Governor

He is a Legionnaire, having served 18 months

He began life as a mill hand; was always a hard worker and the young men on the log carriage recognized that he would make a success of life.

As State Senator he procured amendments to the Workmen's Compensation law in favor of injured workmen and their dependents.

He helped save the homes of hundreds of workers and small businessmen from foreclosure when he sponsored the HESS TAX law, surrendering interest and penalty on delinquent depression taxes.

He was born in Freemont County, Idaho, October 12, 1890. His parents were pioneers of the Old Oregon country.

Besides the Hess law, which dealt effectively with Oregon's $27,000,000 tax delinquency problem, he sponsored, with other members of the legislature, Oregon's first old-age pension law and worked subsequently to liberalize the provisions of the law.
