METHODIST CHURCH TO HONOR EASTER

The members and friends of the Methodist church will unite in recapturing some of the joyous feeling which was the experience of the disciples on the first Easter day as they were greeted with the news that Christ had risen from the dead. The morning worship will be enhanced by several special musical numbers. Included will be: "My Creed" by the trio consisting of Miss Gwen Ross and the Mesdames Robert Yeager and Stearns Cushing; "Hosanna," a solo, will be sung by Miss Golda Mumma; a duet, "Send Out Thy Light," by Miss Mumma and Mrs. Yeager.

The message of the service will be "He Is Risen." In a day when the war clouds are gathering heavy over the world, when people are becoming discouraged and weary, it is well to be reminded that there still is a living God. The time of the service will be 11:00 o'clock. The Sunday school will begin at 10:00 o'clock with Bible study classes for every age.

In the evening, beginning at 8:00, the Lenten season will close with the presentation of the Easter pageant, "The Challenge of the Cross," which is being given by the Epworth League group. This is a deep-moving, heart-warming and challenging drama of the lessons to be learned as one stands before the cross. Those who are taking part are Rebecca Pierson, Omega Sater, Beatrice Hord, Joyce Sater, Zelma Sale, Marian Ott and Dorothy Pierson.

The public is invited.
