the farmers than such an organization. Much has been written about the cooperatives in Hermiston. They are widely advertised. Other localities study their methods and fundamentals. Other cooperatives here have grown on the branches of the original tree, and we are glad to see the parent trunk taking on broad new rings of growth from the sunshine of prosperity and a root system embedded in sound enterprise.

Corn has been reported 14 feet high, or something, and one variety is said to have taken on four ears already. Anyway, corn is surely corn this season, and it may be necessary to import a logging outfit to do the harvesting. And these melon and squash fellows are beginning to brag a lot.

NOTICE OF ADMINISTRATRIX SALE OF PROPERTY.

IN THE COUNTY COURT OF THE STATE OF OREGON FOR UMATILLA COUNTY.

In the Matter of the Estate of Henry Lee Dexter, deceased.

Notice is hereby given that the undersigned, Administratrix of the estate of Henry Lee Dexter, deceased, by virtue of an order of sale made and entered in the above entitled court and cause on the 22nd day of July, 1937, licensing, authorizing and directing the Administratrix of said estate to sell the hereinafter described real and personal property belonging to said deceased and his estate, will offer for sale and sell at private sale to the highest bidder therefor, the following described real property, in one parcel, to-wit:

NW 1/4 of NW 1/4 (less ditch) in Sec. 23; East 16 feet of Tax No. 2 in Sec. 14; and Tax No. 3 (less right of way) in Sec. 14; all in Township 5, North Range 27, E.W.M., Umatilla County, Oregon, and containing in all, 40 acres, more or less.

Also all of the personal property belonging to the said estate as shown by the Inventory and Appraisalment thereof filed in this estate, and also shown by a copy of said Inventory and Appraisalment in the hands of the Administratrix.

The minimum price for which the said described real and personal property may be sold shall be the sum of $4102.50, payable by assuming a certain mortgage against the said described real property and now existing in the approximate sum of $928.67, one half of the remaining balance to be paid in cash and the remaining one-half of said balance to be secured by mortgage on the real property so sold, subject to the mortgage now existing on same, and for a term of five years, and to bear interest at the rate of six per cent per annum, payable annually.

Bids for the said real and personal property shall be received by the undersigned Administratrix at her place of residence and post office address at Umatilla, Umatilla County, Oregon, from and after the 27th day of August, 1937, at 10:00 A.M., and said sales will be made without unnecessary delay and will be made subject to the confirmation of the above entitled court.

Dated this 29th day of July, 1937.

MINNIE McFARLAND, Administratrix of the estate of Henry Lee Dexter, deceased. (July 29 - Aug. 26)
