Just to remind you that the Silver Jubilee celebration of the Umatilla Project fair opens one week from today. Twenty-five times this show has been put on and the coming show has no signs of age. It will be the youngest, the biggest and most spirited of them all.

Remember that the fair belongs to you. The board of directors are only working for the citizens of the west end of Umatilla county. You would be displeased if they put on a dinky fair—so combine your efforts with theirs and make it a success. Bring your best products and add your attendance and good will.

At every fair there is always that fellow who smugly remarks, "I can beat that at home," or, "Why didn't they come out to my place and get something good." If he shows up this time, let's give him the gate.

The parade will be a pageant of what is here, what has been done in 25 years, and assurance of what is yet to come. It should convince our visitors that there is a great forward moving spirit among the people of these irrigated and adjoining districts, united with a full determination to seek what is best for each community. A parade is not just a show of products, goods and regalia, but, in a far greater sense, a show of pride, love of home, loyalty, and friendly spirit.

As early as 1914 people at Hermiston were pulling for the county fair to be held here as pointed out in an editorial. "It has been suggested that the county fair be revived and held at Hermiston. Such a movement is commendable and should meet with hearty support. People outside of Hermiston are known to have said they favored a county fair and would be willing to see Hermiston get it."

GLENN C. WADE UNABLE TO APPEAR

Townsendites and their friends were disappointed Tuesday night when word was received that Glenn C. Wade, district manager, would be unable to speak at the meeting as scheduled because of sudden illness. He was reported to have been taken to the Hot Lake Sanitarium.

A. C. McIntyre, district attorney, Rex Ellis, state senator, and Tom Hettle, all of Pendleton, were present at the meeting and gave short talks as they were introduced. C. W. Michael of club No. 40 of Portland, was present and gave a talk.

Music by the Sage Brush Wranglers of Stanfield was enjoyed. Boys composing the group are George McDermott, Don Refvem, Raymond Meade, Raymond Beebe, Billy Penney, another member of the group, was not present.

Other numbers on the program included an accordion solo by Miss Thelma Shipp; a monologue by Mrs. W. G. Dyer; a piano and harmonica selection by Jesse Prindle; a recitation by Mrs. W. T. Knapp; and vocal solo by Miss Lois Hutchison. A rug made by the club ladies was raffled off to bring a good sum.

Delicious refreshments were served. The advisory board and officers will meet at the country home of Fred Lenz, Tuesday, August 31st.

SECOND DAIRY SHOW SUCCESS CREDITED

(Herald Issue Nov. 21, 1914)
The second annual dairy show is a matter of history. It is history that will be remembered for many days by every person attending. That it was a success from start to finish was simply evidenced by the many expressions from visitors. To this success credit is due almost entirely to three men. They were F. B. Swayze, C. S. McNaught and H. M. Straw. Others worked, and worked hard, either on sub-committees or as individuals, but none contributed to the extent of these three. Therefore, whatever good was accomplished must be in the main be placed to their credit.

Only one of the three men mentioned in the story now live in Hermiston. C. S. McNaught is living in Portland, and H. M. Straw passed away in 1928, and his widow Pearl Straw now lives in Portland.

WALLA WALLA HAS FARMER CONTEST

The 1937 world's championship all-around farmer contest to be held in conjunction with the southeastern Washington fair at Walla Walla, September 2, 3 and 4, will offer a grand prize of $100 and eight other cash awards.

There will be regular farm jobs for each contestant and among them are examination on general farm knowledge; sack jiggling and sewing; furrow plowing; fencing, bundle shocking; hay pitching; construction; harness and hitch team; sack bucking; hog calling and driving; tractor driving; and milking. All necessary materials for the competition will be furnished by the management.

MOUNTAIN-TOP C. E. SERVICE SUNDAY

A mountain-top Christian Endeavor service for young people from Baker, LaGrande, Pendleton, Milton-Freewater and Hermiston was held Sunday evening at the mountain cabin of Mr. and Mrs. D. Bowman of Mission, under the direction of Bud Price of LaGrande as general chairman. Price is a sophomore at N.C.C. at Eugene this year. There was a registration of 125 at the meeting.

Others who took an important part in arranging and carrying out the program were Kay Turnblad of Baker, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. A. W. Turnblad of Hermiston, who is president of Baker and Grand Ronde Unions; Clarence Planting of Pendleton, past president of Columbia Union; Thelma Dockweiler, president of the Pendleton C. E. society; and Ray Huet of Milton, in charge of the amusement program. Mothers who assisted with the refreshments were Mrs. L. Purdy, Mrs. W. Price, Mrs. Nellie Harrison of LaGrande, Mrs. Carpenter of Pendleton and Mrs. D. Bowman of Mission.

Ray Huet of Milton opened the amusement program as a broadcast with an amateur hour and many stunts and readings were given by the various groups represented.

The worship service was held in the open under the fir trees and the singing was led by Hugh McCallum of Milton. The speakers were introduced by Bud Price, giving talks as follows: Miss Kay Turnblad on the topic "Whither Bound Youth"; Powell Craham, president Columbia Union, of Milton, on "Building Character Through Self Denial"; Thelma Dockweiler on "How Our Bible is Our Guide for Our Daily Life"; Wallace Patrick, student pastor at Marcola, Ore., and student at N.C.C. of Hermiston, spoke on "Follow Me Today." The benediction was given by Mrs. Nellie Harrison of La
