A SPARKLING
ADDITIONAL SECTION
THIS WEEK'S NEWS PICTURES

Beginning next Sunday, August 15, your Sunday Oregonian will contain a striking, colorful new section—crammed throughout its 12 brilliant pages with the liveliest, most timely pictures obtainable from all over the world. Each page will contain a grouping of related pictures that present a complete story.

$100 FOR A NAME

The Sunday Oregonian wants a short, expressive title for this new section to replace the temporary title, "This Week's News Pictures," and will pay $100 for the best title submitted. Each entrant must submit only one suggested title, and a statement of 50 words or less giving reasons why its writer believes the title is good.

Entries will be judged first upon the expressiveness and suitability of the name, and second, upon the logic of the statement supporting it. Elaborate and expensive art work will not be considered. Entries will be judged by members of The Oregonian news staff, and their award will be final.

All entries must be sent by mail, addressed to the Sunday Editor, The Oregonian, Portland, Oregon. Contest closes at midnight Saturday, September 11, 1937.
