Vote for Port.
The proposed port at Umatilla is of great importance to people of this locality and voters of the entire west end of Umatilla county should go to the polls August 16 and support the movement. It means not only facilities for better handling of freight and assistance in building up the volume of business in this territory, but it means better freight rates for all products grown here, and also for those consumed by our citizens, which are shipped in, such as gasoline, oils, and heavy merchandise. It is the duty of every voter to take interest enough in his own economic affairs to cast his ballot Tuesday, August 16.

LEGION CONCLAVE IN PENDLETON

Pendleton (Special)—The biggest convention so far to be held in Eastern Oregon will be staged in Pendleton September 1, 2 and 3, when legionnaires from all over the north west will come here for the 20th annual Department of Oregon, American Legion convention.

The convention commission have received word that Daniel J. Doherty of Woburn, Mass., National Commander of the American Legion will arrive in Pendleton on Thursday, September 1st, and will remain for the convention. Prominent men who have indicated that they will be present include Governor Charles H. Martin of Oregon, a legionnaire and delegate from Willamette Heights Post No. 102, Portland; Secretary of State Earl Snell, also a legionnaire; State Treasurer Rufus D. Holman; members of Oregon congressional delegation and several department officers of the Departments of Idaho, Washington and California.

COLUMBIA
By Lois Hutchison

Mrs. Emma Christley and son Dell left Thursday morning on a three weeks' trip to Indiana where they will attend a family reunion. They were accompanied by Mrs. Baxter Hutchison who will visit in Grand Junction, Colo., and by Mrs. Henry Hooker who will visit relatives in Hannibal, Missouri.

F. V. Keller of Jonesboro, Arkansas, arrived here Wednesday of last week for a visit with his brother, Charles Keller.

Harry and Sidney Barricklow of Rising Sun, Indiana, are visiting their sister, Mrs. O. H. Buell and family for two weeks.

C. A. Beck had a leg broken in three places when the horse he was riding fell with him Thursday of last week. He is in the Hermiston General hospital.

Mr. and Mrs. F. L. Barnett and Mrs. Frank Silva made a trip to Walla Walla and Milton the first of the week.

Among the Columbia district people attending the Union church basket dinner held on the W. C. Morehouse lawn Sunday were Mr. and Mrs. Harvey DeMoss, Mr. and Mrs. B. E. Getchell, Mr. and Mrs. H. A. Wilson and Mr. and Mrs. Henry Hooker.

Mrs. Getchell's mother, Mrs. Cecilia Blice departed Wednesday for her home in Denver, Colorado.

Mary Ellis, who has been at the Hermiston General hospital for some time, is now at the home of her sister, Mrs. F. R. Moore.

Mr. and Mrs. O. H. Buell and children left Tuesday for a few days' visit in Portland, Seaside and Corvallis.

Harold Buell came home over the week end to see his uncles and parents.

Margaret French of Pendleton was a week end visitor of Mrs. Mabel Weeks.

Joyce McCulley, who is at the Joe Cannon wheat ranch assisting with the cooking, seems to be enjoying the harvest. She tells of a ride taken on the combine.

Jo Ellen Smith spent Thursday and Friday of last week with Mr. and Mrs. Graybeal of Umatilla.

Mr. and Mrs. Charles Epperson and Mr. Jeppe, Mrs. Epperson's father, attended the carnival in Pendleton Saturday night.

Mrs. E. J. Kerr and Miss Clara Ward went to Ukiah Sunday to visit the former's daughter, Mrs. Bill Hiatt.

Mr. and Mrs. Martin Refvem and family went to Spokane Sunday for a short visit with Mr. Refvem's sister, Mrs. Mutz.

Mr. and Mrs. Jay Baker and daughter Sharon Lee left early this week on a motor trip which will take them to several points of interest in Canada. They were joined in Pomeroy, Wn., by Mrs. Baker's mother, Mrs. Dixon who will accompany them.

Mr. and Mrs. F. A. Baker plan to go to Sterling, Colo., the latter part of this week to visit their sons Paul and Bruce.

John Albon celebrated his eighty-fifth birthday at his home Monday. Many friends called to greet him and his eighty-eight year old sister, Jennie Albon, and another sister, Mrs. Emma Smith of Fresno, Cal., is in her ninety-second year. The Albons are pioneers in the Stanfield community, having come from Minot, N. D., in 1910.

The Monday Bridge club met at the T. G. Elliot home with Mrs. Margaret Daughtry as hostess. Substitute players included Marilla Dunning, Mrs. Wm. Marbut and Mrs. Elliot. Mrs. W. G. Wallace held high score.

Miss Arlie Ann Parry, who is employed in Echo, is spending this week at the home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Parry.

Miss Violet Denney, who was quite ill in the Coffey clinic and hospital in Portland for seven weeks, is now convalescing at the home of her father and mother, Mr. and Mrs. John Denney.

Mrs. Dena Wooster and Collie Tillery stole a march on their friends when they were married in Walla Walla July 30th.
