VOLUME XXXII NUMBER 27

HERMISTON, UMATILLA COUNTY, OREGON, FEBRUARY 23, 1939.

TURKEY COOPERATIVE WILL BUILD $7500 KILLING PLANT HERE

PLANT COMPLETED BY MAY 1ST

The board of directors for the Eastern Oregon Turkey Growers' association authorized construction of a $7500 turkey killing, picking and cooling plant at a meeting Tuesday evening. Construction will start early next week with M. L. Longhorn in charge.

The plant will be installed in the present warehouse west of the railroad tracks and will extend to the west street, and 24 feet north on what is known as the Tum-A-Lum Lumber company property. Dimensions will be 64 by 84 feet. The plant is being financed by local capital at the authorization of the membership. Lumber will be contracted by the Tum-A-Lum Lumber company and wiring will be done by J. V. Villermore of Hermiston.

Refrigeration equipment will be furnished by the Hersch Refrigeration Co., of Portland, and will be among the most modern. Two cooling plants will be installed enabling the plant to take care of a car load of turkeys a day when in full operation. Semi-sealed facilities will also be available at the plant.

A modern cooling rack which will carry 80 birds will be used in the operations. The racks are 38 inches wide, 64 inches long and 68 inches high and move on rollers. Birds will be hung on the racks when they come from the picking department and will be placed in the cooler. When properly cooled the rack will be removed, the birds graded from the rack and placed in their proper divisions for packing. The use of these racks will play a major part in increasing the efficiency of the plant.

The present plan is to have the plant ready by May 1st when the breeding stock will be marketed. When in full swing, 70 people will be employed to keep the birds moving, it was stated.

The exterior of the building will be sheet iron and when equipment is installed it is believed the plant will be among the most modern in the Pacific northwest.

The board of directors consist of John Jendrzejewski, president, Chas. Keller, C. A. Flanigan, Merrill Potter and L. C. Todd. H. G. Rankin is warehouse man and is being assisted with plans for the plant by H. K. Dean, superintendent of the Umatilla Field Station.

The Eastern Oregon Turkey Growers' association has operated in this territory for the past ten years. It is affiliated with the Oregon Turkey Cooperative association, which is a member of the Northwest Turkey Growers' association with headquarters at Salt Lake City, Utah. During the past season the association paid $126,533.64 net to growers, with the January pool incomplete, leaving approximately $500 more to be distributed to growers. A total of 33,786 birds, weighing 563,101 pounds were pooled through the association during the 1938-39 season.

Turkeys shipped through the association are known on terminal markets as "Norbest" birds and are becoming increasingly in demand due to their high quality.

CARD OF THANKS.

We wish to express our most sincere thanks to our many friends for their kindness during our sad bereavement and also for the many floral tributes.

Mrs. Laura Young and family,
Lowell and Geneva Young,
Mr. and Mrs. Emery Cox,
Mr. and Mrs. E. B. Young,
Mr. and Mrs. Paul C. Bull.

C. R. Moore to Glide.

Mr. and Mrs. C. R. Moore and daughter Wanda will leave next week for Glide, Ore., where Mr. Moore will serve as pastor of the Church of Christ. They have made their home here for several years. Mr. Moore was at one time pastor of the Union church, and Wanda has been active in church and Christian Endeavor affairs.

CO-OP. BUSINESS INSTITUTE DECLARED EDUCATIONAL

The more than 50 people who attended the cooperative business institute Thursday (today) declared the discussion one of education to persons interested in cooperation and its operation. Robert N. Kerr, attorney for the Interstate Associated Creameries, of Portland, contributed his services to direct the discussion on the legal phases of cooperation, which continued throughout the day.

J. H. Reid conducted a short session in which credit extension was discussed.

The institute will continue Friday, starting at 10:00 A. M. in the Legion hall, and will deal with the business and bookkeeping department in cooperatives. Paul Carpenter, marketing specialist from Oregon State college will direct the discussion, due to the inability of R. L. Kron of Portland to be present to act in that capacity.

Managers and directors and office employees of local cooperatives were present at the meeting today as well as representatives from Pendleton and Milton-Freewater cooperatives. Among those present from out-of-town were A. A. Thomason, Sam Ingle, Andy Miller, Geo. Prease, A. G. Wrinkle, O. K. Goodman, Walter Herman, John Hickman, Elmer Chastain, Wayne Chastain, Jack Wilson and Rev. Cole.

BOARDMAN SMOKER DRAWS MANY

More than 200 people from towns in west Umatilla county and northern Morrow county took in the Boardman alumni smoker last Friday night at Boardman in the high school gym. L. C. Todd of Hermiston refereed the bouts, and stated that the alumni were to be commended for the splendid arrangement of the ring and selection of bouts.

The main six round event between Stanley Partlow of Boardman and Don Alstott of Hermiston was a technical knock-out for Partlow in the third round after both got in some hard punches.

The semi-final was a decision in the fourth round for Benny White of Heppner against Tiny Caldwell of Umatilla, and was a scrappy fight. Bill Harris of Hermiston knocked Ed Darby of Heppner out in the first round with a lucky punch.

Sam McCracken of Hermiston won a decision over Young Cramer of Boardman in the third round.

Al Partlow of Boardman edged in on the third round with Bernard Corpe of Hermiston, after an even battle in the first two rounds, to win the decision.

The announcement was made of a smoker at Heppner, March 3.

MISS ARLEEN PETERSON.

