How We Grow.
 How we do grow! Last July we gave rural electrification to our farms, after a year of steady work. Now we add more to that system, and more is likely to follow. Boats are operating at the port in Umatilla, and bigger things are assured. Along with these, farms are being improved; fifty or more new farms have been added to the project in less than two years. Towns are making improvements, bettering home living conditions, adding new farm buildings and new business houses. The registration of voters in this area for 1938 was the largest in its history. Contentment, stability and progress are very evident.

After the sermon a young man told the pastor if that statement was correct that he must have met a battleship.
