

The Hermiston Herald
 Published every Thursday at Hermiston, Umatilla County, Oregon, by Pauline M. Stoop and Alfred Quiring, Publishers.
 Entered as Second Class Matter December, 1906, Umatilla County, Oregon.
 Subscription Rates:
 One Year $2.00
 Six Months 1.00
 Three Months50
 Member Oregon Newspaper Publishers Association 1938

The Umatilla Project fair is only 14 days away. It takes every citizen to make it a successful show. If you are called upon for the smallest task, do it willingly, with a smile.

FACE the FACTS
 Only once before in world history have conditions been anything like at the present time. Indisputable facts cannot be ignored and will not be ignored by order-loving, God-fearing people, and among which indisputable facts are these:
 (1) A hideous monstrosity is rapidly moving to rule the world by dictators and to regiment the people.
 (2) God, by His holy prophets, thousands of years ago, as recorded in the Bible, foretold this great menace, its cause, and what will be the result.
Judge Rutherford
 known throughout the earth as authority on these vital matters, discusses them before a vast audience at London (England) Royal Albert Hall and for the world-wide special chain
BROADCAST SUNDAY Sept. 11
 Pacific Standard Time - 11 A.M.

BOARDMAN
 By Maryetta Thomas
 Louis McDonald returned here to attend high school after working at Heppner all summer.
 Janet Gorham returned home Saturday with her mother, who motored the New Plymouth last week. Janet has been working in Idaho this summer.
 Chloe Barlow returned this week after a few days visit with her grandmother, Mrs. Ferguson, at Gold Beach. Mr. and Mrs. Ferguson came with her and will remain for a visit.
 Herb Parsons and Mr. and Mrs. Shore and other friends of Spokane, spent the week end at Parson's. Herb returned to Mosier where he will be employed.
 Kate Gorham of Omaha, Nebraska, arrived on the train here Monday evening where she will visit.
 Pat Healy left for the mountains above Wallowa where he will take care of their sheep.
 Kenny Trumbull has taken a few days off so he could go to Pendleton and Spokane on a short visit.
 All of the teachers are here, with

J. V. VILLERMOURE
 ELECTRICAL SERVICE
 Phone 1031 Hermiston

COMING AGAIN

Dr. Curry, the old Reliable Optometrist of Seattle who has made professional visits to Hermiston for 25 years, will again be at the Hotel Hermiston
Fri., Sept. 16
 For One Day
 Eyes Examined — Glasses Fitted to Relieve Eye Strain and Headaches — Charges Reasonable.

school starting Monday morning.
 Norval Shannon is here again. He has been working in the harvest field out of Lexington most of the summer.
 Eldon Shannon came home over the week end from near La Grande where he is employed on the oiling crew.
 Virginia Compton spent a few days visiting here last week, and Punk Compton took her to Pendleton where she will enter nurses training.

STANFIELD
 By MRS. J. M. RICHARDS
 Mr. and Mrs. F. C. Fitzpatrick arrived Wednesday from Klamath Falls to take care of last minute details in connection with the opening of school. Mr. Fitzpatrick, principal will teach algebra, typing 1, shop, public speaking and will assist with band instruction. Sue Waid will have charge of girls' physical education, English, French, shorthand and typing. L. L. Harsch, will direct boys' athletics, economics, biology, world geography and general science.
 The grade school faculty includes Mrs. F. C. Fitzpatrick, seventh and eighth grades; Miss Joanne Leslie, fifth and sixth grades; Miss Lenna Neill, third and fourth grades; and Mrs. Rachel Jackson, first and second grades.
 Mrs. Don Sikes will have charge of band and orchestra, being employed as part time instructor. In the primary grades, a rhythm band and in the intermediate grades a harmonica band will be organized.
 Bob Beebe, custodian of the building and grounds, has everything in good condition, having varnished and waxed desks and floors and redecorated some parts of the building.

Umatilla County Pomona Grange held at Stanfield, Thursday, September 1, had an interesting and enjoyable session and was well attended by representative groups from all parts of the county.
 A resolution was passed at the business session requesting the state legislature to pass an enabling act permitting the establishment of soil conservation districts. Such acts have been passed in most of the states and are necessary in order that we may secure the full cooperation of the federal government in a soil conservation program.
 In the afternoon session which was opened to the public Congressman Pierce, and his republican opponent, Senator U. S. Balentine, addressed the meeting and the majority were convinced that regardless of the outcome the people will be ably represented in congress. H. L. Hess, democratic nominee for governor, also spoke briefly.

Sam and Raymond Meade of Seattle and their sister Mrs. Nancy Waterman, spent Sunday and Labor day with their mother, Mrs. James Meade. Raymond will make his home with his brothers Sam and Curtis while attending high school in Seattle.

