STANFIELD

By MRS. J. M. RICHARDS

About 170 CCC enrollees from Moro will arrive at camp Stanfield not later than October 17. O. E. Dyer camp conservationist is now here making contacts and outlining the work so the crews may be readily organized upon their arrival. The camp is now under the soil conservation division.

Lieutenant Wilbur Tagliabue and two assistants from the Squaw Creek camp are cleaning buildings and grounds. J. R. Chenault, who is field supervisor, was in Stanfield last week. Ed Ferris, who has been custodian at camp Stanfield since the boys left last summer, expects to hold the position at the Moro camp. Mr. Dyer's family will live in Hermiston.

Mrs. Hans Ruping and daughter of Seattle and Miss Helen Fredrickson returned to Seattle following a week's visit with their father and mother, Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Fredreckson.

Funeral services were held in Pendleton Tuesday for the late T. O. Yates, who passed away last week in Longview. Mr. Yates came to Stanfield in 1910 and for many years operated the lumber yard and hardware now known as the Tum-A-Lum. His widow and son Truman survive him.

Mrs. T. Nicolati, daughter Carmella and son Junior of Portland are guests of Mrs. Elizabeth Nudo.

Mrs. Glenn Jackson returned Monday from Pendleton where she underwent a major operation in St. Anthony's hospital two weeks ago.

The Misses Lenna Neill, Joanna Leslie and Marian Troyer were La Grande visitors Saturday.

Mrs. G. E. Greathouse was hostess to the Monday Bridge club. Substitute players included Mesdames Ed Liesegang and D. Z. Penney of Echo and Mrs. R. G. Penney and George Elliot.

The Study club met Thursday at the W. T. Reeves home with Mrs. H. L. Hedrick presiding. The literary program consisted of a paper on "Community Spirit" by Mrs. F. B. Stuart, a biography of A. Einstein by Mrs. H. McCormick's reading of several Chester Fee's poems by Mrs. H. L. Hedrick. Club guests include Miss Berry and Mesdames N. D. Bard, M. Refvem and H. Gillanders. Following the meeting all enjoyed a social hour complimenting the following teachers, Mrs. F. C. Fitzpatrick, Mrs. Vernon Waid, Joanne Leslie, Lenna Neill and Marian Troyer. Mrs. Hedrick presided at the tea table.

Miss Lenna Neill was a Heppner visitor Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. Chris Yeiss and family of Walla Walla are making their home with Bert Baker.

Mrs. Maud Morse of O. S. C. extension service talked on "Common Problems of Parents," in the Presbyterian church. Several people from Hermiston were in attendance.

Mr. and Mrs. Jess Gossage and family visited Saturday and Sunday with their daughter, Mrs. D. Arnold in Yakima.

Mr. and Mrs. G. Massey have moved to their home which has been occupied by the Marion Martin family. Mr. and Mrs. Martin have moved to one of the Ling cottages.

Miss Blanche Thorsen, who teaches in The Dalles, spent the week end with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. S. Thorsen.

Guests at the Charles Herrick home over the week end include, Mr. and Mrs. Geo. McCormack, Mr. and Mrs. Frank Binchus and Mr. and Mrs. Sorenson of Portland.

NO CHANCE FOR ARGUMENT!

A woman advertised for a husband and got one at a cost of $3.65; he joined the army and was killed in action 6 months later, and she collected $10,000 insurance and a widow's pension for life. That was $3.65 well invested. A good investment is to remember that no used car is any better than the dealer you buy it of; we stand back of every statement we make regarding our used cars 100%.
