PIKE BUYS OLD THOMAS PLACE

COLUMBIA (Special) — The old Steve Thomas place in Columbia district was sold last week by the Hermiston Irrigation district. The buyer was I. D. Pike of Grass Valley, Oregon, who reportedly purchased the ranch for his son-in-law, who at present is employed in western Oregon, but who is expected to move onto the place soon. It is planned to handle the land as a poultry farm. Mr. Pike already has holdings in the district, his other ranch being under lease to Ed Hugg. Mr. Pike is postmaster at Grass Valley. The place purchased last week has been occupied for the past year by Mr. Scheidler and family.

Visitors at the Henry Hooker home Sunday were Mr. and Mrs. E. R. Craven of Touchet, Mr. and Mrs. Gus Linder, Mrs. Geo. Corliss and Mrs. Glen Moore.

Mrs. Emma Christley and son Dell were Sunday dinner guests of Mr. and Mrs. Voelke of Walla Walla. The dinner was in honor of the birthdays of Mrs. Christley and Mr. Voelke.

F. M. Lenz purchased a new electric refrigerator which was delivered Monday.

Elbert Hutchinson and Marvin Roy of Montgomery & Ward of Pendleton were business visitors in this district Monday.

Faith Wilson of Olympia, Wn., was an over night guest at the Lester Hammer and Swarner homes last week. Faith is now employed as a stenographer in an office in Olympia.

Mrs. Amanda Shaver and family were Sunday dinner guests at the John Conrad home.

Mrs. G. E. Carnes of Pilot Rock visited with her sister Mrs. William Struthers Thursday and Friday last week.

Mrs. Corley, mother of Mrs. Clyde Hebert, and Mrs. Hughes, sister of Mrs. Hebert, visited here Wednesday of last week. They are from Pendleton.

L. Hammer and Mr. and Mrs. Carl Hammer made a trip to Weston last Sunday to spend the day with Mr. and Mrs. Hugh Neill.

A group of Epworth League delegates attending the district conference in Hermiston, held a sunset meeting at the Cold Springs reservation Saturday evening. Rev. H. O. Clark of Hood River, returned minister, who lived in Hermiston 30 years ago, was in the party. Townsend Auxiliary members who attended the all day meeting at the home of Mrs. H. B. Darling last Friday were Mesdames Ottis Buell, Charles Epperson, Lois Blum, Forest Moore, Gus Linder, Henry Hooker, Joe Udey and F. M. Lenz.

Mrs. F. M. Ellis and Miss Mary Moore, mother and sister of Mrs. F. R. Moore, spent Tuesday of last week at the Moore home.

Mrs. Dan Hutchinson and son Bobby, Victor Epperson and Laura Perrard of Pendleton visited at the Charles Epperson home Friday.

Mr. and Mrs. Marvin Hutchinson and son Ralph of Pilot Rock were transacting business in Hermiston Wednesday of last week. They were also visitors at the Baxter-Hutchinson home.

Mr. and Mrs. Schedler and family, who have been living on the old Steve Thomas place, have moved to the Stanfield project.

Mrs. Hal McCulley, Mrs. Henry Hooker and Mrs. Baxter Hutchinson attended the Cooperative Guild meeting at the Union church in Hermiston last Friday.

Wind Insurance

The wind storm along the Pacific Coast a few weeks ago almost reached hurricane proportions. It was near enough to the real thing to "suit" most people. Many thousands of dollars are being paid out for damages by insurance companies under the wind storm feature of coverage provided by the Additional Hazards Supplemental Contract. This coverage can be had for a very few cents. Protect your property against the spring winds.
