Ruby's Beauty Shop

Positively waves closer to the head... gives an unusually even curl... leaves hair marvelously soft and lovely regardless of texture and color... Your wave will last longer. It is cool... Featherweight... only six minutes on the head. Ask us for a test curl. No machine—No electricity—not like any other permanent waving method.

It's Thrilling to have a Rilling!

All laces and insertions greatly reduced at Brierley's.

Sam Carson had not seen his brother Wallace for 30 years until last week when he arrived from Casper, Wyoming, to spend three days with him. During his stay another brother, Earl Carson from Pullman, Wn., also visited here.

Mr. and Mrs. G. H. Frederick are now making their home at Hinkle, southwest of Hermiston. Mr. Frederick is dispatcher for the U. P. railroad and was stationed at Echo for some time, coming here from Ione.

Many a youngster's heart was thrilled Christmas eve when Santa Claus passed gifts to them at the Oasis Theatre. The jovial old fellow was none other than M. L. "Heezy" Watson, whom all the kids know as Janitor at the high school and for a number of years at the grade school.

Dr. and Mrs. R. A. Kelley of Mitchell, South Dakota, arrived Wednesday and are the guests of his sister and family, Mr. and Mrs. R. H. Persol this week. They are enroute to Los Angeles, Calif., where Dr. Kelley will attend a clinic for eye, ear, nose and throat specialists.

Miss Catherine McMullen left Tuesday for Seattle, Wn., where she will spend the remainder of the month with her aunt, Mrs. C. G. Grant, who is a sister of Mrs. McMullen.

Bill Harris plans to leave the latter part of the week for Hood River where he has been employed for some time. He spent the holidays here with friends and relatives.

Miss Helen Jendrzewski and Miss Barbara Reid left Tuesday for Corvallis to enroll in Oregon State college for the winter term, after spending the holidays with relatives here.

The Christian Endeavor society enjoyed a party last Friday night in the basement of the church with Allen Clarke conducting the entertainment as social chairman. Among the guests were many students home from college for the holiday season. Refreshments were served at a later hour.

Watch for January specials. Prices reduced on all winter stock at Ruby McMillan's.

Ben Boylen, son of Mr. and Mrs. Herbert Boylen of Columbia district, left Tuesday for Portland where he will take final tests at the Mohler Barber college. He completed his work in November and will soon be ready for an apprenticeship.

Kenneth Oviatt and Marlon Oviatt are visiting their parents, Mr. and Mrs. Ray Oviatt, who live west of the Hermiston butte. Kenneth has been working with the state highway department on Beech Creek and Marlon has been in Toppenish, Wn., for several months.

Mr. and Mrs. W. G. Kersbergen returned December 31st from Portland where they attended a meeting of the Oregon State Teacher's association which was held in the Lincoln high school. They spent most of last week in Portland.

C. Warner, pastor of the Union church, left Monday morning for Eugene where he is visiting his family for a week. He was accompanied by Miss Opal Stockard, who lives with the Warner family while attending Northwest Christian college, and Miss Kay Turnblad, student at U. of O., and Clement Stockard, student at O.S.C., at Corvallis.

Miss Norma Saylor, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. J. B. Saylor of Butter Creek, left Sunday for Roseburg, Ore., where she is instructor in home economics and supervisor of the cafeteria. She had spent the holidays at her home, and was accompanied to Portland by Carol Saylor, who visited here over the holidays with her father, J. E. Saylor, and other relatives.

The Enworth League of the Methodist church enjoyed a New Year's eve watch party Saturday night in the basement of the church. Games were enjoyed until 11:30 p. m., and at that time a watch service was conducted. Hostesses at the party were Beatrice Hord and Dorothy Pierson, who, with their members, entertained winners in a contest for general society improvement. Miriam Swanner was captain of the winning side.

Fred L. Towne of Northwest Christian college of Eugene, Ore., visited last Friday with C. Warner, pastor of Hermiston Union church, while enroute to Boise, Idaho. He was married Monday, January 2, to Miss Goldie Lowry, daughter of Mrs. Bertha Lowry, and the couple left immediately for White Swan Mission, Wn., where they will work with Mr. and Mrs. Dallas Rice. Towne was a member of the NCC quartet appearing here in a concert last spring.

The Hermiston Townsend club will hold an oyster supper in the Legion hall Friday, January 13, at 6:30 P. M. Tickets will be on sale by the committee. A Dutch auction sale will be held following a short business session and dancing will be enjoyed. Music will be furnished by the Stanfield orchestra.

The last meeting of the club was well attended. H. R. Hartley donated a registered Jersey bull calf to the club which was sold to Mr. Loney for $50.50; a turkey donated by Mr. DeLano of Boardman; and an apron by Mrs. Gus Linder, were also sold, netting the club $8.25. This money was sent to national headquarters and will be used for lobbying purposes during the national congress.

A rug is on display in the Hermiston Light & Power Co., office window, which will soon be sold.

The Townsend Auxiliary is meeting every first and third Thursdays at 1:00 P.M.

TOWNSEND SPEAKER COMING JANUARY 13

The committee which met with the city council reported that the council would cooperate with the Garden club program. Methods of improving the cemetery were discussed by the council and it was brought out that W.P.A. labor would be available for the cemetery work.
