COLUMBIA SCHOOL PROGRAM MONDAY

The Columbia school house was the scene of a jolly get-together last Monday evening, with school children, parents, patrons and Rev. H. R. Thornhill taking part in the program.

local talent and an opportunity for residents to become better acquainted with new residents of the district. She also asked that anyone not already a Grange member to investigate this fine national organization of which every farmer and member of his family should be active members.

Reasons given were, to secure knowledge of legislative measures being sponsored by the national Grange, social contact, and opportunities to hear agricultural problems discussed by local and visiting speakers.

The program numbers included: Instrumental trio, Mrs. Chester Hunt, Thelma and Alfred Shipp; Rhythm band numbers; Reading by Mrs. W. G. Dyer Harmonica number, Thelma Shipp, Ruth McCulley, Arlene and Katherine DeGormo; "A Farmer's Soliloquy" by C. R. Moore; Southern melodies composed and sung by P. E.