Miss Arleen Peterson, who taught commercial subjects in the Hermiston Union high school in the year 1928-29, passed away February 2, after a brief illness at her home in Temple City, California. Since leaving Hermiston she had been in the employ of the U. S. Forest Service, first as a senior stenographer and later in personnel and library work. At the time of her death she was stationed at the University of Arizona, Tucson.

Seed Advice Given.

E. R. Jackman, farm crops specialist from Oregon State college, will be at the office of M. E. Knickerbocker, assistant county agent, the afternoon of March 3, to assist anyone interested in small seed production methods. The meeting will be very informal and will be for farmers who wish to supplement small seed production for other farm crops.

Old Time Revival.

A public invitation has been issued by Evangelist and Mrs. Dwight Brown of Ruck, Texas, to attend an old time revival meeting at the Full Gospel church in Irrigon. The meetings open Sunday, February 26, with a meeting every night except Sunday, at 7:45 o'clock. Special meetings will be conducted every Sunday afternoon at 2:30 o'clock at the Umatilla Gospel Mission. Special music and singing each night.

ASSISTANT COUNTY AGENT

Mr. and Mrs. M. E. Knickerbocker and their daughter Kay are pictured above as they arrived in Hermiston last week, where Mr. Knickerbocker is assigned as assistant county agent, succeeding Jay T. Pierson, who resigned. The Knickerbockers are making their home in the A. F. Bensch residence, vacated by the Piersons.

R.E.A. OFFICE IN NEW QUARTERS

The Umatilla Electric Cooperative association office is now located on the first floor of the Reclamation building, with the west entrance. The college extension office is now on the second floor, first door to the right at the head of the stairs.

The move was made Saturday, in view of the proposed extension of lines in the R.E.A. and added patrons who will be coming into the office each month.

M. E. Knickerbocker took over the extension office in the new location as assistant county agent in west Umatilla county, assisted by Miss Maxine Paul.

Wool Growers Auxiliary.

The Wool Growers auxiliary will meet Friday, March 3, at the home of Mrs. M. E. Coe in Echo. Mrs. Gaylord Madison, president, has requested that all members be present.

HEPPNER CAGERS TAKE HOOP TITLE HERE TUESDAY NIGHT

UMATILLA FIVE DEFEATED 19 - 18

A desperate last-quarter rally to overcome a ten-point lead fell one point short here Tuesday in the championship game of the Upper Columbia Basketball league when Heppner, winner of the eastern division, nosed out Umatilla, winner of the western division, by one point, 18 to 19.

The over anxious Umatilla team was outplayed by the fighting Heppner squad in the first three quarters. The score was tied, 5 to 5, in the first canto, while Heppner pulled away to a 12-to-7 lead at the half. Again in the third quarter a fired-up Heppner second string ran rings around Umatilla to run the lead to 19 to 9. But that was all for Heppner.

Umatilla Stages Rally.

Umatilla came to life and scored nine points in the final quarter and held the Heppner team scoreless, but when the firing ceased Heppner still held the one-point margin.

Three trophies were awarded after the game. To Umatilla went the Frank Jackson, Walla Walla, trophy for winning the eastern division of the league. Heppner was awarded the Bill Hatch, Spokane, trophy for winning the western division championship and the Master Engravers, Portland trophy for winning the championship of the Upper Columbia Basketball league.

The Heppner high school band furnished entertainment at the half with music and floor work.

Heppner (19) (18) Umatilla
Barrett (6) F (4) Barbouletos
Drake (1) F (2) Cooney
Applegate C (6) E. Hiatt
Wray (2) G (2) McNabb
Coxen (4) G (3) V. Hiatt

Substitutions: For Heppner, Morgan (3), J. Crawford (1), H. Crawford (2); for Umatilla, Bray (1).

Referees: J. Hodgen and J. Lloyd.

NOTED SPEAKERS AT COOPERATIVE STORE MEETING

Four men who are well informed in the cooperative field spoke at the annual meeting of the Hermiston Mercantile Cooperative store last Friday night, in the basement of the Union church, at which approximately 50 were present. K. Reynolds, president, and L. Quinn, manager of the Walla Walla Consumers' Cooperative, Chas. Pool, sales manager for the Pacific Supply Cooperative of Walla Walla, and Dr. Pratt, known for his interest in cooperative effort, were among the speakers.

Ralph Richards was elected to the board of directors, and E. Cooney and A. W. Turnblad re-elected. Other board members are Mrs. A. E. McFarland and Wm. Kik. Following the election of directors, manager E. H. Dunning reported that $4000 more business had been done this year than in 1937.

Mr. Reynolds suggested that the membership assist in every way possible in making the business a success.

Mr. Quinn pointed out the advantages of an educational program and habit forming methods in buying on a cash basis. Mr. Pool followed the remarks by Mr. Quinn by giving service, economy and quality as three fields to justify a cooperative, and obtain a better cooperative fellowship between members. He stated that the lack of frontier in which to start new industries, requires that there be a change in production.

Dr. Pratt gave a word of encouragement and advice to members in sticking together and building reserves. He believes that one of the solutions to proper distribution today is cooperation.

Program numbers were a reading by Mrs. W. G. Dyer, "What George Saw in the Movies"; Reading, "Team Work," by Mrs. A. E. McFarland; Reading, "Veiners," by Miss Myrthena Martin. Refreshments of cake and coffee were served at the close of the program.