 Mrs. D. Arnold came from her home near Yakima Thursday, and will be at the home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Gossage for about ten days.
 George Sale and daughter Zelma made a business trip to Yakima Monday.
 Mr. and Mrs. John Beebe and son, Elmer, and Dallas Beebe and Max Rugee, all of Klamath Falls, visited from Friday until Tuesday at the homes of J. B. Kenneth and Bob Beebe.
 Mr. and Mrs. Nathan Medley, daughter Helen, and son John, Edna and Mabel Barager and Don Clark of Tacoma spent the holidays at the Homer Hedrick home.
 Mr. and Mrs. L. Javannault had as their guests for the holidays Mrs. Henrietta Roberts, Mr. and Mrs. Jones, Mrs. Harold Mortons and two children of Tacoma. Mrs. Rolando is Mrs. Jouvannault's daughter, while Mesdames Jones and Morton are her granddaughters. Four generations were represented at this reunion.
 Mr. and Mrs. Roy Keith have moved to the Kenison residence recently vacated by Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Mahrt. Mrs. Mahrt is again teaching at Hamilton, Ore., and Miss Leah is enrolled as a high school senior at Monument.
 Rev. and Mrs. S. Cushing Jr. and Rev. Sidney Hall of Salem were guests at the George Sale home Sunday. George Sale Jr., accompanied them to Salem Sunday night.
 Mr. and Mrs. Gordon Wallace and Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Behme attended the Fedler family reunion at Ritter Sunday.
 Miss Elva Berry returned Tuesday from a two months' visit in South Dakota, Nebraska and Colorado.
 Jimmie McDermott of Long Beach, Calif., arrived Monday on a fifteen day furlough to be spent at the home of his parents, Mr. and Mrs. M. J. McDermott. Jimmie enlisted in the U. S. Navy a year ago and is studying diesel engineering aboard the cruiser New Orleans.
 Mrs. C. M. McCall was hostess to the bridge club Monday. Substitute players included Mrs. George Elliot and Mrs. Tom Gregory and Mrs. Dill Penney.
 Guests at the Adolph Hayden home last week were Mr. and Mrs. L. Parker of Heppner.
 Miss Dorothy Shelton left Saturday for Santa Rosa, Calif., where she will resume her studies at Santa Rosa Junior college. She was accompanied as far as Stockton by her cousins Bill and George Zimmers who have spent the summer at the Shelton home.
 Mr. and Mrs. Charles Geer of Mitchell are guests of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Barber.
 Mrs. Jess Gossage and infant son Garen Lee returned to their home Monday from St. Anthony's hospital in Pendleton.
 Mr. and Mrs. Chris Decker of Westgate, Iowa, are house guests of their cousins, Mr. and Mrs. J. F. Rueber. The Deckers are leisurely touring the west, having already been travelling two months.
 Complimenting the Deckers, Mr. and Mrs. Rueber entertained at a lawn party Sunday. Present were Mr. and Mrs. Jack Rueber and family, Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Lindner, Mr. and Mrs. George Strohm, Wayne Lindner, Nadine and Leo Rueber.
 Mesdames J. F. Lane, M. Refvem and Frank Sloan attended the Eastern Star funeral services for the late Mrs. Anna Sapper in Hermiston Wednesday.

Why?
 Because stock fire insurance companies maintain not only legal reserves but also capital and surplus accumulated to meet abnormal losses as well as normal expected losses.
 Are YOU properly insured?
 Consult us for sure protection. We shall be glad to analyze your insurance requirements without charge or obligation.
 MORE than 80% of insurable property throughout the country is protected by Capital Stock Company Fire Insurance.
 Because stock fire insurance removes ALL the risk.

FIRST NATIONAL BANK OF HERMISTON
 F. R. SWAYZE, President
 Member Federal Deposit Insurance Corporation

September Specials!

Corn	Yellow Bantam	3 cans	25c
Peas	New Crop	3 cans	25c
Tomatoes	Large Cans	Doz.	99c
Flour	All Purpose	49 lb. sack	83c
Milk	Federal	Large Cans	6c
Candy Bars & GUM	EVERYDAY PRICE	3 for	10c
Chore Girls	Reg. 10c Size	2 For	15c
Coffee	Guaranteed	Lb.	15c
Hills	Red Can	Lb.	25c
Kool Ade		2 Pkgs.	5c

Connor's Cash Store

Specials for Sept. 9-10-12

FLOUR
 Flaky Bake - 49 lbs. $1.19
 Red & White - 49 lbs. $1.49

PEANUT BUTTER - Red & White 2 lbs. 39¢
 SANDWICH SPREAD Pint 25¢
 Golden Bantam Corn - R & W 2's 6 cans 79¢
 SIFTED PEAS - Red & White 2's 6 cans 79¢
 SUNSPUN Quart 39¢
 FRENCH DRESSING 15¢
 HOME STYLE PINEAPPLE - 2 1/2's 2 for 45¢
 SLICED PINEAPPLE - B & W 2 for 37¢
 FLAVORJELL 4 for 19¢
 CRACKERS - Sunshine 2 lbs. 29¢
 SLICED BEEF - Red & White 3 1/2 oz. 20¢
 CORNED BEEF - Red & White 23¢
 CHOCOLATE OVALTINE - large 59¢
 SUPERSOFT 3 for 23¢
 BORAX CHIPS 23¢
 BORAXO 15¢
 WASHO 27¢
 Boned and Rolled Ham - whole or half .. 43¢

Tomatoes
 Blue & White 2 1/2's
3 For 29c

MUTTON
 STEW 5¢ Lb.
 SHOULDER ROAST 10¢ Lb.
 LEG 15¢ Lb.
 CHEESE lb. 23¢
 Gold Crest

HERMISTON TRADING CO.
 Free Delivery Phone 341 Prompt, Courteous Service
 Your Friendly Home Owned Store

THE RED & WHITE STORES
 The Sign of a Dependable Store

Beginning SUNDAY SEPT. 11
 and every Sunday thereafter

World's Greatest Magazine in The SUNDAY OREGONIAN

Order Your Copy Today from your local Oregonian agent

Packed with amazing true stories stronger than fiction—True Life Romances—Science—History—Fiction. Portland's Largest Newspaper scores another big scoop for readers!

The OREGONIAN
 PORTLAND, OREGON