SHORT TOPICS

from the office of
EARL SNELL, Secretary of State

Cooperation on the part of motorists with schoolboy safety patrols will not only make the work of the patrols much simpler but will render more fruitful their efforts to protect the lives of thousands of youngsters who cross the street several times daily on their way to and from school, Secretary Snell says.

Friday, September 23rd, marks the closing date for the filing of independent candidacies in the November election, according to Secretary of State Earl Snell. All statements in behalf of candidates must also be filed for publication in the voters' pamphlet by this date.
