AUXILIARY POPPY DAY WILL BE MAY 28

Preparations for the observance of Poppy Day, Saturday, May 28, are being completed by the Hermiston unit of the American Legion auxiliary, Mrs. G. W. Ripley, poppy chairman, announced this week. She will be assisted by a corps of workers from the unit.

"With our remembrance of the dead, naturally come thoughts of those who did not die but who lost the health and strength of their young manhood through wounds and exposure. Many of these men are still fighting a brave battle in lonely hospital beds and poverty stricken homes. The poppy is for them, too, and for their wives and children. The dimes, quarters and dollars dropped into the poppy box on Saturday, May 28, will enable the Legion and Auxiliary to carry on the the great work of the rehabilitation and child welfare program."

PLANS READY FOR CROP INSURANCE PENDLETON MEET

Hundreds of wheat growers from Oregon, Washington and northern Idaho are expected to join AAA and extension officials from these same states in the big tri-state meeting at Pendleton May 17, which will serve to launch the new federal wheat crop insurance program in the Pacific northwest.

George E. Farrell, regional director of the AAA for the western states, is scheduled to speak at the Pendleton meeting, as are several high officials of the new crop insurance corporation. Senator Clyde Kiddle of La Grande, newly appointed state supervisor of crop insurance for Oregon, will also be on the program.

Following a general meeting March 17, to which the public is invited, a second day's session will be held for the AAA and extension officials of the three states, at which detailed procedure of handling the crop insurance will be fully discussed. The Pendleton meeting is one of a series being held throughout the wheat growing areas of the United States at which the operation of the new crop insurance program is being explained.

The insurance program applies only to wheat at the present time, and will take effect with the 1939 crop. Premiums may be paid in either wheat or cash and will be paid at the time of seeding of fall wheat. It is planned to have the entire Oregon organization ready to stunts such as double flips, back flips, and rolls, ending with pyramid, in the modern physical education demonstration. March formation by the girls, and a show of gym games, was followed by a tap dance presented by Claudine Hale, Geraldine Mullins, Marion Pierce and Gladys Pierson.

P.E.X. PRESENTS ANNUAL SHOW

A thriller before the big climax of the sports, was when the girls showed their colors in a rope-jumping and basketball relay.

The main feature before the Queen's court showed both boys and girls combined to present "The Sports Page," which was a dress-up parade of the major sports, and recreations enjoyed by young people. With the exception of football a boy and girl each represented sports in basketball, baseball, tennis, swimming, hiking, fishing, horseback riding, hunting, skiing, golf and track.

Music for the dances and marches was furnished by Mary Helene Pier-sol at the piano.

A dance was given at the close of the show in honor of Queen Marie I and her court.
